This chart is the reason why I asked
you the questions
The oldest daughter, Margaret, was my third great grandmother.
Her brother Isaiah, who married
Ann McGuinn, evidently had two sons Anthony and Matthew. The former married Elizabeth Laird, a Scottish lass who may have been sister of Peter Laird, the grandfather of all the lairds of Baul.

If you have any answers ~~of~~ questions,
please let me know

Dear friend:-

Thanks for your note re ms. happy book. I know how well and I have had a copy of them since last year.

Look over the chart on the other side and let me know what you think.

I hope that you are making a good recovery, and that you will soon be mobile again.

Keep at the Roth notes, for I am sure they will be appreciated by all of us.

Sincerely

W. B. G. B. G.

Kapaneē - May 8th / 71.

Dear Dr. Burleigh -

Alice has been here and told me of you phoning her re the chart that you had sent me - and I had never returned it - I was very sure I had - my humble apologies - I think I sent you some changes in father's marriages - his former wife was Ellen Campion - her home was Campion's point where Herb. Bulch lives. Later he married mother - Mathilda Sinclair Hill from Amherst Island. not Letitia Hill she married David Sinnigan.

Have I made this clear for you. -

Father's first family was Edward -

Mary (Mrs. Wm. Moore), Susan (Mrs. A. P. Dwyer) and William who died in early life. - The second family were Alice Mathilda (Mrs. Archibald McNeil) died in 1907. over

Twins - Lester Hugh Andrew and Letitia
Annie Jackson - 2nd Twins Frederick William and Roderick Weller - both died at 11 mos old - Later myself Helena Charlotte
Jane Elizabeth -

If I can be of any other help - will be pleased to do so.

I am busy now getting myself in trim to be able to walk without a stick. - I have not much meat on my old bones but that's not much to worry about as long as I can keep moving.

They did not bother to send me to the glue factory - not enough glue to pay. So if I can manage until the 24th I am going out to the back 40 to graze on the green grass with the other oldsters.

Sorry to have disappointed you - will try to do better -

Sincerely - H. C. Reasoner.

Dear Cousin -

Thanks for yours of the 5th inst;

Have you any idea as to who George's

Did you ever have the Ancestry of the Loyal Rutlans put into print? It is very interesting and quite a bit of the information goes beyond what I had previously.

I know Bob Meachem would like a copy of it and probably a lot of other items. Do you mind if I send him copies of what ever he wants?

Trying to catch up on a few letters
so will end here.

With kindest regards,

Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

First, many thanks for your letter of January 4, 1976 and particularly for your suggestion that some mark or word be used on my chart to indicate that a female Ruttan left children. In future editions of the chart, when records indicate that a female Ruttan left children her name will be followed by the symbol +. The present typewriter has nothing that would suit this purpose but a future model might, in which case, a typed symbol would be easier to use. One thing I will have to watch and that is to explain that lack of a symbol does not indicate that a female Ruttan did not have children but only that my records do not include that information.

You ask about a Richard who was shown in the Census of 1851 (Bath). I learned of one Richard who seems to fill the bill from Bob Meachem's RUTTAN of CANADA outline amongst those shown "of unknown parentage". I have not yet been able to fit him in and wonder if a letter to Mrs. Sterling Glenn of Amherst Island (you mentioned her name in your letter) would help establish his place on the chart. Think I will try. If I learn anything I will let you know.

For some time I have been working on an Index of Christian Names of Some of the Ruttan Family and I enclose a carbon copy which might be of some help if you want to find a name on the chart. You will see "Richard's" name with no Ruttan # in the R section. The P21 in the right hand column (which I ask you to disregard) tells me, and no one else, that his name is in page 21 of Bob Meachem's RUTTAN of CANADA.

I imagine that you have heard from Cummings Daverne that he very kindly brought me your material on Sunday, the 22nd of April and we had a very pleasant evening watching the election of the new Progressive Conservative leader.

Since, I have spent every available minute with your papers. I have run quickly through them twice. The first time listing them as they came and found they were a bit out of order, which is understandable. The next time I re-arranged them and put what seemed to be similar items into one file. I presently have eight files and will likely have more before I am through sorting. One file contains handwritten and typed sheets of your Ancestry of the Loyal Ruttans and I was wondering if you had had this work put into print. You must have spent a very great amount of time in searching for the information concerning those early generations which will be of great value for reference purposes. While I have not yet tried to compare the details in your work with others it looks as though your information goes a lot further than what I have on hand. Most interesting.

In going through your papers I noticed Xeroxed copies of Joseph and Alley's Family Record sheet from their Bible and a transcript of same and of Joseph's will and remembering that one W. J. Patterson, a descendant of Capt. Peter was looking for proof to be submitted to the U. E. L. Association with his application for membership, I took the liberty of sending him copies of these sheets. I felt you would be pleased to help a future member of the Association.

One more thing I should ask and that is- Is there anything you especially would like done with the information contained in your papers? In the meantime I will go ahead with the cataloguing of the information.

Margot and I hope to attend the U. E. L. Convention in Kingston in May and look forward to seeing you then, if not before.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Burleigh and yourself,

Sincerely yours,

INDEX OF CHRISTIAN NAMES OF SOME OF THE RUTTAN FAMILY

It is thought that this index will be of value when used in conjunction with the tree type chart presently being compiled under the title "A Part of the Family of RUTTAN".

Numbers temporarily assigned to individuals are the same in the index as in the chart except that some additions to the index have been made since the present edition of the chart was set up. This will be a continuing condition because it is hoped that additional names will be added from time to time to both and it is likely the index will contain more identified names than existing charts.

It will be noted that certain names have not had numbers allotted to them. In some instances, while it is confidently believed that the persons named belong to this branch of the family, their position on the chart has not yet been established. Continuing search should, in due course, clear this situation. Other names, names of the brothers and half brothers and half sisters of William who was born in Tarrytown, N.Y. in 1710 as well as the names of persons shown in the chart in the two generations before have not been given numbers. The reason for this is that it was deemed most beneficial to all concerned to follow the numbering system used by Mr. J. Robert Meachem in his RUTTAN OF CANADA outline which he compiled in November 1974. Further, as the tree type chart really deals mainly with the descendants of Capt. Peter, Lieut. William and Jacob, sons of William and Maria (Demarest) Rutan, it seemed logical to start with this William as #1.

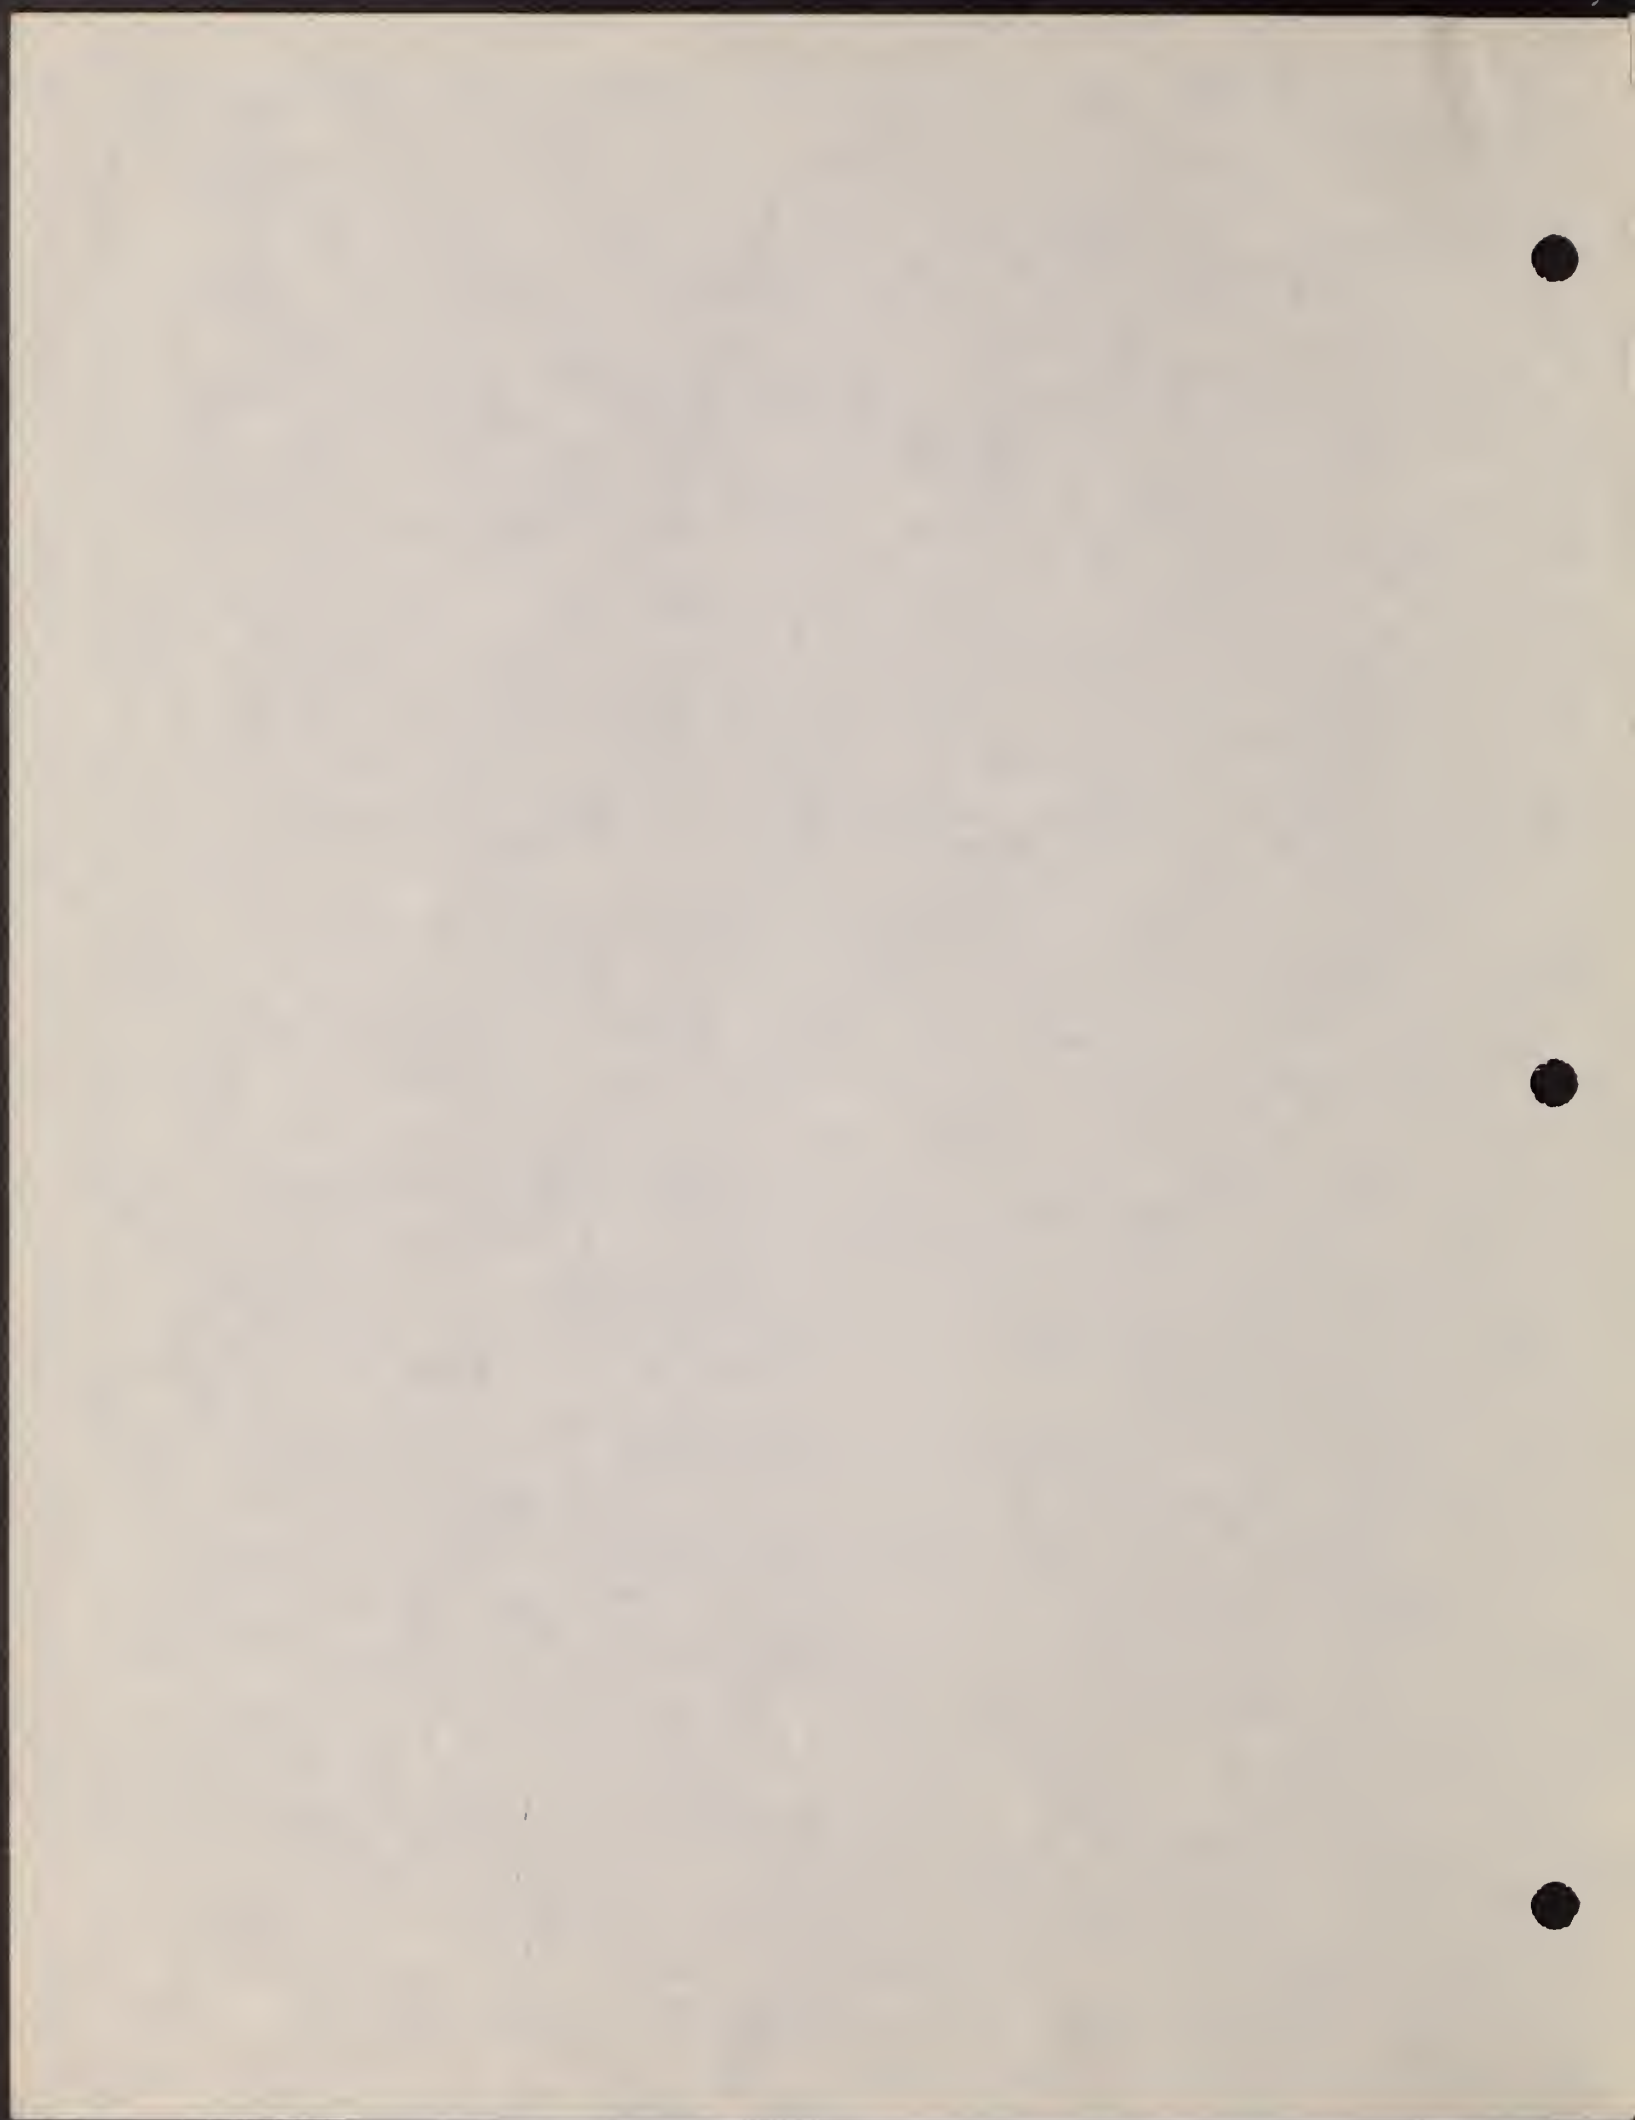

In this index it will be seen that the symbol + follows the name of many female Ruttans and the purpose of this is to indicate that records available tell us that they had children. Lack of the symbol does not necessarily indicate that they didn't have children but that if they did such information is not on hand. This possible oversight, and any others that may be noticed, will be corrected if readers will be so good as to draw them to my attention.

Each page of the index has nine columns, the headings of which are typed only on sheet one. There is one exception to this and it is where records indicate that a Ruttan had more than one spouse. In these instances the numerals 1, 2, and as required will be found between the column for the year of death of the Ruttan and their year of marriage column. Unfortunately in some cases the name of a spouse is not known or another marriage may not be recorded and indeed it would appear that many marriages are not yet known to me. Any information on these lines would be greatly appreciated.

It is hoped that the foregoing is quite clear but if there are any questions I will be pleased to try and answer them.

Henry N. Ruttan, U. E.

IMPORTANT- Please disregard completely column 9 "Sheet #": these numbers and letters are my references only.

RUTANTS AND RUTANS OF FRANCE

Compiled from French Documents

by Abram A. Rheutan,
Worcester, Mass.

From manuscripts in care of the Societe De L Historie Du Protestantisme Francais and other records in the Archives of France are found many references to the different members of this family in the 15th - 16th and 17th centuries.

The name in the early period was written Rutant and later became Rutan. The name Rutant is supposed to be of English origin.

Dom Pelletier, author of the Nobiliaire de Lorraine et Barrois, classes the Rutants among the aristocratic families of France for over a century.

Among the first known members were Philip and Ferry. They and their descendants lived in the town of St. Mihiel in the province of Lorraine on the river La Meuse, and became known as drapers - cloth Merchants and Manufacturers of lace, etc. Others held important official positions under the government.

Later owing to religious persecutions many members of the family left St. Mihiel and made their residence in the city of Metz, where they could enjoy religious liberty.

In the different manuscripts is mentioned 1506, Philip Rutant, a foremost draper in St. Mihiel.

1534 Ferry Rutant was Councillor or Echevin to the town house at St. Mihiel.

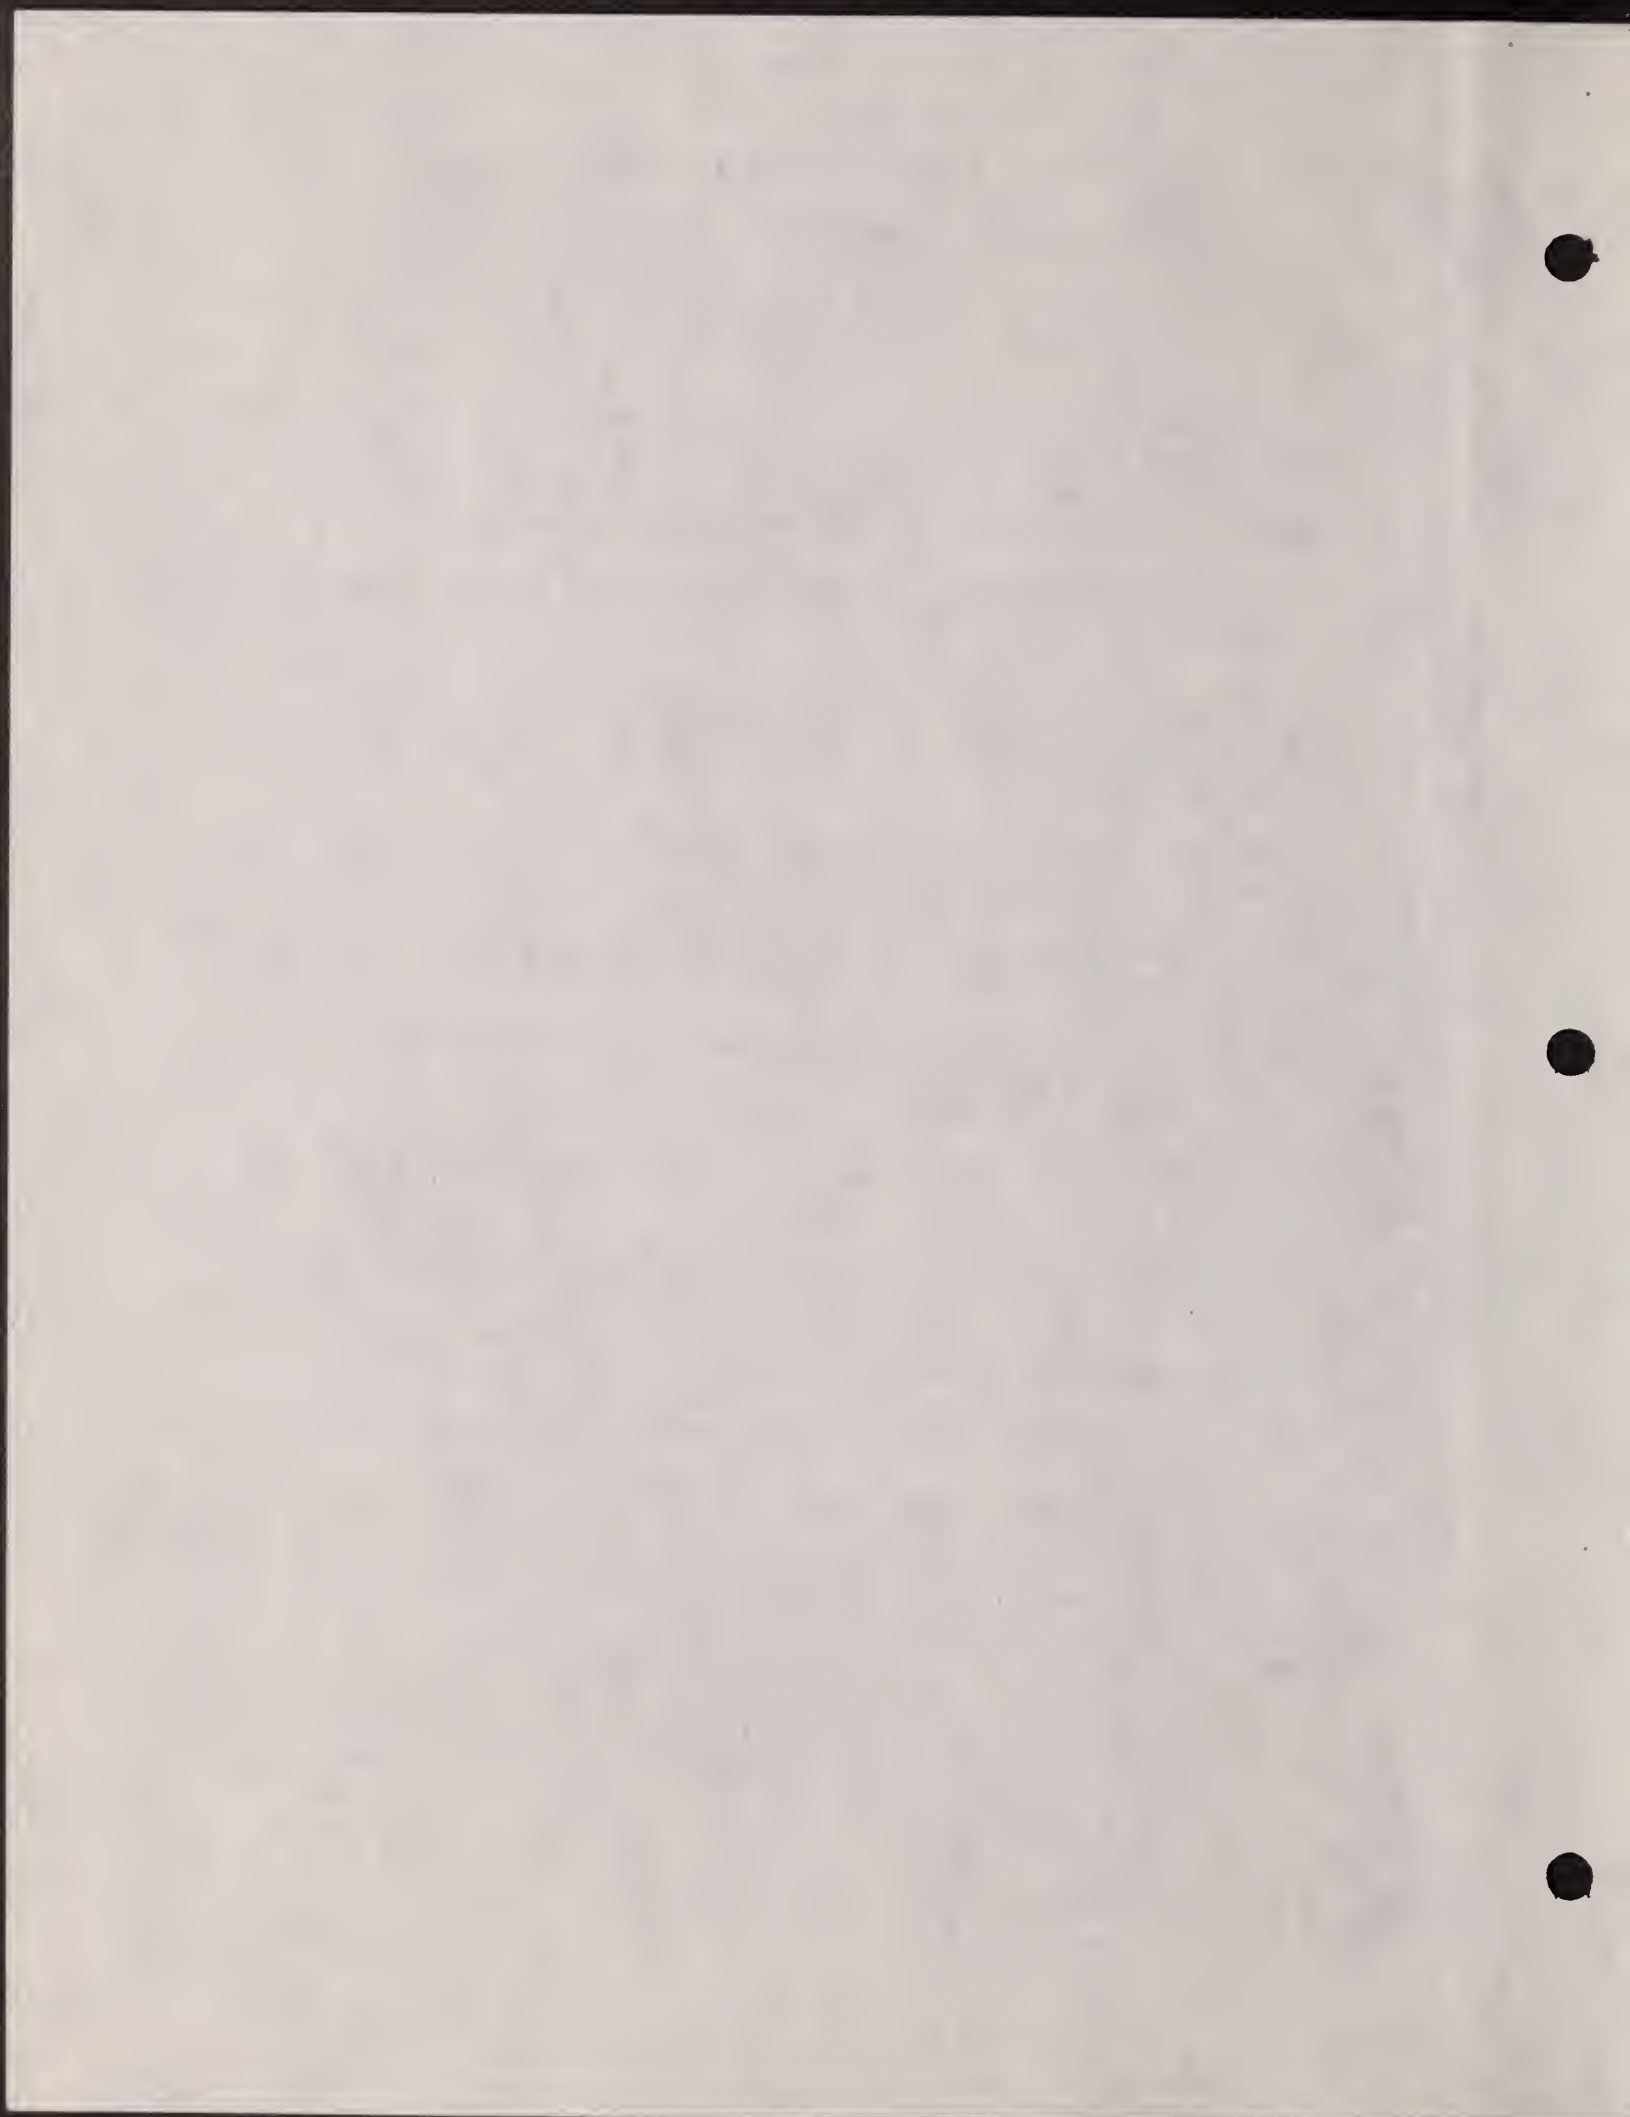

Jacques Rutant Councillor of State and President of the Grand Jours de St. Mihiel whose wife was Claudin de Lescut, Lady of Hanonville and their daughters name was Francoise.

Two other Rutants, Jean & Blaise held the same dignities in the year 1553.

In 1554 the town of St. Mihiel borrowed of Jean Rutant, (son of Ferry) 50 gold crowns to present to the duchess of Lorraine.

Ferry Rutan (who is supposed to be the son of Philip) and his wife were living in St. Mihiel in 1564 when their daughter Barbe married October 25, 1564. Pierie Busselot (son of Jacques) who was born at St. Mihiel June 4, 1541. Pierie later became treasurer of Metz, and one of the thirteen commissioners sent upon various missions to the King of France.

Ferry Rutan's wife died in 1593 at Silly, France.

1589 the Abbey of St. Mihiel bought from Jacques Rutant (grandson of Ferry) silk and gold thread which the Abbot Merlin wanted to equip the soldiers at the time of the Roman Catholic Ligue. Jacques was wealthy and loaned the Duke of Lorraine large sums of money for the holy war against the protestant King Henry the IV.

Other manuscripts mention

Florentine Rutan as living in St. Mihiel in 1598.

Jean Rutant, governor of the Saltchines of Salone and Catherine Zeltre, his wife.

Jacques Rutant Esquire Seigneur de Gerberville Lieutenant general under the Bailiff of St. Mihiel. His only daughter Anne, married Ch. Thierry Seigneur de Saint Baussant. Jacques died in 1636.

Jean Rutant Seigneur de Troyon Lieutenant general in St. Mihiel and his wife Marie Marion.

1608 Blaise Rutant (son of Claude) lace maker left St. Mihiel and became a resident of Metz.

1624 one Rutant of St. Mihiel hires from the city of Metz a house in the Rue Vieille Tappe.

1636 other Rutants, descendants of Ferry left St. Mihiel and settled in Metz. They were all protestants at this time.

The first known ancestor from whom we trace the Rutan family in America, was one Claudin Rutan (supposed to be the son of Florentine Rutan of St. Mihiel). His wife's christian name was Catherine. Her family name being unknown and there is no record of birth baptism or marriage of either found.

They had two sons, Blaise and Claude, both born in St. Mihiel.

Blaise was a lace maker and married Dec. 2, 1605 Marie Chappelot (daughter of Nicolas). In 1608 he became a protestant and settled in Metz with his family, they lived in the Rue Vinceutine. Later he became master of weights of the city.

Claud the 2d son was christened in the Roman Catholic Church at St. Mihiel, Oct. 19, 1590, and later he also became a protestant. He was a woolen draper of cloth merchant, and married in Metz, Jan. 28, 1615 Sara Vigeny. They had five children.

Judith and Marie (twins) christened Dec. 30, 1616.

Jean, born May 1618. Daniel christened Dec. 27, 1620.
Abraham christened Jan. 9, 1624.

Daniel, the 2d son of Claude and Sara Vigeny Rutan married in Metz, Nov. 30, 1642, Anne de Bize (who was christened Aug. 19, 1622) daughter of the protestant Jean de Bize (royal notary) and his first wife, Rachel Danrien. They had six children all born in Metz and were protestants.

1st Daniel (no record of birth or baptism). He married Marie Roderquin and they had a son Jean who died July 12, 1675. His wife Marie also died Dec. 23, 1675.

2d Sara	Christened	May 17, 1646
3d Paul	Christened	Feb. 5, 1649
4th Abraham	Christened	May 7, 1656
5th Abraham	Christened	June 10, 1658
6th David	Christened	Dec, 22, 1660

The 4th child Abraham died Dec. 12, 1657.

Claude the grandfather died Sept. 2, 1658.

Daniel the father died April 23, 1663

We find no other records of this family in France except the record of the oldest son Daniel who was living in Metx in 1675 when his wife Marie and son Jean died.

The boy Abraham while living in France was a minor and possessed of no property, therefore, its not expected to find any records of his doings.

It is evident, however, that he made his escape from France during the religious persecutions and possibly joined other refugees in the Palatinate.

There being no records found in France bearing the name of Abraham Rutan other than the ones mentioned herein we are therefore satisfied from this and other information obtained that the boy christened June 10, 1658 at Metz is the one who found his way to America in later years and he is the only one bearing the name Rutan or its substitute that ever came to this country.

What became of his mother, sister and brothers is not known, but it is presumed that they suffered as others did from the persecutions existing in France at that time.

In 1684 a list was taken of all the protestant men and women and children over 12 years of age then living in Metz, and out of 4381 persons the name of Rutan does not appear. This list is published and preserved showing that the once numerous family of protestant Rutans living in Metz, had either died, emigrated or rejoined the Catholic Church.

The belief is that Abraham's brothers had all died before this list was taken.

ANCESTRY OF THE LOYAL RUTTANS

by

DR. H. C. BURLEIGH

FOREWORD

Several years ago, while reviewing the Lutheran Church records of New York City, I discovered the marriage record of my Loyalist ancestors, William Howe and Margaret Van Norden, in the year 1770. In the course of further research I found that my ancestress, Margaret, was the daughter of Matteus Van Norden and his wife, Elisabeth Retan. As time passed I reviewed many church records of parishes along the Lower Hudson River and northern New Jersey. As a result, I was able to compile reliable records of the Ruttan Family, starting in 1683.

Having found irreconcilable differences between these American Records and the account of the Ruttan Family, as recorded in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", I felt compelled to put my findings in print for the benefit of present and future generations of the Family. I trust that the result will be read and enjoyed by the many descendants of these Loyalist Families. Those who disagree may wish to review the sources of my information and will find a list of these in the appendix.

It will also be noted that I have not carried the genealogical lines beyond the grandchildren of the Loyalist Ruttans in Canada. This will give present-day descendants the satisfaction of discovering, and adding to this record, their own descent from their Loyalist ancestors. In this regard, several blank pages have been added for this purpose.

NOTE: The following 15 pages are as they were written by Dr. Burleigh except for the numbers assigned to individual Ruttans. Dr. Burleigh started With Abraham, who came to America in 1675, as No. 1 whereas, in order to avoid re-numbering of other listings, No. 1 has been given to William who was the father of the Loyalist Ruttans. W. Ruttan.

See Rutants and Rutans of France attached

During its century (1683-1783) of residence along the Lower Hudson River the family surname is recorded with many variations - Ratan, Ratham, Rattan, Raten, Retan, Rettan, Retham, Rittan, Rutan, Ruthemp, and finally, since arrival in Canada, Ruttan. Tradition states that the family is of Huguenot origin, having fled from La Rochelle, France to England, removing to Holland at a later date, and eventually to America in 1734, which date is wrong, as will be proven. This tradition is supported by the fact that <sup>there was</sup> a Riton family in the 17th century in Lower Poitou, not too many miles north of La Rochelle.

Nothing is known of the Ruttan family before 1683, when its members were first recorded in Esopus, a few miles south of Kingston, New York. They may have come from France, by way of Holland, as has been related. But there are other possibilities. They may have been Walloons, a French-speaking people, from the Franco-Belgian border, who fled to Holland to escape French domination, as did the Demorests, the De Forests, to name a few. They may also have arrived in the Lower Hudson Valley from Canada, as did a number of Huguenot families, the Le Roys (Larroway), or the Davids (the family of the wife of Paulus Ruttan, our ancestor). The strongest possibility is that they accompanied a group of French who came to America from Paltz in the German portion of the Lower Rhine Valley, and settled in the environs of Kingston, New York, about 1678. It is hoped that some future investigator may find the answer.

During their twenty years of residence at Esopus the Ruttans were adherents of the French Church at New Paltz. After their removal to New Jersey about 1700, and subsequent intermarriages with their Dutch neighbors, the Ruttans became members of the Dutch Reformed Church, except where members of the family resided in communities served only by the Lutheran Church. To add to the confusion, it is noted in a history of Hudson and Bergen Counties, New Jersey, the first Ruttan was referred to as a Hollander, not a Frenchman.

ABRAHAM, variously surnamed Rutan, Rutamt, Rutemp, and Rutemps, resided in Esopus, Ulster County, New York Province, some seventy-five miles north of New York City. His name appears in a list of the inhabitants of that county in 1689. Although he resided in Esopus, a community on the west bank of the Hudson River about eight miles south of the present city of Kingston, his children were baptised in the French Church at New Paltz, a settlement more than ten miles to the west and inland. Abraham and his wife, Mary Petilion, also Piteljon, are recorded as godparents of the child of Pierre Doleie, who was baptised 14 October 1683. This is the first record of the Ruttans in America, and it should be noted that it antedates the founding of the Huguenot Community at New Rochelle, New York, by four years.

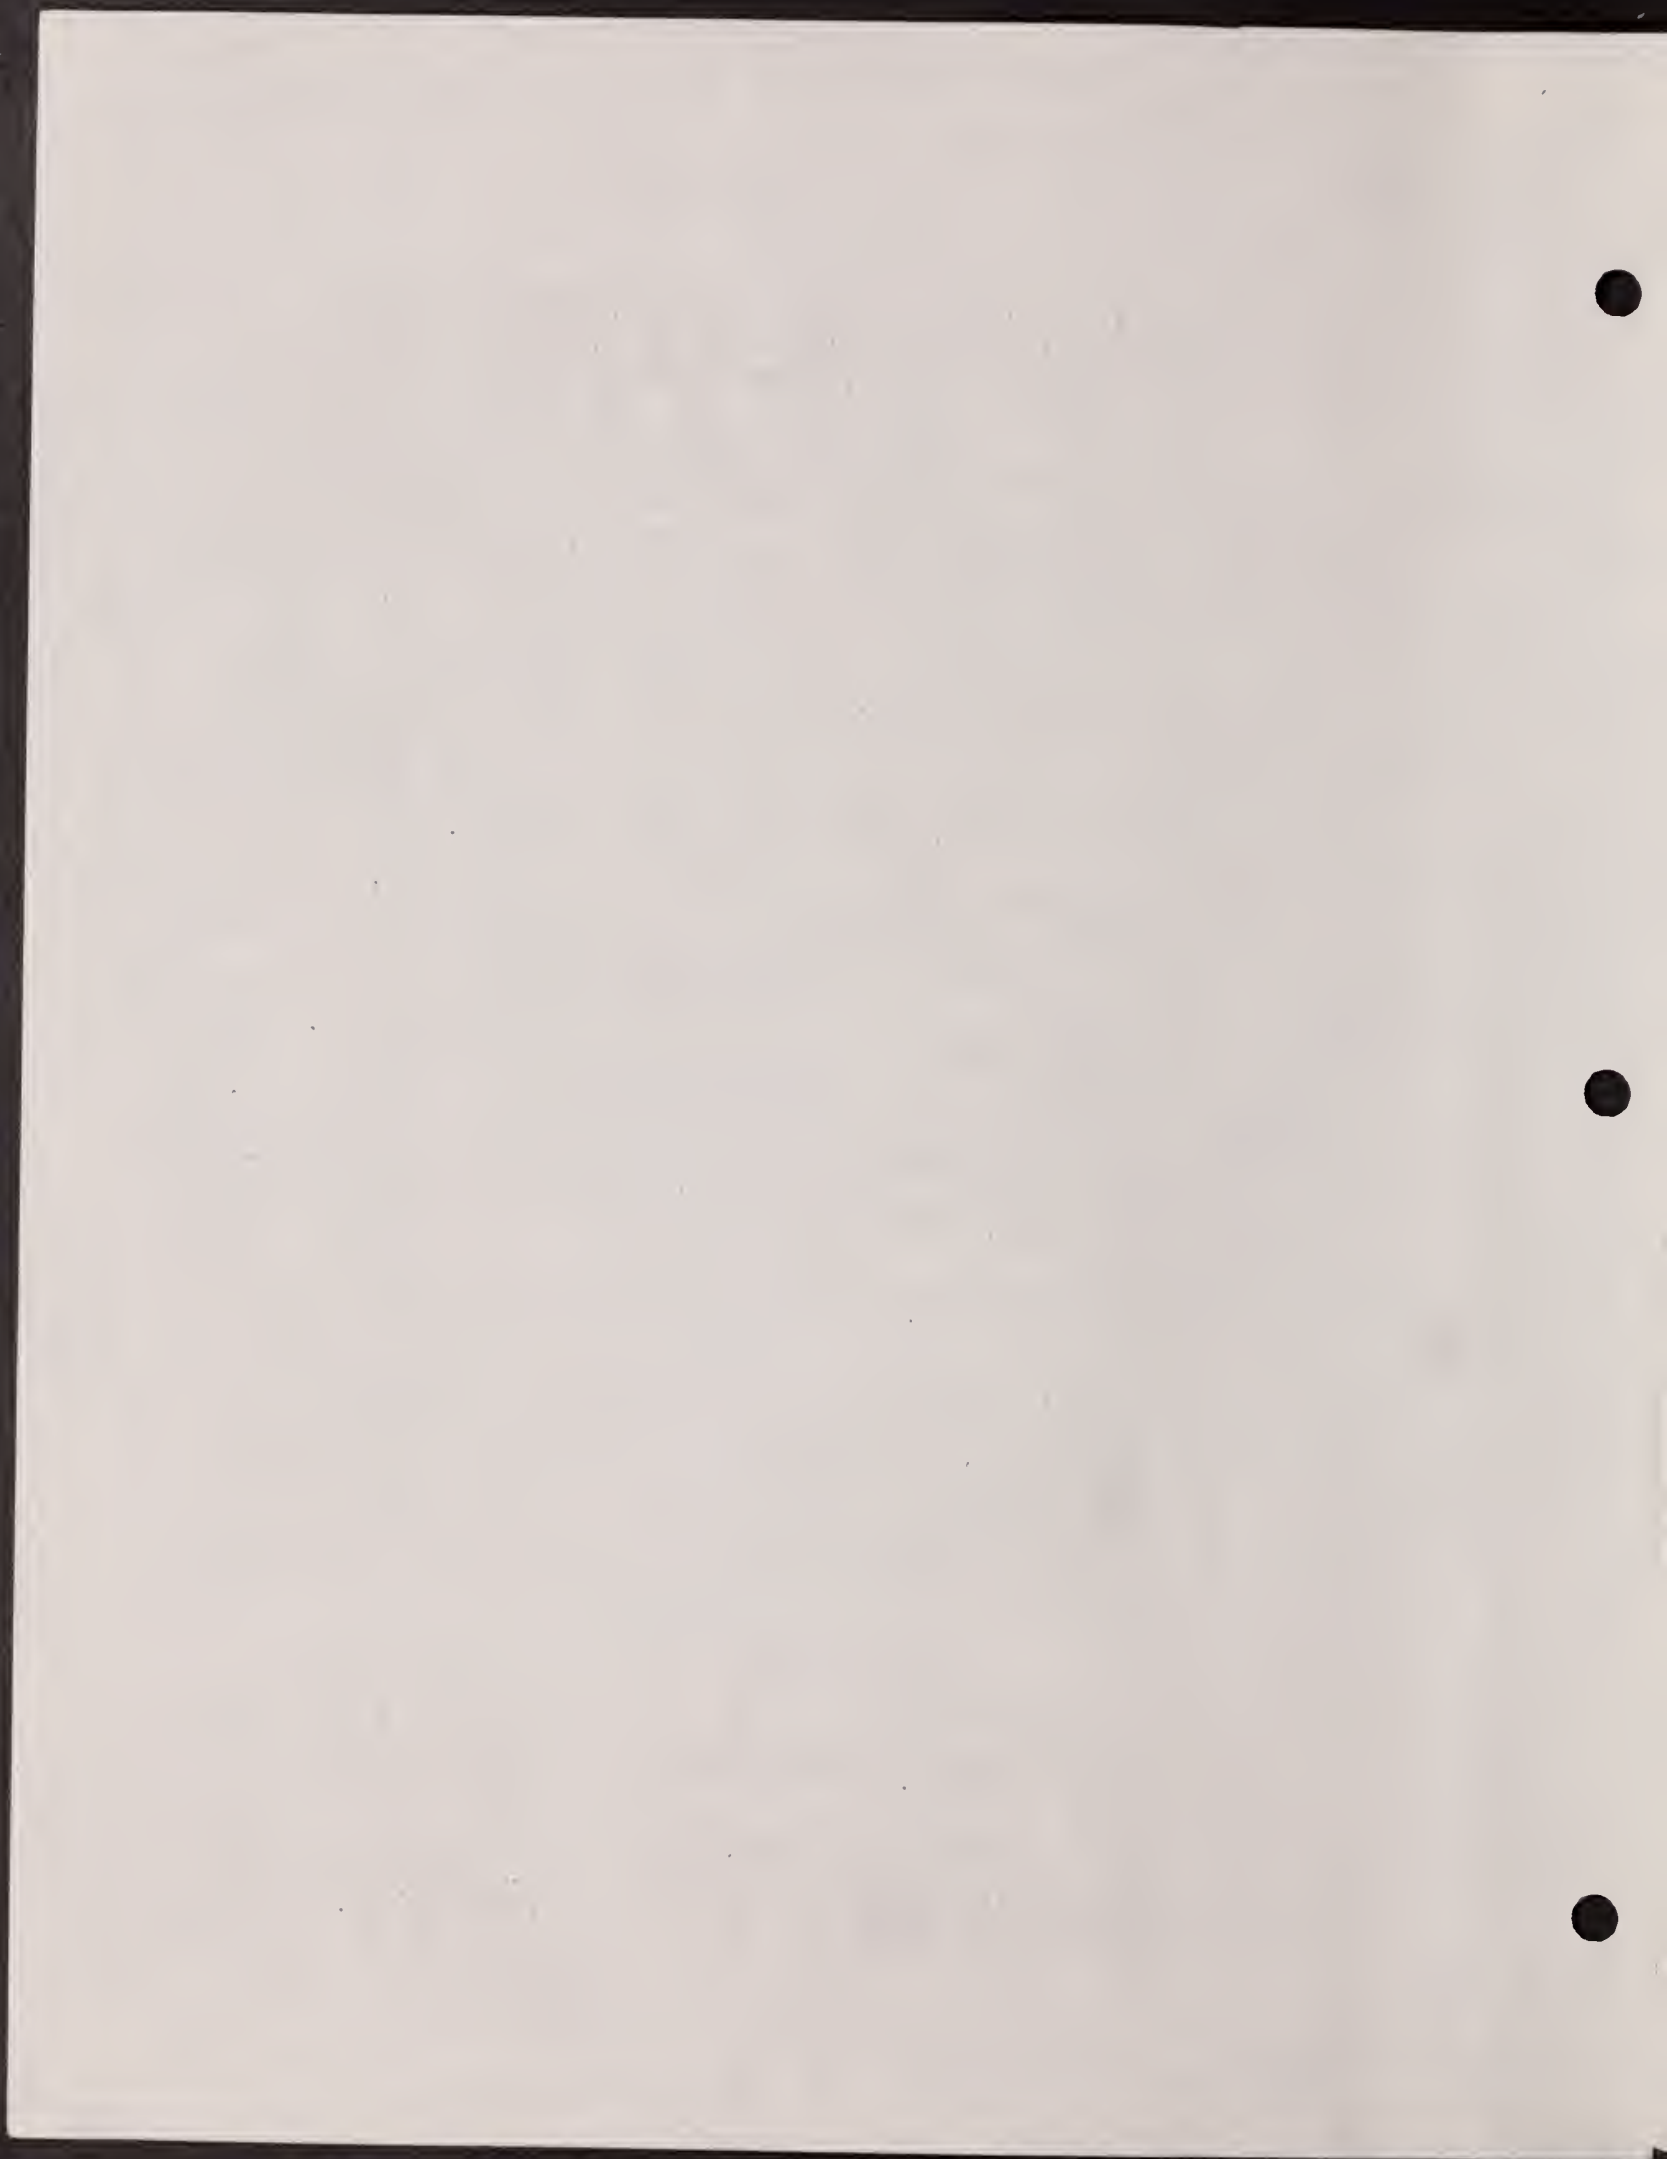

During the next decade several of Abraham's children were baptised in the New Paltz Church, the last one in 1691. At some time between this date and 1703, Abraham and his family removed to the Passaic (Aqueckanonk) area of New Jersey. Abrahams will is dated 10 September, 1710. He died at New Barbados, New Jersey, on 19 May 1713. By his will he left all to his wife, except one piece of property left to his eldest son Daniel. The inventory of his wife's estate is dated 22 May, 1713.

The recorded children of Abraham Rutan and Mary Petilion were:

DANIEL, the eldest son, was baptised 23 September, 1684, in the French Church, New Paltz. At his marriage, 9th March, 1710, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack, New Jersey, he is recorded as having been born in Isopus. His bride, Armtie Hanse Spier, was born at Acquagenonck (Passaic), New Jersey. They continued to reside in the latter community as late as 1735.

PAUL, or PAULUS, born in Esopus, was baptised in the French Church, New Paltz, New York, 20 March, 1685/6. He is an ancestor of the Ontario families. (See below).

DAVIDE, born in Esopus, was baptised in the French Church, New Paltz, 17 May, 1688. His godparents were Pier Doye and Genne Vybau, or Dylar. Nothing further is known of Davide.

ESTER, Born in Esopus, was baptised in the French Church, New Paltz, 14 May, 1690. She was buried under the same auspices 5 August, 1690, aged 6 months.

PIERRE, born in Esopus, was baptised in the French Church, New Paltz, 24 October, 1691. He married, 7 November, 1713, Gertrude Vanderhoof, in the Dutch Reformed Church, in Hackensack, New Jersey. They lived at New Barbados, New Jersey.

It is possible that Abraham married, secondly, Mary Retan, and that they were the parents of SARA, who was baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church, in Hackensack, New Jersey, 21 May, 1704.

NOTE: Another Researcher has furnished the following additional children and information-

Between Pierre and Sara, mentioned above,

HESTOR, baptised 3 June, 1694, at Kingston, New Jersey. Probably died young.

SUSANNA, married Johannes Spier.

SARA, mentioned above, married Charles Morgan Jr. They lived on Statten Island.

MARIA, married Thomas Spier, brother of Susanna's husband.

CATHARINA, married Colnverd Leyn.

ABRAHAM, died young.

SAMUEL, married Marie Stoutenburgh.

SECOND GENERATION

PAUL, or PAULUS, Abraham's second child, was born in Esopus, New York, and baptised in the French Church, New Paltz, 20 March, 1685/6. He evidently removed from Esopus to the Philipsburgh Manor, some twenty-five miles above New York City, where he married, 10 October, 1708, Engeltje (Angelica) Davidse. The marriage record states that he was born in the Pals (New Paltz) area, while Engeltje had been born at "Laval in Canida." Engeltje died in Philipsburgh about 1716, after mothering five sons. Paul married, secondly, Elizabeth Foseur, also spelled Vourchie, at the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 31 January, 1719. They were then living in Philipsburgh, where Elizabeth was born. Paul and his family removed to New Jersey about 1722, where he and his wife became affiliated with the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack. Paul was still alive in 1739. Children by his first wife, Engeltje Davids:

ABRAHAM, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptised, 2 August, 1709, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, New York. His sponsors were his paternal grandparents, Abraham and Maria Rutan. Nothing further is recorded of him.

WILLIAM, second child of Paul and Engeltje, born at Philipsburgh Manor, was baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 8 November, 1710. He was the father of the Loyalist refugees who settled in Ontario. (See below)

JACOB, born in Philipsburgh Manor, was baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 25 March, 1712. He evidently died very young.

JACOB, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown, 26 May, 1714. His sponsors were his mother's brother, Carel Davidse, and his wife, Antje. Nothing further is known of this child.

DANIEL, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptised 20 June, 1716, in the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown. No further record of this child.

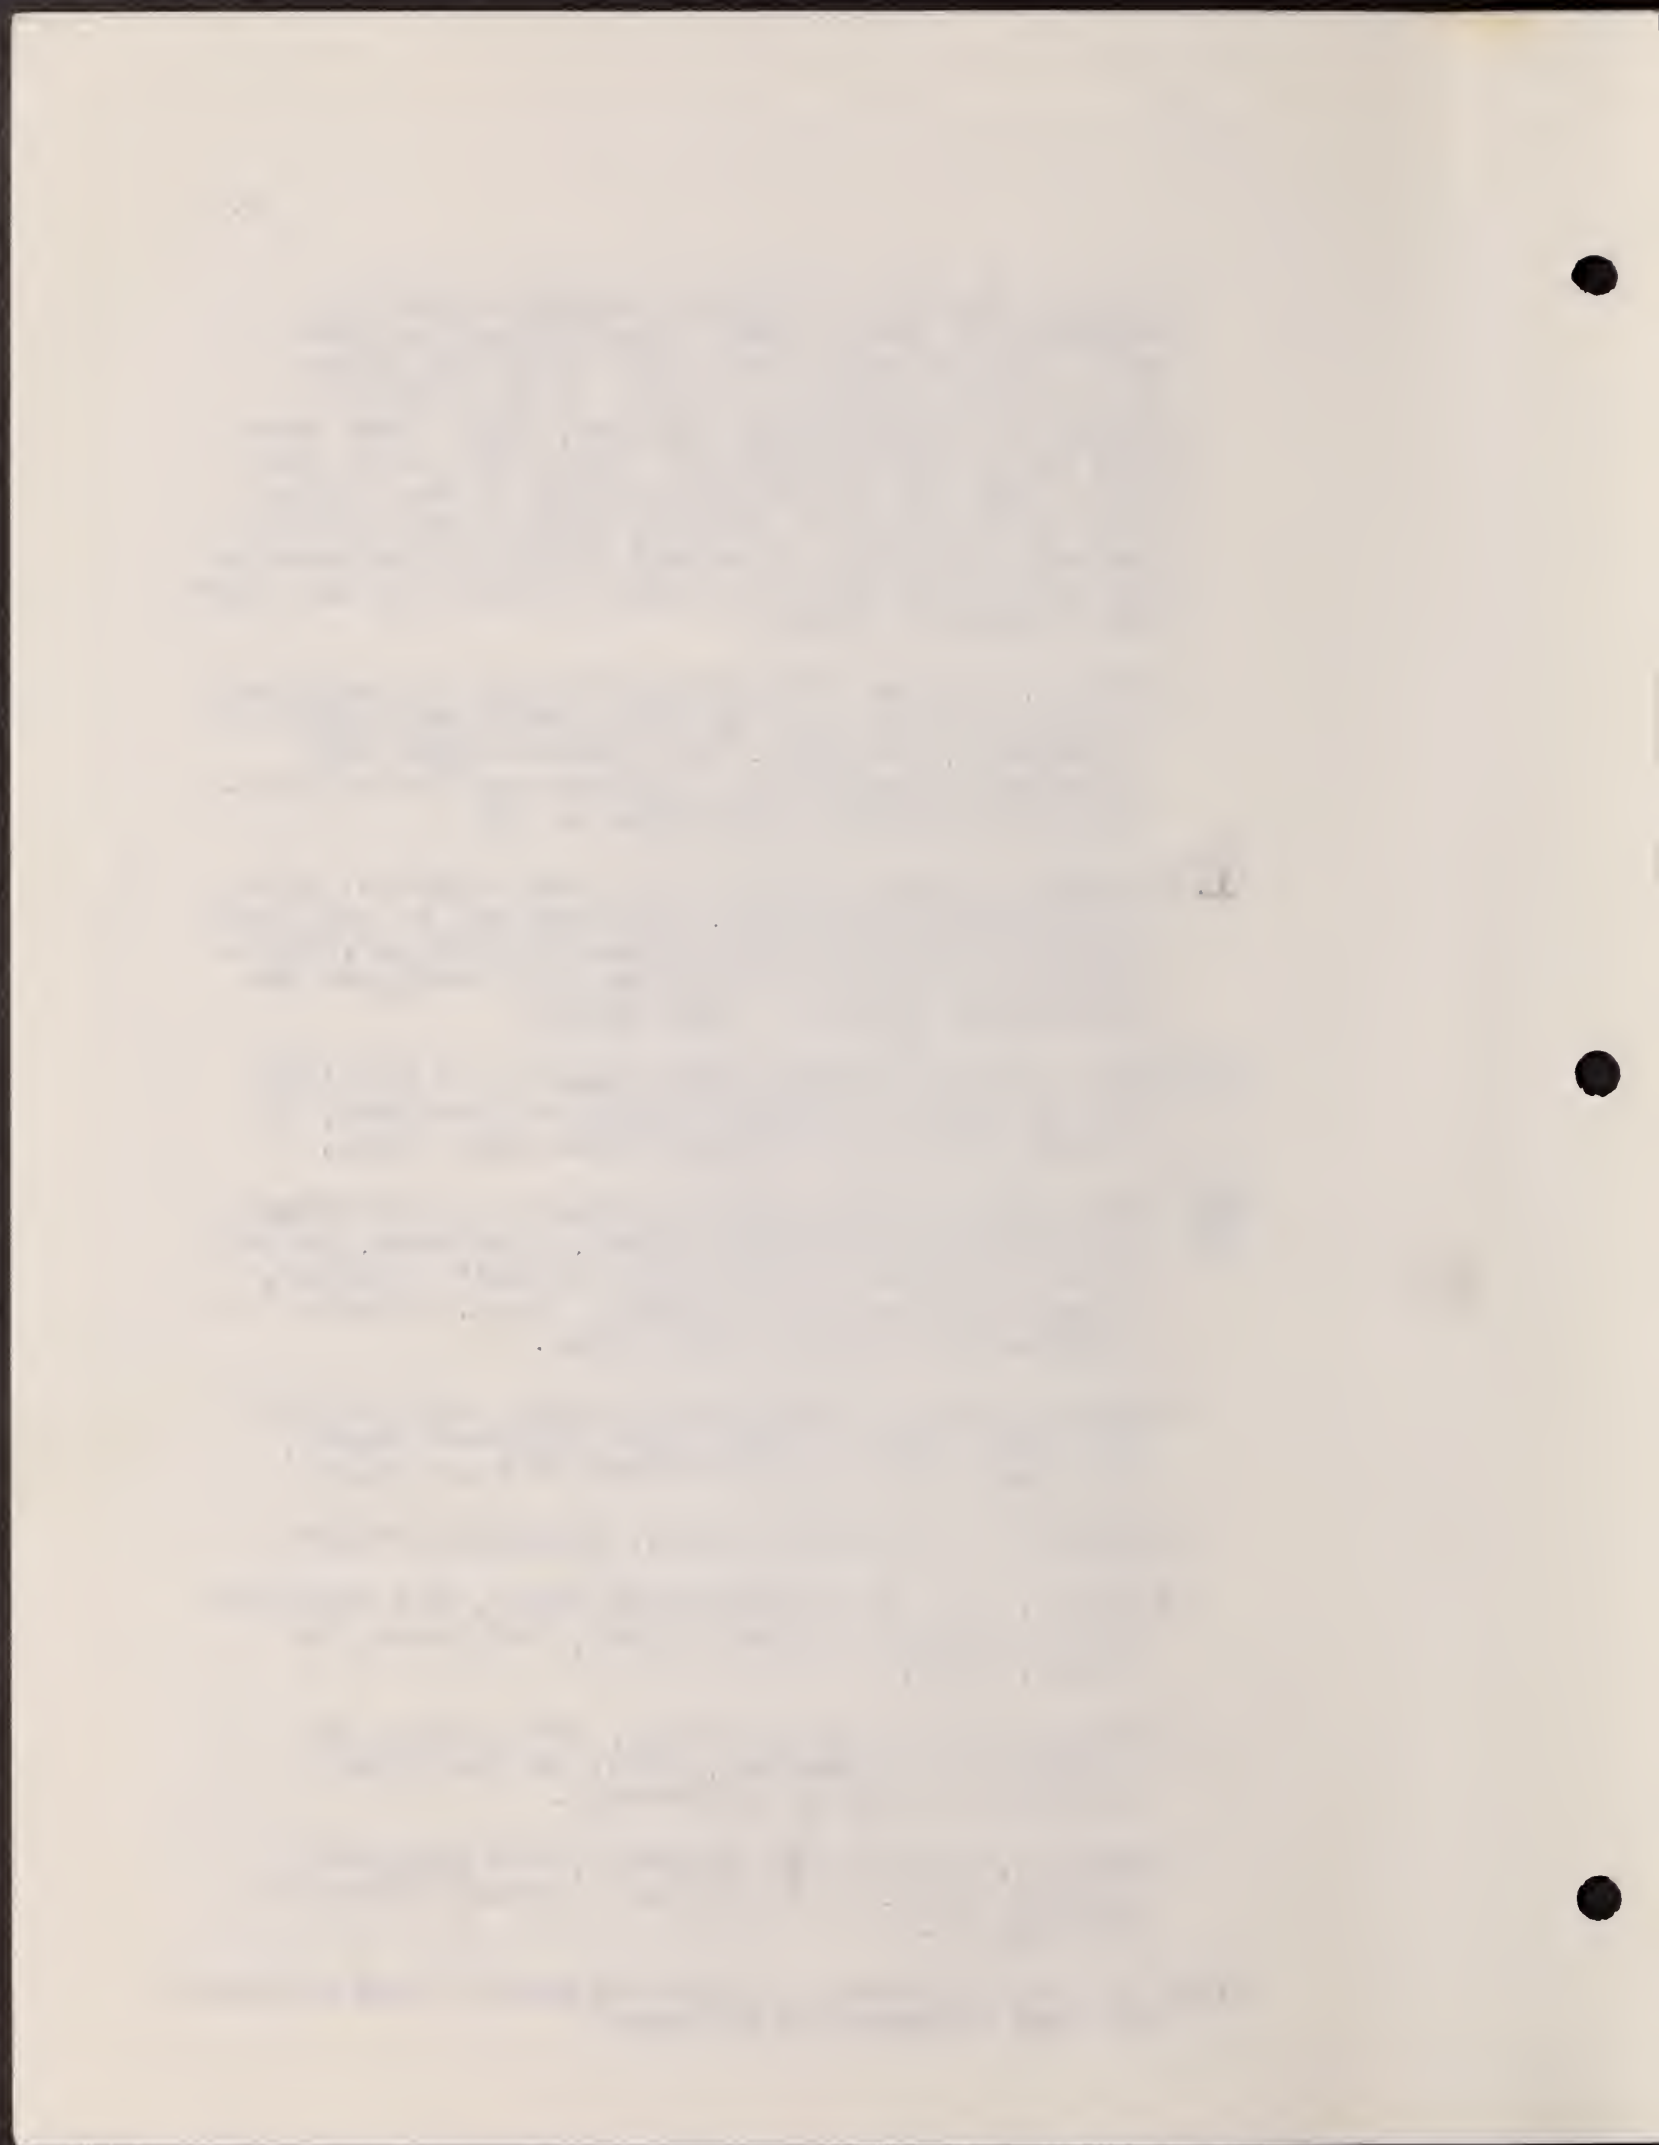

Children by the second wife, Elizabeth Fosuer:

MARYTIE, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown, 19 April, 1720.

EVATJE, born in New Barbados, New Jersey, was baptised 27 September, 1724, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack.

JOHANNES, born at New Barbados, was baptised 8 August, 1731, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack.

NOTE: In this instance, another Researcher has recorded two more children as follows-

JOHANNES, baptised 23 November, 1720, at Hackensack, New Jersey. Nothing more known of this child.

DAVID, baptised in 1740, at Paramus, New Jersey. Nothing more known of David.

THIRD GENERATION

1. WILLIAM, second son of Paul and his first wife Engeltje Davids, was born in Philipsburgh Manor, and baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 8 November, 1710, at which time his sponsors were Herman Montras and his wife, Margrietje. William accompanied his parents to New Barbados, New Jersey, in 1722. He married, 11 December, 1731, Maria, daughter of Peter Demarest and Marietie Meet, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack. At this ceremony he used the surname Codden. Why is unknown, unless it was a nickname, a custom common among the Dutch People. His children were baptised under the name of Rutan, or Retan.
The parish register at Hackensack contains this item: "Maryte De More, wife of William Retan, joined the church on 25 June, 1758." She was alive in 1763, when she was named in the will of her father, Peter Demarest.
William Retan died on 24 May, 1794, and was buried at Schraalenburgh two days later.
Their children, all baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, were:
  2. ELIZABETH was baptised 2 December, 1733, her sponsors being her grandfather, Paulus Ratan, and his second wife, Elizabeth Vourchie (Foseur, later Forshee). (See below)
  3. MARIA was baptised 3 August, 1736, her sponsors being her maternal grandparents, Peter Demarest and his wife, Maria (Maretie) Meet.
  4. ABRAHAM was baptised 15 April, 1739. His sponsors were his uncle, Abraham Retan, for whom he was named, and Zara (Sarah) Demarest. He married Margiretje, daughter of Gerrit Ackerman and Magdalena Van Voorhees, and sister of Jannetje, wife of Abraham's brother, Peter Ruttan, the

JOHANNES, baptised 23 November, 1720, at Hackensack, New Jersey. Nothing more known.

DAVID, baptised in 1740, at Paramus, New Jersey,
Nothing more is known of David.

THIRD GENERATION

1. WILLIAM, second child of Loyalist of Adolphustown, Ontario. Margiretje was baptised at Hackensack, 4 January, 1741. An Abraham Rattan, a sergeant in the 3rd Battalion, New Jersey Volunteers, is listed as having gone to New Brunswick, Canada, with the great Loyalist emigration from New York City in the Summer of 1783. This is, undoubtedly the same man. If so, he returned, in later years, to New Jersey, where he died 15 March, 1822, aged 82 years, 11 months, and 23 days.

5. PETER was baptised 19 April, 1742. His sponsors, for whom he was named, were his maternal grandfather, Peter Demarest and his wife, Maria. (See below)
6. PAULUS, born 28 October, and baptised 25 November, 1744. He was recorded as a Tory, and a resident of the Clove District, in the Hackensack Valley. He remained in New Jersey after the Revolution, and is recorded as having been buried in Schraalenburgh, 2 May, 1812.
7. RACHEL was born 7 July, and baptised 17 July, 1747. Her sponsors were Johannes Loots and his wife, Rachel Demarest, her mother's sister, for whom she was named.
8. LEAH was born 14 September, and baptised 29 October, 1751. Her sponsors were Johannes Ackerman and his wife, Jacomyntie Demarest, her aunt and Uncle.
9. JACOB was born 19 April, and baptised 3 May, 1753. He became a settler in Adolphustown Township, Ontario. (See below)
10. DAVID was baptised 14 December, 1755. He married, but his wife's name is unknown. He was a Tory, and served in the Loyalist forces in New Jersey. Nothing more is known of him.
11. WILLIAM was born 2 April, and baptised 24 June, 1759. He came to Adolphustown Township, Ontario, as a Loyalist Refugee. (See below)

FOURTH GENERATION

2. ELIZABETH, eldest child and first daughter of William Rutan and Maria Demarest was baptised in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, on 2 December, 1733. Her sponsors were her grandfather, Paulus Ratan, and his second wife, Elizabeth Vourchie (Foseur, Forshee), after whom she was named. She married, about 1750/1, Martens (Matteus, Matthew) Van Norden (Naarden, Orden). He and his family settled in Kingston Township, Ontario, as United Empire Loyalist refugees, a few years after 1784, having followed their first daughter and her husband. It is very likely, although I have no proof, that Matthew, his wife and younger children, had taken part in the exodus from New York City to New Brunswick in the Summer of 1783. Matthew died in 1790, leaving the following children, all of whom drew 200 acres of land as his offspring.

MARGARET Van Norden was born 19 January, and baptised 3 February, 1752, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey. Her sponsors were Andries and Margrietie Van Norden, for whom she was named. She married William Howe in the Lutheran Church, New York City, on 21 September, 1770. Their known children, who applied for land as sons and daughters of a Loyalist, were

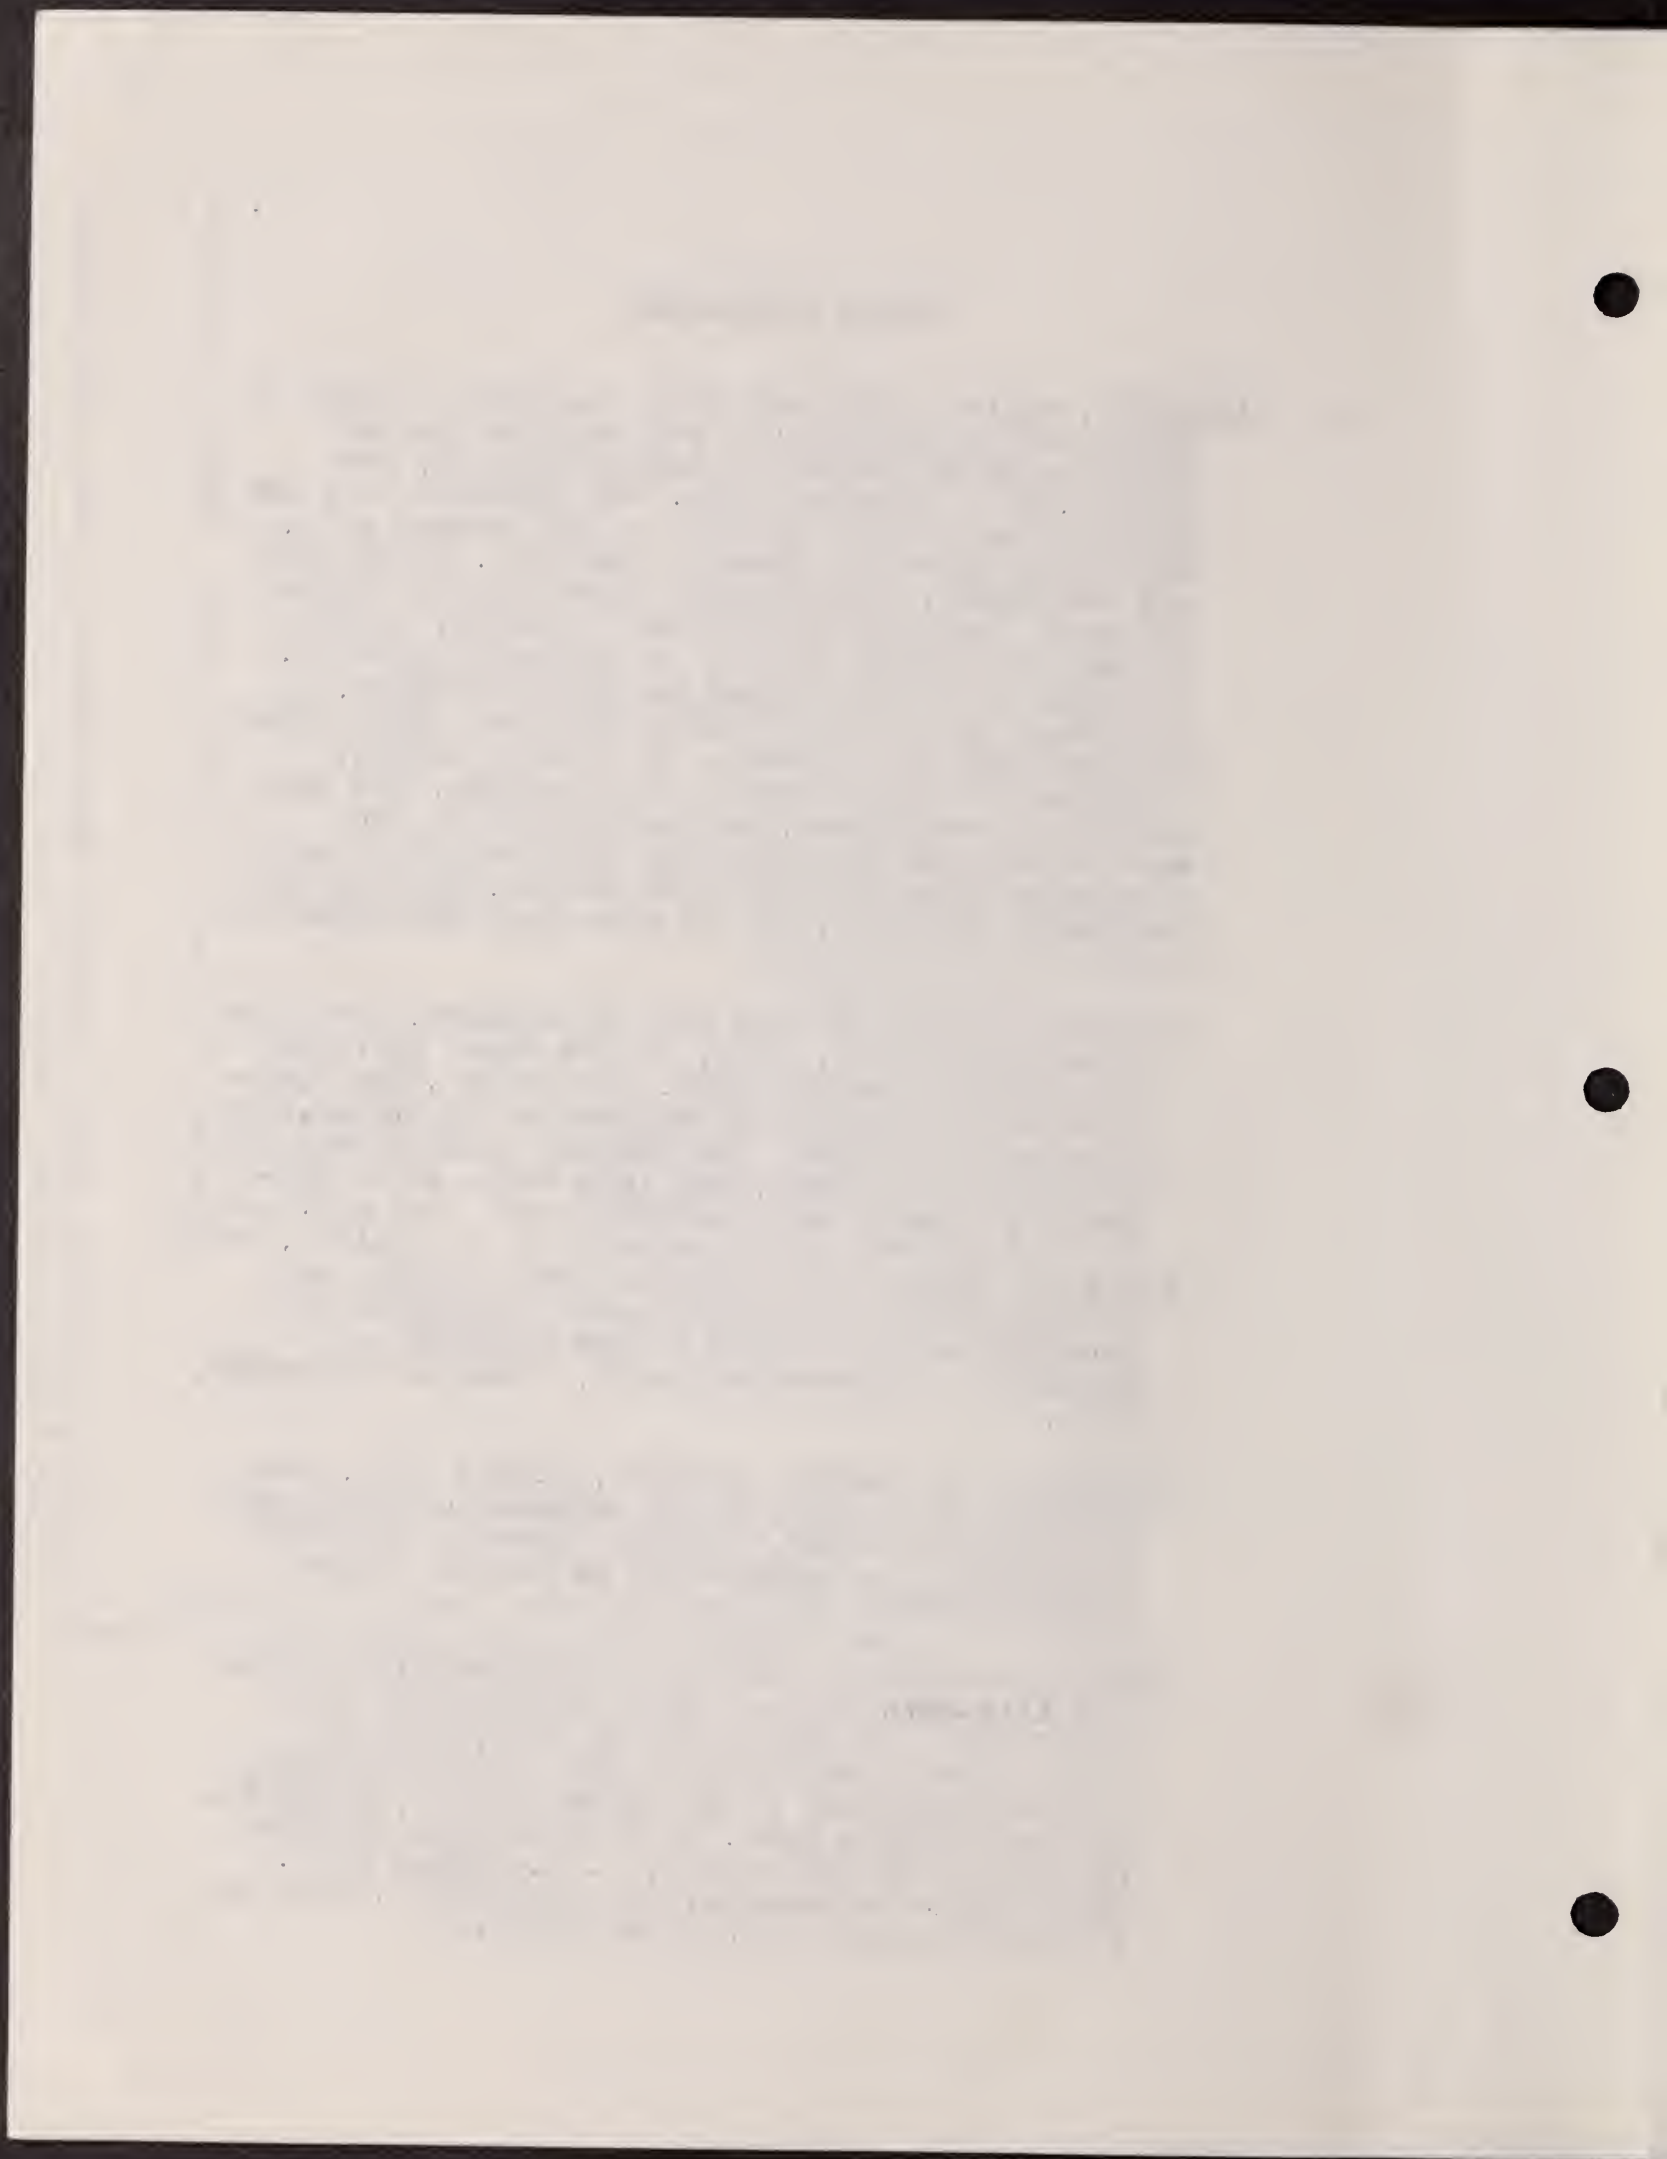

PATTY Van Norden, who married Noel Pugsley, of Bastard Township, Leeds County, Ontario. She drew 200 acres of land as the daughter of a Loyalist by Order-in-Council, dated 29 September, 1836.

ELIZABETH Van Norden, married, before 1797, John Burnett, U. E., as, on 16 November of that year she drew 200 acres, as Mrs. Burnett, by Order-in-Council, as daughter of an United Empire Loyalist. Their recorded children, born in Kingston Twp., each drew land as a child of a Loyalist. They were ISAIAH Van Norden, only son of Matteus Van Norden and Elizabeth Ruttan, came to Cataraqui with his parents between 1784 and 1796, possibly after already settling in New Brunswick likely at the insistence of his elder sister, Margaret, wife of William Howe. He married Ann, daughter of Captain Daniel McGuin, U. E. before 1797. Very little is known of his activities. They had two known sons, Anthony and Matthew.

Daniel, Matthew, Elizabeth, Peter, George and William

Margaret, Catherine, Hannah, Matthew, Mary & Martha, twins, John Nelson, William Collingwood and Thomas.

5. PETER, fourth child and second son of William Rutan and Maria Demarest was baptised on the 19 April, 1742. He was named for his maternal grandfather, Peter Demarest, who with his wife Maria, were his sponsors. He was baptised in the Reformed Church in Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, where on 8 December, 1766, he married Jannetje (Jenny) Ackerman, a sister of Margiretje, wife of Peter's brother Abraham. At the baptism of their second child, Peter and Jannetje were living in or near Paramus, New Jersey. By 1772, Peter was living at Ramapo in New Jersey.

His Loyalist Claim states he was late of Bergen County, New Jersey and continues:

"He joined Gen. Howes Army in Decemr 1776 and brought in 60 men for the 4th Batal of the New Jersey Volunteers. Says he was put in a arrest by his Coll. Gen. Skinner for disobedience of orders. Says that he was never tried. Says he resigned his commission. He afterwards went into the country by order of the Commander in Chief to get intelligence and raised 40 men for Coll. Bayard."

Peter Ruttan served as Captain in the 4th Battalion, and later in the 3rd Battalion, New Jersey Volunteers. In the Summer of 1783, with the war over, and it was necessary to evacuate New York City, he was chosen as Captain of Associated Loyalists to head a group of discharged soldiers and refugees who were about to depart for Canada. His was one of eight such companies, all of which were aboard ships in New York Harbor on 5 June, awaiting movement orders. The boats departed in a few days, and began to arrive at Quebec in the middle of August. That under command of Captain Ruttan, on its arrival, was entered in the records, as follows:

"Augt 14 Ship Hope Capt Ratten Compy

Men	Women	Child over 10	Child under 10	Servants	Total
38	18	18	11	1	86

Signed by A. Cuyler, Inspr Loyl

Two days later this company proceeded up river to Sorel, where it arrived in September. Here it went into winter quarters to await settlement in the Spring. After a long miserable winter, during which the several commanders vied with one another for seniority, it was finally agreed that the companies of Major Van Alstine and Captain Ruttan should unite to become the pioneers of Adolphustown Township. The differences of opinion between the two continued long after settlement - a deal of smoke, but no fire.

There has been some uncertainty as to Captain Peter's year of birth. The Ruttan story in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" states that he was born in 1759. His Loyalist Claim states that he leased land in New Jersey in 1770. Surely not at eleven years of age! The Claim also tells us that he joined the Royal Standard in 1776, at which time he was appointed a captain, an unlikely story for a boy of seventeen. It is also recorded that he arrived in Canada in 1783 with two children over twelve years of age, a real feat for a man of twenty-four years of age. A memorial tablet in St. Alban's Memorial Church in Adolphustown reveals that he died 1 January, 1829, aged 80 years. It is believed that this is an error and should have been 86 years. If so, it would agree with his baptismal record in the Dutch Reformed Church in Schraalenburgh. There seems to be a certain amount of difficulty in correctly naming the children of Peter, and his wife, Jannetje. The list, as it appears in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" appears to have been supplied by another branch of the family. Indeed, some of the children so named may well be those of his son, Peter Junior. Corrections may be required by others more familiar with the details.

These children were:

NOTE: As there are some slight differences of thought a change in order of birth of the first two has been made and another child William has been added. These marked by *.

- * 12. ABRAHAM, was baptised at Paramus, New Jersey, 24 December, 1769, as recorded in the Ackerman Genealogy. (See below)
- * 13. PETER, his birth and baptismal dates are not definitely known at present. He is the son shown as over twelve in 1783. He was likely born about 1768 (though 1771 seems more likely) (See below)
- 14. MARIA, who was baptised 1 March, 1772, in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Ramapo, New Jersey. It is assumed that she was the daughter who was listed as over twelve years of age in December,

1783. Although there is no further mention of Maria, she, or one of her girl cousins, the daughters of her Uncle Jacob, of Picton, must be the Mary Elizabeth Ruttan who married Owen Roblin about 1793-4.

15. JANNETJE, baptised in the Evangelical Church, Ramapo, in July, 1775. It is assumed that she died before the departure from New York, in July, 1783.
- * 16. WILLIAM, was baptised 9 July 1780 in the Reformed Church, New York.
17. JOSEPH BRANT, said to have been named after Joseph Brant, the noted Iroquois leader during the Revolutionary War. He evidently was the son under five years of age, as recorded in the "Muster Roll of Adolphustown," in October, 1784. (See below)
18. JOHN, who is listed briefly in "Pioneer Life on The Bay of Quinte" as having married and resided in Adolphustown. (See below)
19. DAVID, born in 1789, is recorded as a son of Captain Peter, and was called a resident of Fredericksburgh Township, when he drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 11 April, 1833. He married Elizabeth who was born in 1804 and who died 12 July, 1879. David died 9 June 1867 and is buried in Adolphustown. His name is absent from the Census records of Adolphustown in the period 1794 to 1822. However, he was Overseer of Highways in the first concession of that township in 1848. Nothing further is known of David.
9. JACOB, born 19 April, baptised 13 May, 1753 in the Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, New Jersey. According to the Demarest Genealogy, he married Miss Margaret Haring. Without doubt he was the Jacob Ruttan whose name appears in the census of Adolphustown in 1794, 1795 and 1796, with a wife, two sons and two daughters. There is no evidence that he was a Loyalist. He appears to have followed his brothers to Canada some time before 1794. He was granted 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 30 August, 1797, no doubt as a settler. The land thus allocated to him was Lot 26 in the 8th Concession of the Township of Murray. In the same year Jacob and family removed to Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County. On 18 July Jacob's name appeared in the Assessment Roll of Hallowell Township, where he continued to live until his death in 1811, intestate.

The census records of Adolphustown indicate four children, two sons and two daughters. What little known of them is as follows:

20. MARIA, was baptised 28 January, 1776, at Paramus, New Jersey.

21. ELIZABETH, was baptised 22 February, 1778, at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey.

It has been suggested that either of these two daughters or their cousin Maria, daughter of Captain Peter Ruttan may have been the Mary Elizabeth Ruttan who married Owen Roblin, son of John Roblin and Sarah Wessels.

22. WILLIAM, baptised at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, 2 September, 1781. He was a private in the Glengarry Light Infantry and died in 1813 during the War of 1812. He married 15 February, 1808, Rebecca Angel (nee Ellis). (See below)

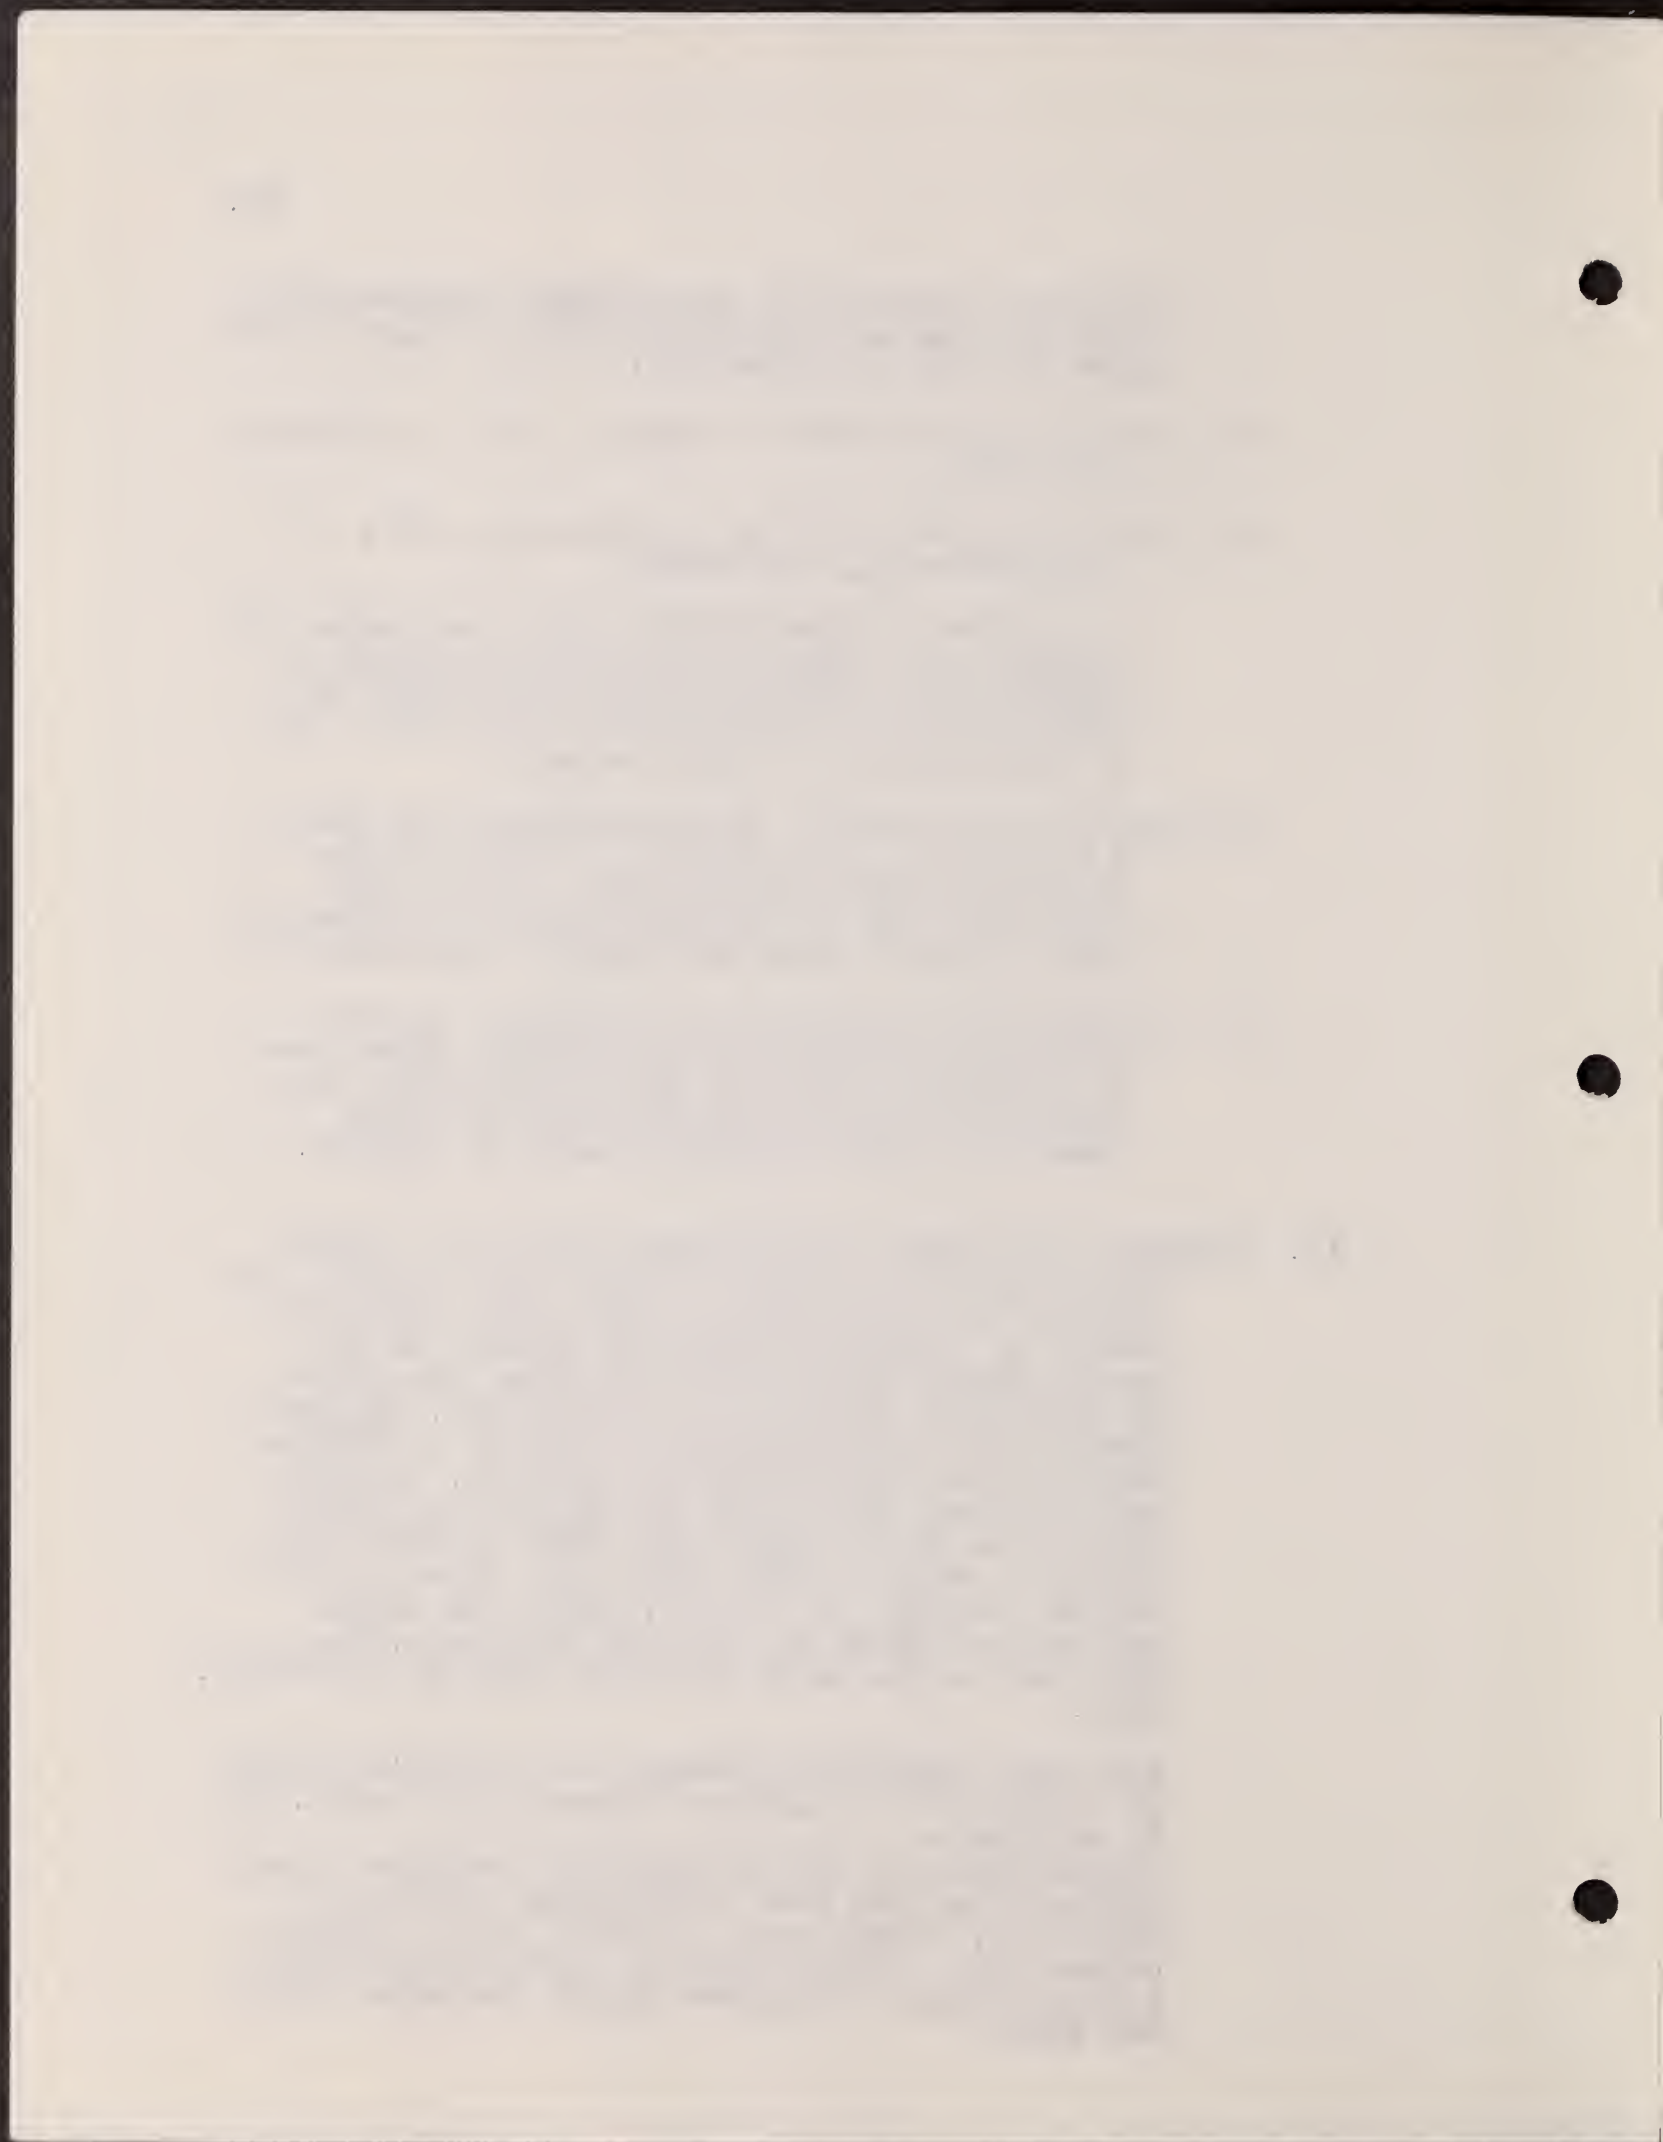

23. ABRAHAM, the second son, is reported to have supported the claim of his nephew, Jacob, son of William, as heir of his grandfather, his right to the 200 acres of land in Murray Township. Nothing more is known of Abraham.

11. WILLIAM, the sixth son and tenth child of William Ruttan and Maria Demarest, was born 2 April, and baptised 24 June, 1759, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey. He was commissioned Lieutenant, Associated Loyalists. He married 10 June, 1782, in New York, Margaret Steel, a sister of Matthew Steel, U. E. William and Margaret accompanied his brother, Captain Peter Ruttan, who was in charge of the company aboard the brig "Hope" which left New York in the first week of July, 1783, and after a rough voyage lasting, it is said, some nine weeks, arrived in Quebec on the 14th of August. The band went on to Sorel arriving there in September, 1783.

The first official reference to William's family is found in the Haldimand Papers, vol. B-166. It is entitled-

"Undermentioned Refugee Loyalist Families Lately Arrived From New York Acknowledge Receipt of Clothing", dated Sorel, 19 Nov., 1783. Amongst others, Mrs. William Ruttan, with a child under 6 years of age. Margaret signed the entry with her mark.

Vol. B-167, of the Haldimand Papers, contains-
 "A Return of Disbanded Troops and Loyalists
 Settled in Township No. 4 (Cataraqui), Mustered 6 October, 1784. William Rutten, a wife and no children. Under "Remarks" it is recorded that his child had died since the last muster (that of November, 1783).

As the band had wintered in Sorel and in the spring of 1784 journeyed up the St. Lawrence River by batteaux to the Fourth Township, later named Adolphustown it is not possible to place where the child had died, unless in Canniff's "The Settlement of Upper Canada" an entry on page 451 a clue is given. It reads: "While they (the Loyalists of Adolphustown) were yet living in their tents one of their number died, a child it is said by some.
 The dead was buried close by, under a tree."

William drew Lot 18, Concession 1, in Adolphustown, for which he received a Crown Deed, dated 22 February, 1805. Here on the Bay Shore, he resided during his remaining years.

William and his brother, Peter were active in community affairs. They contributed towards the buildof the Hay Bay Church in 1792. This was the first Methodist Church to be built in Canada and its first preacher was William Losee and it is said he persuaded William to give up his violin, which he burned, as "one of Satan's contrivances for luring the faithful from the fold".

The house, which is likely the second dwelling to be built by William, using bricks made from clay on the farm for the main section with a frame addition, while badly weathered, still stands, in 1976 on the property.

Margaret, William's wife was a worthy companion to a pioneer. It is said she could work in the fields alongside a man and had a voice, that when she wished, was strong enough to speak with her brother Matthew Steel, across Adolphus Reach. There is the tale told that the family had the first clock in the area and that Margaret took pains to blow the dinner horn regularly, sharp at noon, knowing that there was no other clock but hers for any of the neighbors to be guided by. Their son, Henry, tells, in his reminiscences that the knowledge he acquired up to the age of seven or eight years was from his mother who, of an evening, would narrate the events of the American Rebellion, the escapes of the Loyalists and other subjects. Henry goes on to tell of sometimes being awakened at night by a hurricane of wind or a clap of thunder when he was sure to find his industrious mother, either spinning or weaving; for she not only made the material, but plied her busy needle to clothe the family.

In a lengthy Sermon, preached on the occasion of William's burial by the Rev. Job Deacon, Rector of Adolphustown, it is said that William and his family came from the Methodist Church when the Rev. Deacon was appointed to the mission in 1822 and regularly attended the Church Services. The Rev. Deacon went on to praise William as an honourable and honest neighbour, as a parent he seemed to be never unmindful of the relative duties which devolved upon him and as a husband he made every every effort to lessen Margaret's cares and to provide for her comforts. The Rev. Deacon, at great length, praised William in every way and in closing drew attention to his sound Christian principles - his good deeds and said "His life was holy - his end was peace."

William was interred in St. Paul's Churchyard, Adolphustown, 11 October, 1843. He was in his 85th year.

Margaret died 1 February, and was interred beside William 5 February, 1844. The Rev. Job Deacon conducted the service.

Their children were:

24. An unnamed son, likely called William after his paternal grandfather, was born in Sorel and died before the Muster Roll of 6 October, 1784, taken at Adolphustown.
25. PETER WILLIAM, born 3 February, 1787, at Adolphustown. It is said he claimed to be the first child born at Adolphustown. He died at Northport, Prince Edward County 28 April, 1861. (See below)
26. DANIEL, born in 1790, at Adolphustown, died in Kingston 27 February, and was interred at Adolphustown 3 March, 1846. The Rev. Job Deacon conducted the service. (See below)
27. HENRY, was born at Adolphustown, 12 June, 1792, He died 30 July, 1871, in Cobourg. (See below)
28. ABRAHAM W. born 1798, is said to have drowned on a date not stated. (See below)

FIFTH GENERATION

12. ABRAHAM, first child of 5 Peter (Capt.) and Jannetje, was born in Paramus, New Jersey, 24 December, 1769, as is recorded in the Ackerman Genealogy. Abraham died between 1829-1843, probably in Hallowell. He married Catherine, who was born in New York in 1786.
She died between the 1861 and 1871 Censuses. Abraham was a Private in Capt. Owen Richard's Company of the 1st Regiment Prince Edward Militia in 1812.

Their children were:

33. JOSEPH, was born in 1809 and died between the 1851 and 1861 Censuses. It is believed he resided in Hallowell and Marysburgh. Nothing is really known of Joseph.
34. PETER, of Marysburgh, was born in 1819. He married Christie Ann (Christianna?) North who was born in 1828 and died in 1918. (See below)
35. JOHN, born in 1821, lived in Marysburgh. He died 23 April, 1891. He married in 1861-4, Margaret who was born in 1839 and who died 21 May, 1905.
(See below)
36. AARON P, was born in 1827. He married 23 March, 1867, at Picton, Mary McGuire. She was born in 1824. They resided in Hallowell and were both alive in 1896. Nothing More is known of this couple.
37. ABRAHAM, was born in Prince Edward County in 1831.
He died in 1897. He married twice, the name of his first wife is not known. The second was Elvira Gordon, born 1841, died 1906. (See below)

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations

$$\frac{dx}{dt} = P(x, y, z), \quad \frac{dy}{dt} = Q(x, y, z), \quad \frac{dz}{dt} = R(x, y, z)$$ where  $P, Q, R$  are continuous functions of  $x, y, z$  in a certain domain  $D$  of the space  $(x, y, z)$ .

2. In the second part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are linear in  $x, y, z$ .

3. In the third part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are quadratic in  $x, y, z$ .

4. In the fourth part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are cubic in  $x, y, z$ .

5. In the fifth part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are of higher order in  $x, y, z$ .

6. In the sixth part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are periodic in  $x, y, z$ .

7. In the seventh part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are analytic in  $x, y, z$ .

8. In the eighth part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are rational in  $x, y, z$ .

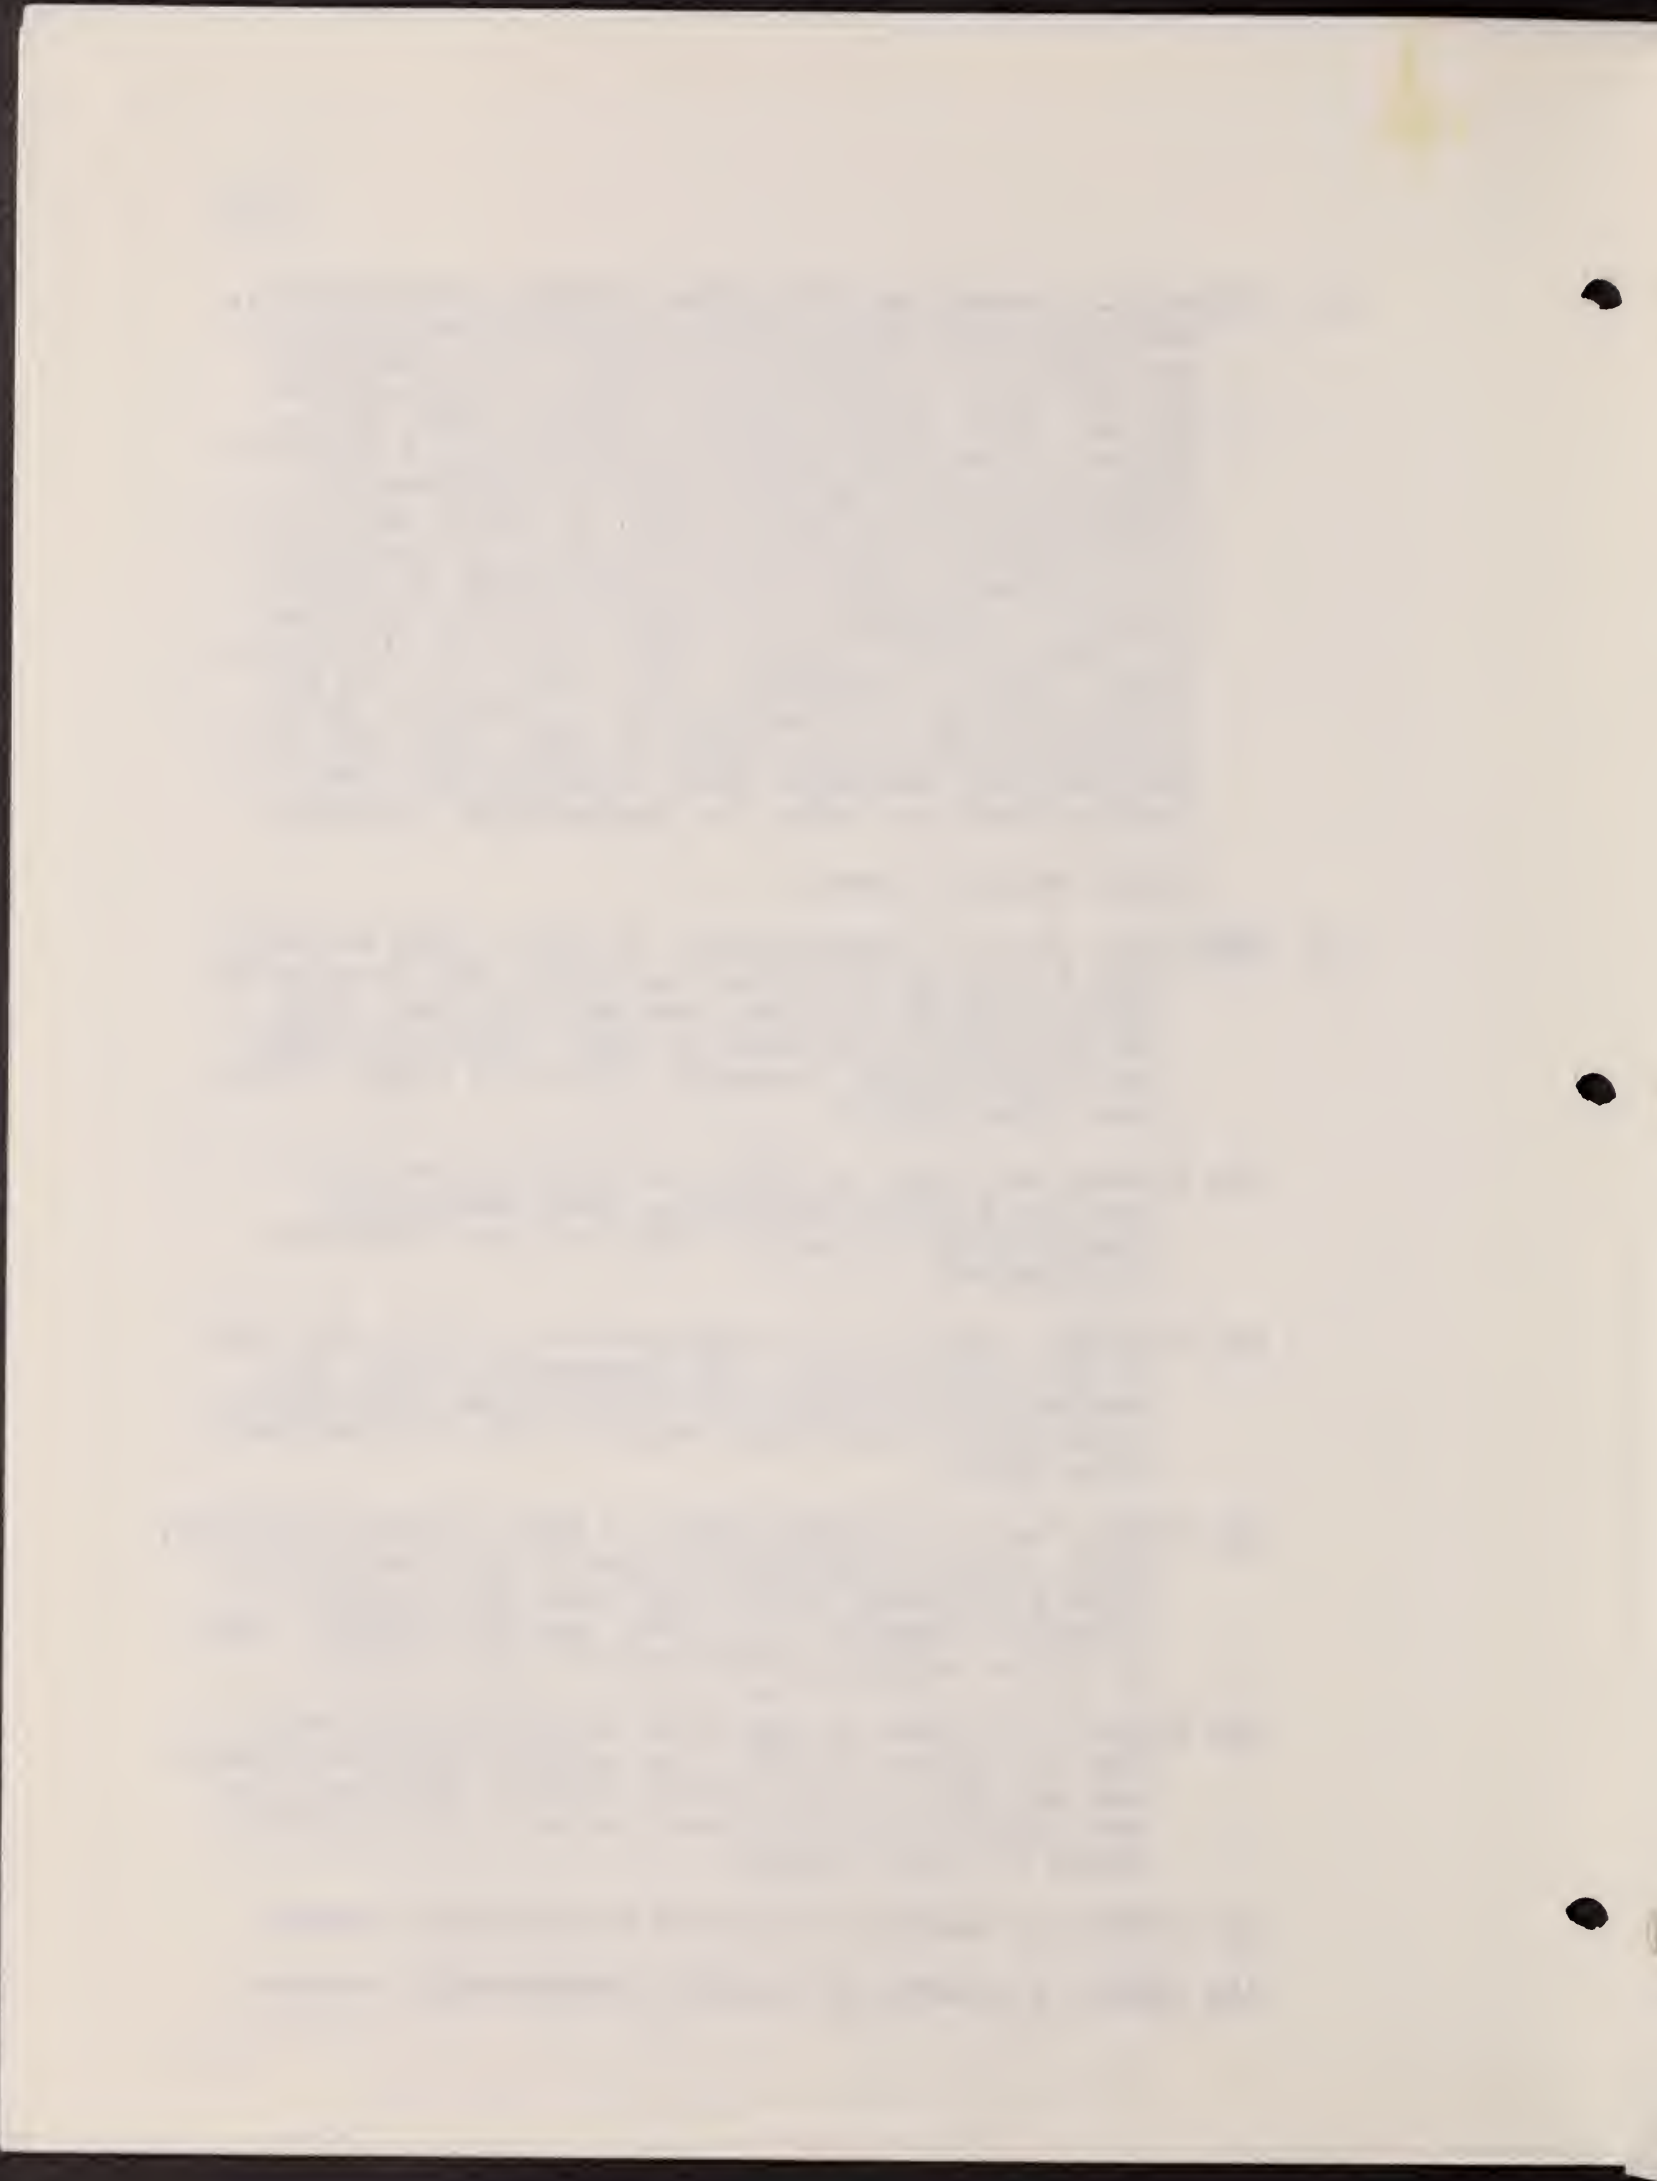

9. In the ninth part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are algebraic in  $x, y, z$ .

10. In the tenth part we consider the case when the functions  $P, Q, R$  are transcendental in  $x, y, z$ .

13. PETER Jr., second son of 5 Peter (Capt.) and Jannetje, was born about 1771, where is not known, but it was likely at Ramapo, New Jersey. He is recorded as the son of Captain Peter Ruttan, and must be the son over twelve years of age in 1783. While he was listed separately and considered a Loyalist in his own right in the Muster of Settlers in Adolphustown in October, 1784, It seems that Peter Jr's name was removed from the Roll of Loyalists and he received his grant of 200 acres of land as a son of a Loyalist. He married Jemima, daughter of Lieut. Michael Slood, U.E. at St. John's Church, Ernest Town, 5 December, 1790. Peter Jr. and his family resided in Adolphustown in 1794 and it is indicated they did so until in 1805 they left for Loughborough Township. Four children were born in Adolphustown and seven in Loughborough Township.

Their children were:

- 38 38 JANE, born in Adolphustown, in 1794, died in 1888, and is buried in Wilmer Cemetery. She married in 1812, John Freeman who was born 22 June, 1790, at Grenville, and died 29 July, 1869, at Wilmer in Loughborough, Township. They had eight children. (See below)
39. RACHEL, was born in 1796, at Adolphustown. She married William Vermilyea. They resided in Loughborough Township. They had four children. (See below)
40. MICHAEL, was born in Adolphustown in 1798. The name of his first wife is not presently known. His second wife was Mary Ann Mountaineer. They lived in Loughborough. There were in all nine children. (See below)
41. SARAH, born in Adolphustown in 1803, died 24 October, 1886. She married John Switzer, born in 1798 and died 6 February 1879. They were both buried in Sydenham Cemetery. They had one son Anthony, born in 1824. Nothing more known of this family.
42. ELENOR, is shown in the 1818 Loughborough Census. She was alive in 1874. She married Lorenzo Switzer who was born in the United States. They had one son Alfred D who was born in 1846. Nothing more known of this family.
43. PETER, is shown in the 1818 Loughborough Census.
44. HENRY, is shown in the 1818 Loughborough Census.

- 45. ANNE, is shown in the 1818 Loughborough Census.
- 46. LORENZO, born in 1813. Died in 1865-9. Married first Margaret Harper (Harple), second Levina Ann Mintz, born 1832, died 1918. (See below)
- 47. JOHN, born in 1816, died 25 November, 1898, married Mary Ann Stinson, born 1820, died 23 March, 1898. Both buried in Sydenham Cemetery. (See below)
- 48. WILLIAM, born in 1821, died in 1905. Married Eliza Vanluven, born 19 November, 1819. She died 17 March, 1903. Both buried in Sydenham Cemetery. (See below)

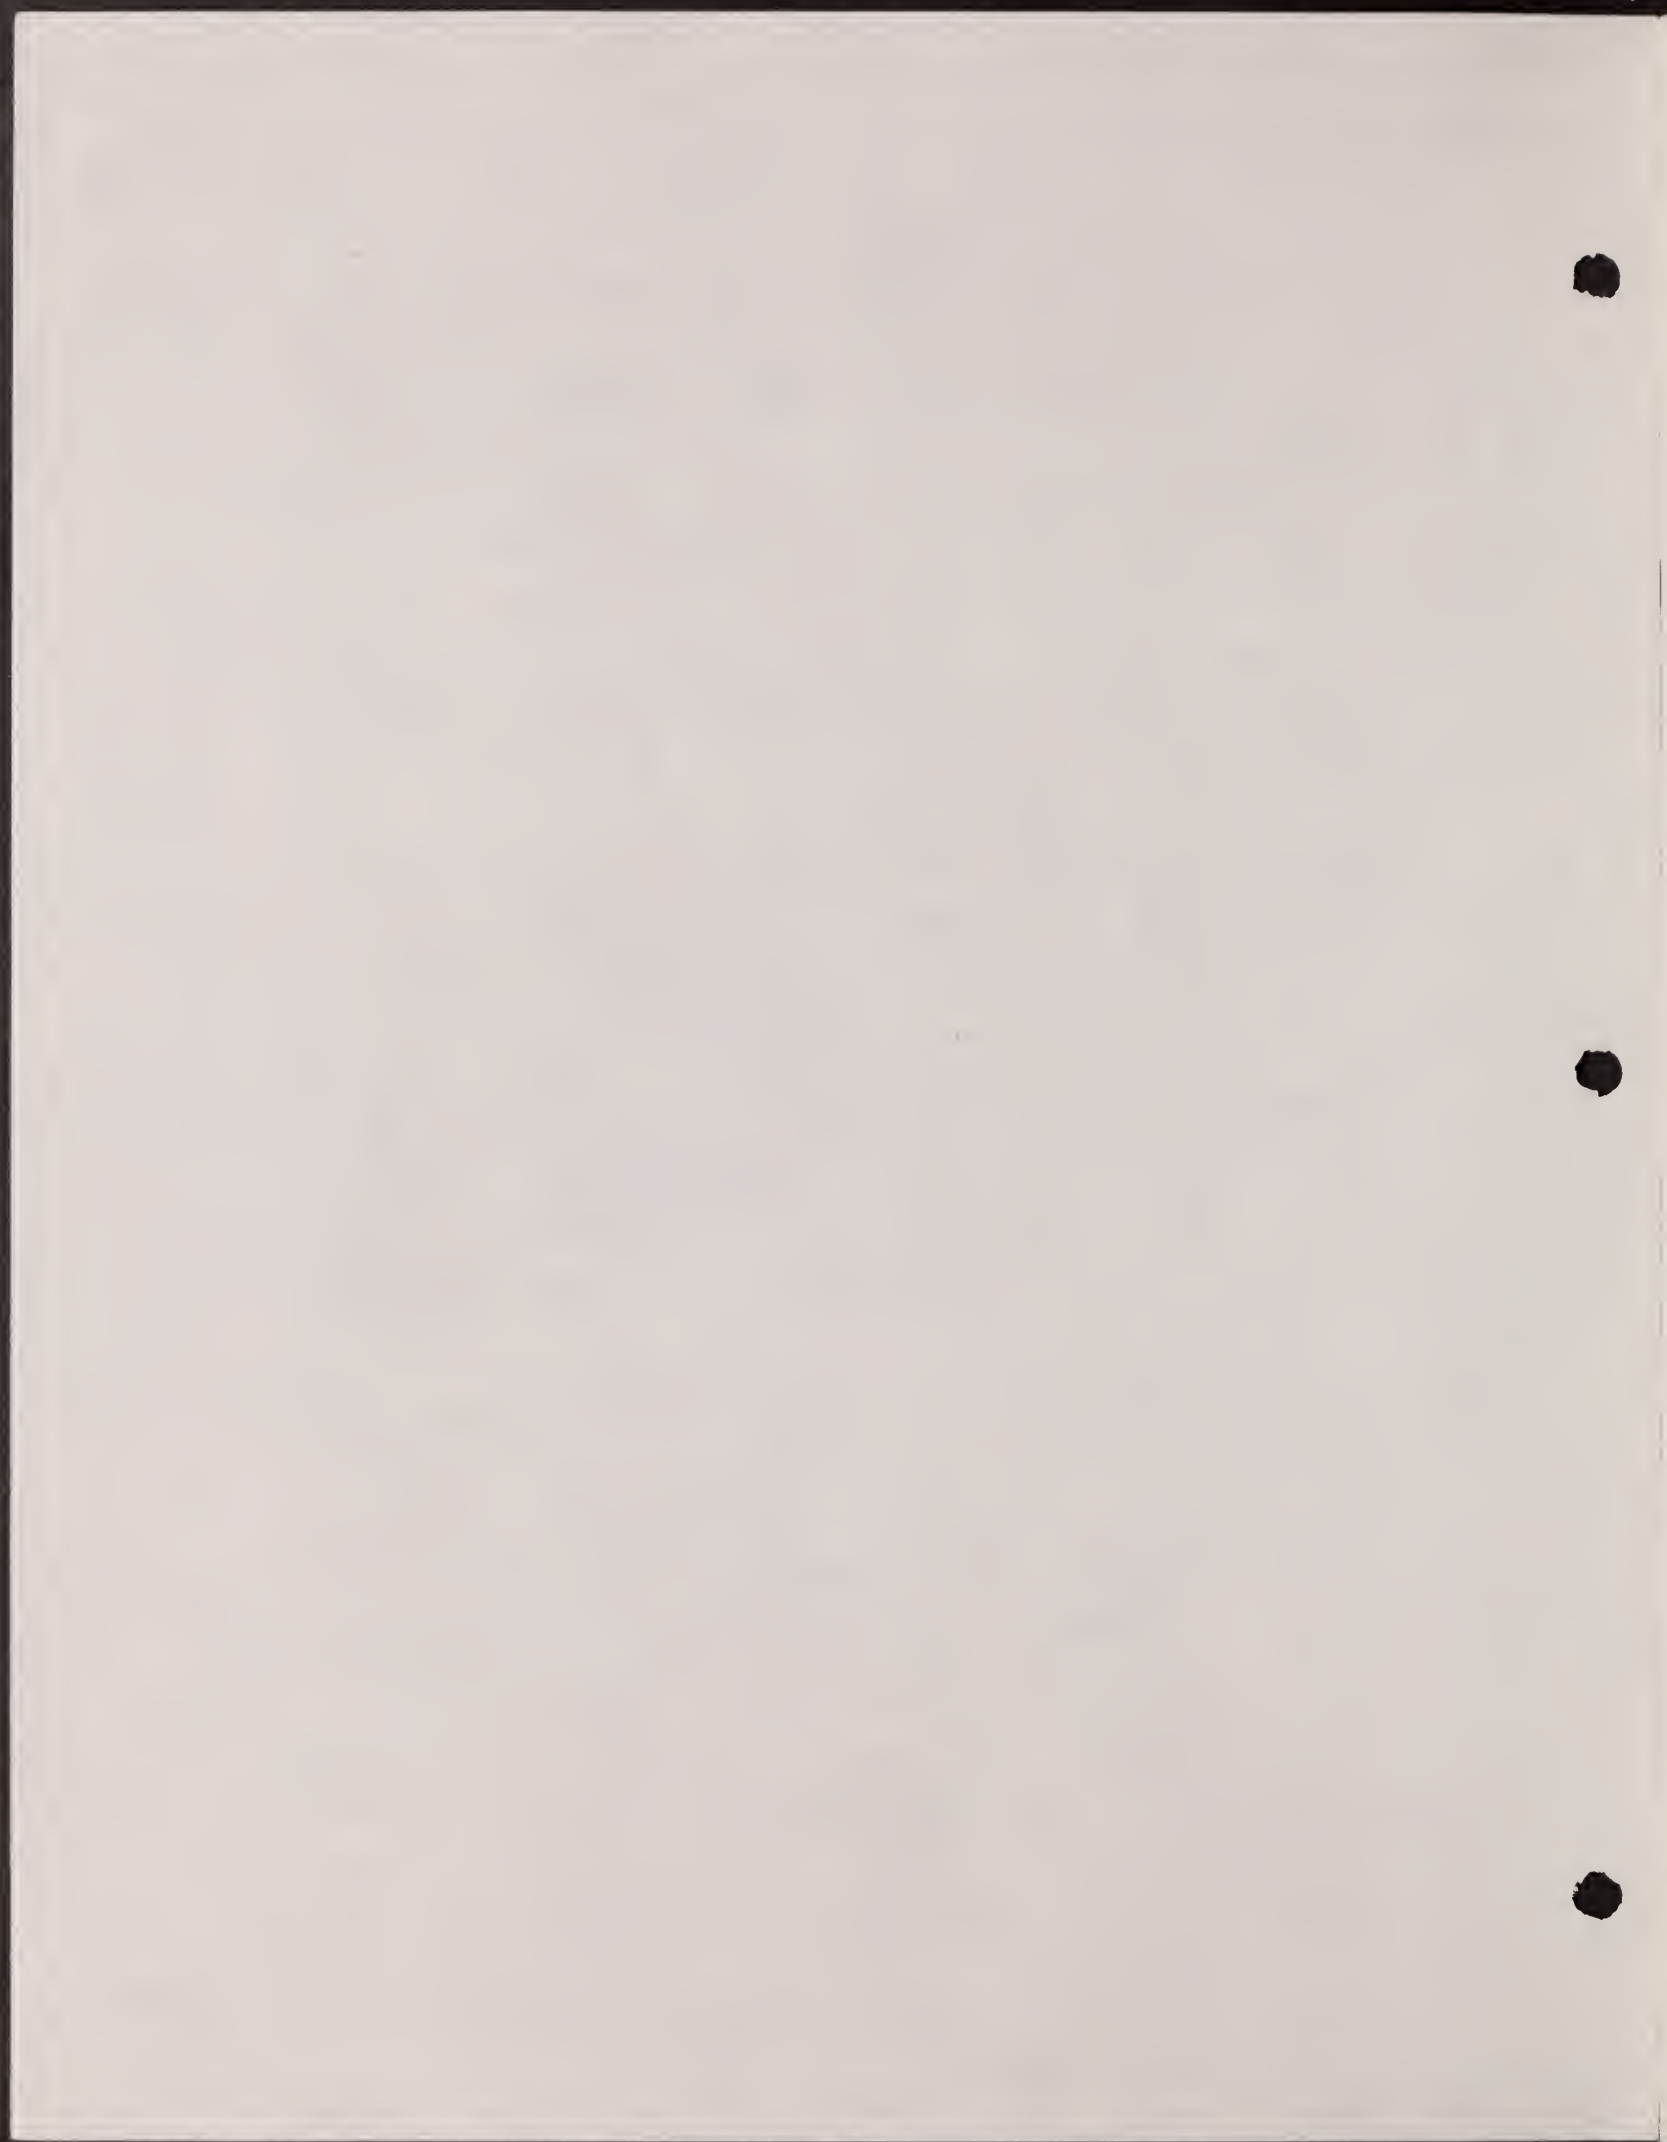

14. MARY, (Maria), third child of 5 Peter (Capt.) and Jannetje was born in Ramapo, New Jeraey, was baptised 1 March, 1772, in the Evangelical Lutheran Church. It is assumed that she was the daughter who was listed as over 12 years of age in December, 1783. It was suggested that she or one of her cousins, daughters of her Uncle Jacob, of Picton, must be the Mary Elizabeth Ruttan who married Owen Roblin about 1793-4. It would not seem likely that Mary, the subject of these paragraphs, married Owen Roblin because, while the date of her marriage to Captain Thomas E. Matthews is not presently known, it seems evident they were married and lived at or near Brougham, in Pickering Township, where they brought up their family.

Research of this part of the Matthews family is by no means satisfactory and requires much more attention.

Her death was reported in News of the Week, 15 December, 1859 and McKenzies Message, 10 December, 1859, "Died at Brougham, on 1st of December, Mary Matthews, dau. of Capt. Ruttan who fought on the British side in the War of the American Revolution, and Mother of Peter Matthews who was executed 1837, aged 90 years.

Her son Peter had belonged to Brock Volunteers during the War of 1812-1815 and fought in various battles of that War.

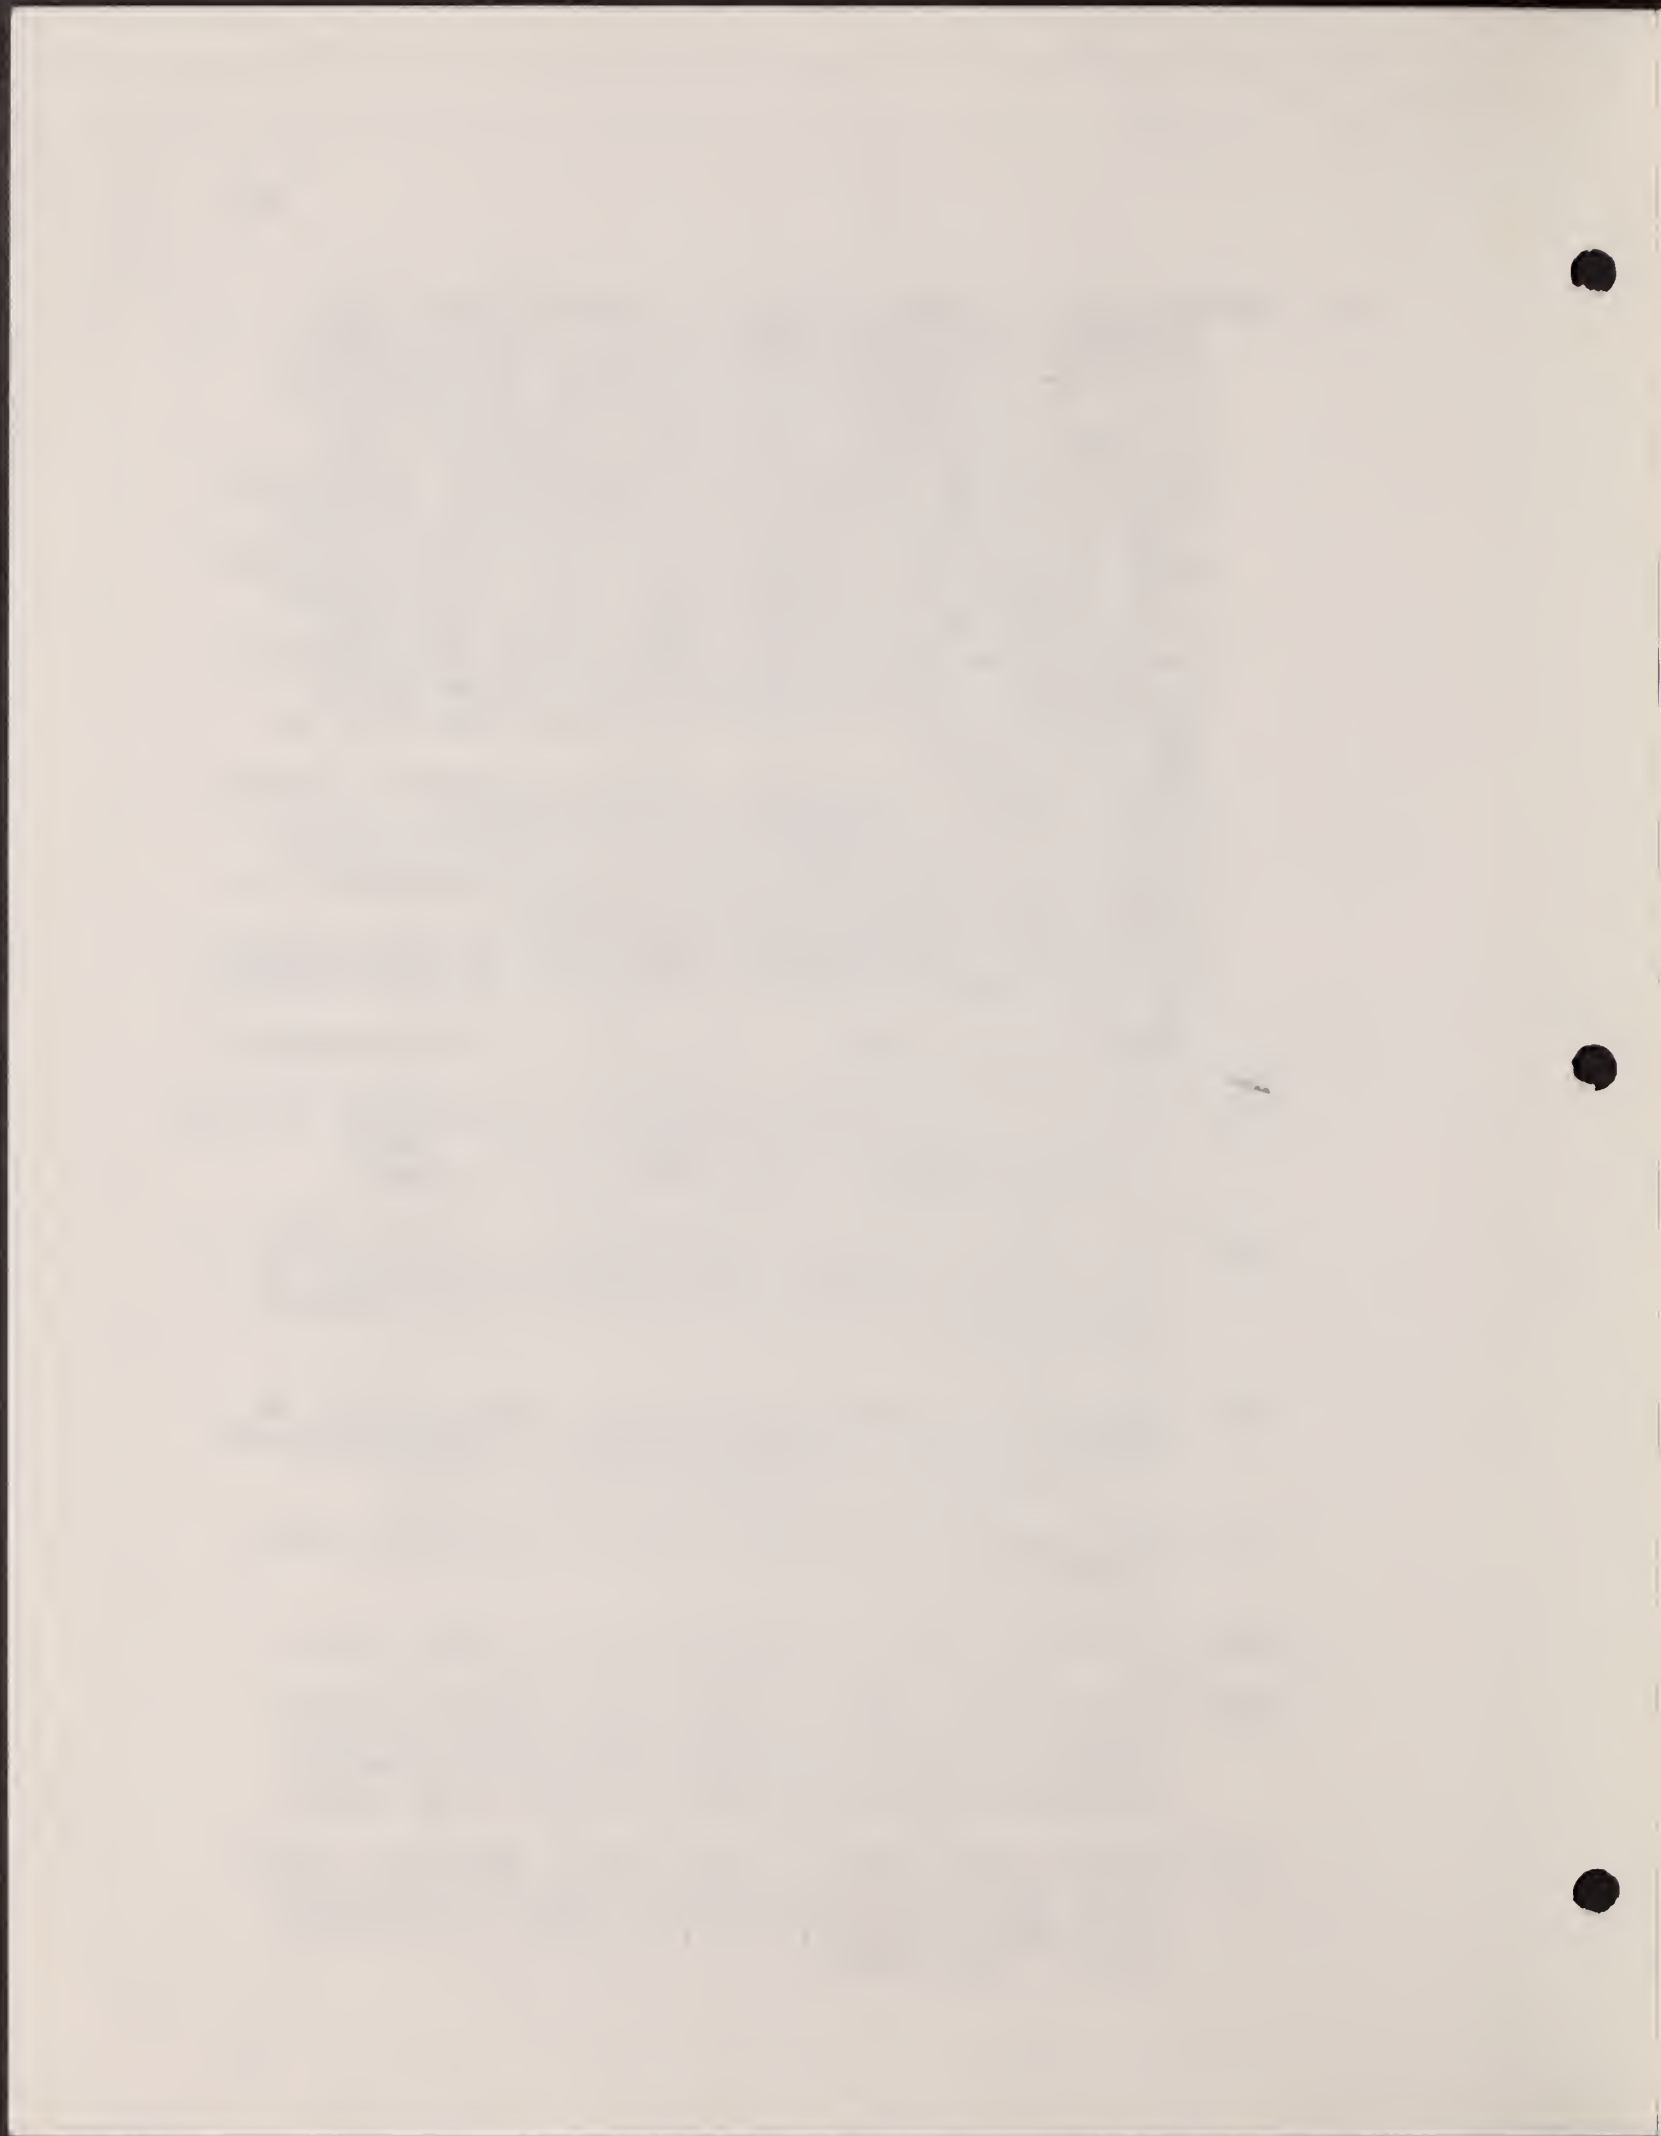

It will be remembered that only Samuel Lount and Peter Matthews, two of the rebel leaders, were hanged for their part in the Rebellion of 1837. An impressive monument to their memory stands today in the Toronto Necropolis Cemetery where they are buried.

15. JOSEPH BRANT, fourth child of 5 Peter (Capt.) and Jannetje, was born either in New York or Sorel in 1783, or perhaps in early 1784, in Adolphustown. On 2 February, 1784, Captain Peter Ruttan is shown as having a son and a daughter, both over ten years of age and on 5 October, 1784, the muster of Loyalists in Adolphustown indicated that his family included a son under ten. It is said by the Hon. Henry Ruttan in his Reminiscences that Joseph Brant Ruttan was named after Joseph Brant, the famous Mohawk Chief, who served so honorably on the British side during the American Revolution, and with whom Captain Peter Ruttan had made a tour of observation from New York to Western Canada.
Joseph B died 12 January, 1832. He married 8 June, 1805, Alley, a daughter of John Canniff, U.E. of Thurlow. She was born in 1785 and died 11 May, 1851. They are buried in St. Paul's Churchyard at Adolphustown where they had resided.
Joseph was a Private in Capt. Thos Dorland's Flank Co., Col. Cartwright's 1st Regiment Lennox Militia, in 1812.
Their children were: (All born at Adolphustown.)
49. PHOEBE, born 19 March, 1806, at Adolphustown. Married John Beninger, 8 June, 1825, at St. Thomas Anglican Church, Belleville. (See below)
50. PETER, born 13 July, 1807. Married 8 April, 1832, his cousin, Barbara Ellen Howe who was born in 1816 and who died 23 June, 1854, in childbirth. (See below)
51. MARY, (Polly), born 16 October, 1809, married 28 February, 1832, in Adolphustown, Isaiah Thompson of Huntingdon Township, Hastings County.
52. JANE, born 13 July, 1811, died 28 December, 1841, unmarried.
- 53 52. ELIZABETH, born 2 September, 1813, died young.
- 54 52. JOHN CANNIFF, born 28 June, 1815, died in 1899. Married 7 October, 1838, Sarah Mary Baillie. She was born 5 September, 1816 in Pittsburgh Township and died 23 March, 1898. (See below)
55. WILLIAM, was born 21 March, 1817. He died 7 June, 1903 at Wooler. He married Julia Ann Pake who was born 12 March, 1822, and died 7 February, 1909. (See below)

56. ELISA ADELINE, born in 1818, was baptised 12 September, 1824, age 7 years 10 days, at St. Thomas Anglican Church, Belleville.
  57. DAVID, was born in 1820, on the 20th of October. He appears on the 1851 Marysburgh and 1865 Asphodel (Northumberland Co. now Peterborough E.) Censuses.
  58. RICHARD NUGENT, born 24 August, 1822, died 22 June, 1853. Married 2 April, 1844, Elizabeth Maria Griffis who was born in 1822. (See below)
  59. CHARLES S, born 15 October, 1824, married in 1854, Julia Ann Dame. (See below)

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present. The author then goes on to discuss the various factors which have shaped the development of the United States, including the influence of the British, the Spanish, and the French. He also discusses the role of the American people in the creation of the nation. The paper concludes by stating that the study of the history of the United States is a task of great importance, and that it is one which should be undertaken by all who are interested in the future of the country.

27. HENRY, fourth son of # 11 William and Margaret, was born 12 June, 1792, at Adolphustown, Upper Canada. He died 30 July, 1871, at Cobourg, Canada West. Married 26 May, 1816, at Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, Mary, daughter of Elias Jones, U.E., Merchant and J.P.

His education began at home, at the hands of his mother, until he reached the age of seven years, after which he attended at various places of learning including Mrs. Carnahan's Sylvan Seminary for the young Idea, Jonathan Clark's, Thomas Morden's, William Faulkner's and another some five miles distant until at age fourteen it was finished. The story is told that Henry, when a child, went with his brother one spring morning to tap trees for sugar making and by accident two of his fingers were severed from his hand by an untoward stroke of the sharp axe. This loss led his father to send him to school, as he could not perform manual labor.

When Henry's education was finished, he went to Kingston, as an assistant in a store "to learn the art and mystery of Trade and Commerce".

When war broke out in 1812, with the United States, he joined the Militia. He was a Sergeant in Captain John Spencer's Flank Company, 1st Regiment Northumberland Militia. Lieutenant, 2nd Battalion of Lieut. Colonel Wm. Robinson's 8th Regiment of the Line in 1813. At the battle of Lundy's Lane he received a serious wound from which he recovered and late in December following rejoined his Regiment at York.

When the war ended he went into business in the Township of Haldimand. After their marriage Henry and Mary lived in Grafton where six of their children were born. In 1816 Henry was made a Major of Militia and a few years later Colonel. He was elected to the House of Assembly as the representative for Northumberland 1820-1824 and 1836-1840 and replaced Allan MacNab as speaker of the house from the 28th December, 1837 to 24th January, 1838. He was appointed Sheriff of the Newcastle District in October, 1827, about which time the family moved to Cobourg and later three more children were born. When he resigned the office of Sheriff in 1857, it is believed that, with one exception, he was the senior Sheriff and Colonel of Militia in the Province. He had left the active militia in 1846 but was recalled in 1860 to command the 4th Military District, which posting he held until 1862. He was an inventor and spent much time in writing and experimenting on the theory of ventilation and heating. He held several patents having to do with such matters.

At one time he was President of the Provincial Agricultural Society.

In 1860 he was thrown by accident from his buggy, and was seriously injured recovering slowly and only partially. He wrote his Reminiscences in 1861 and they are a valuable reference to the early days in Canada.

His wife, Mary, must have been of great help to Henry both in private and public life and she was honored on the 12th of January, 1868 when she was presented with a fine Bible "by the Teachers and Scholars of the Cobourg West End Sunday School as a mark of esteem and respect for her untiring zeal in the management of it for a period of over thirty years."

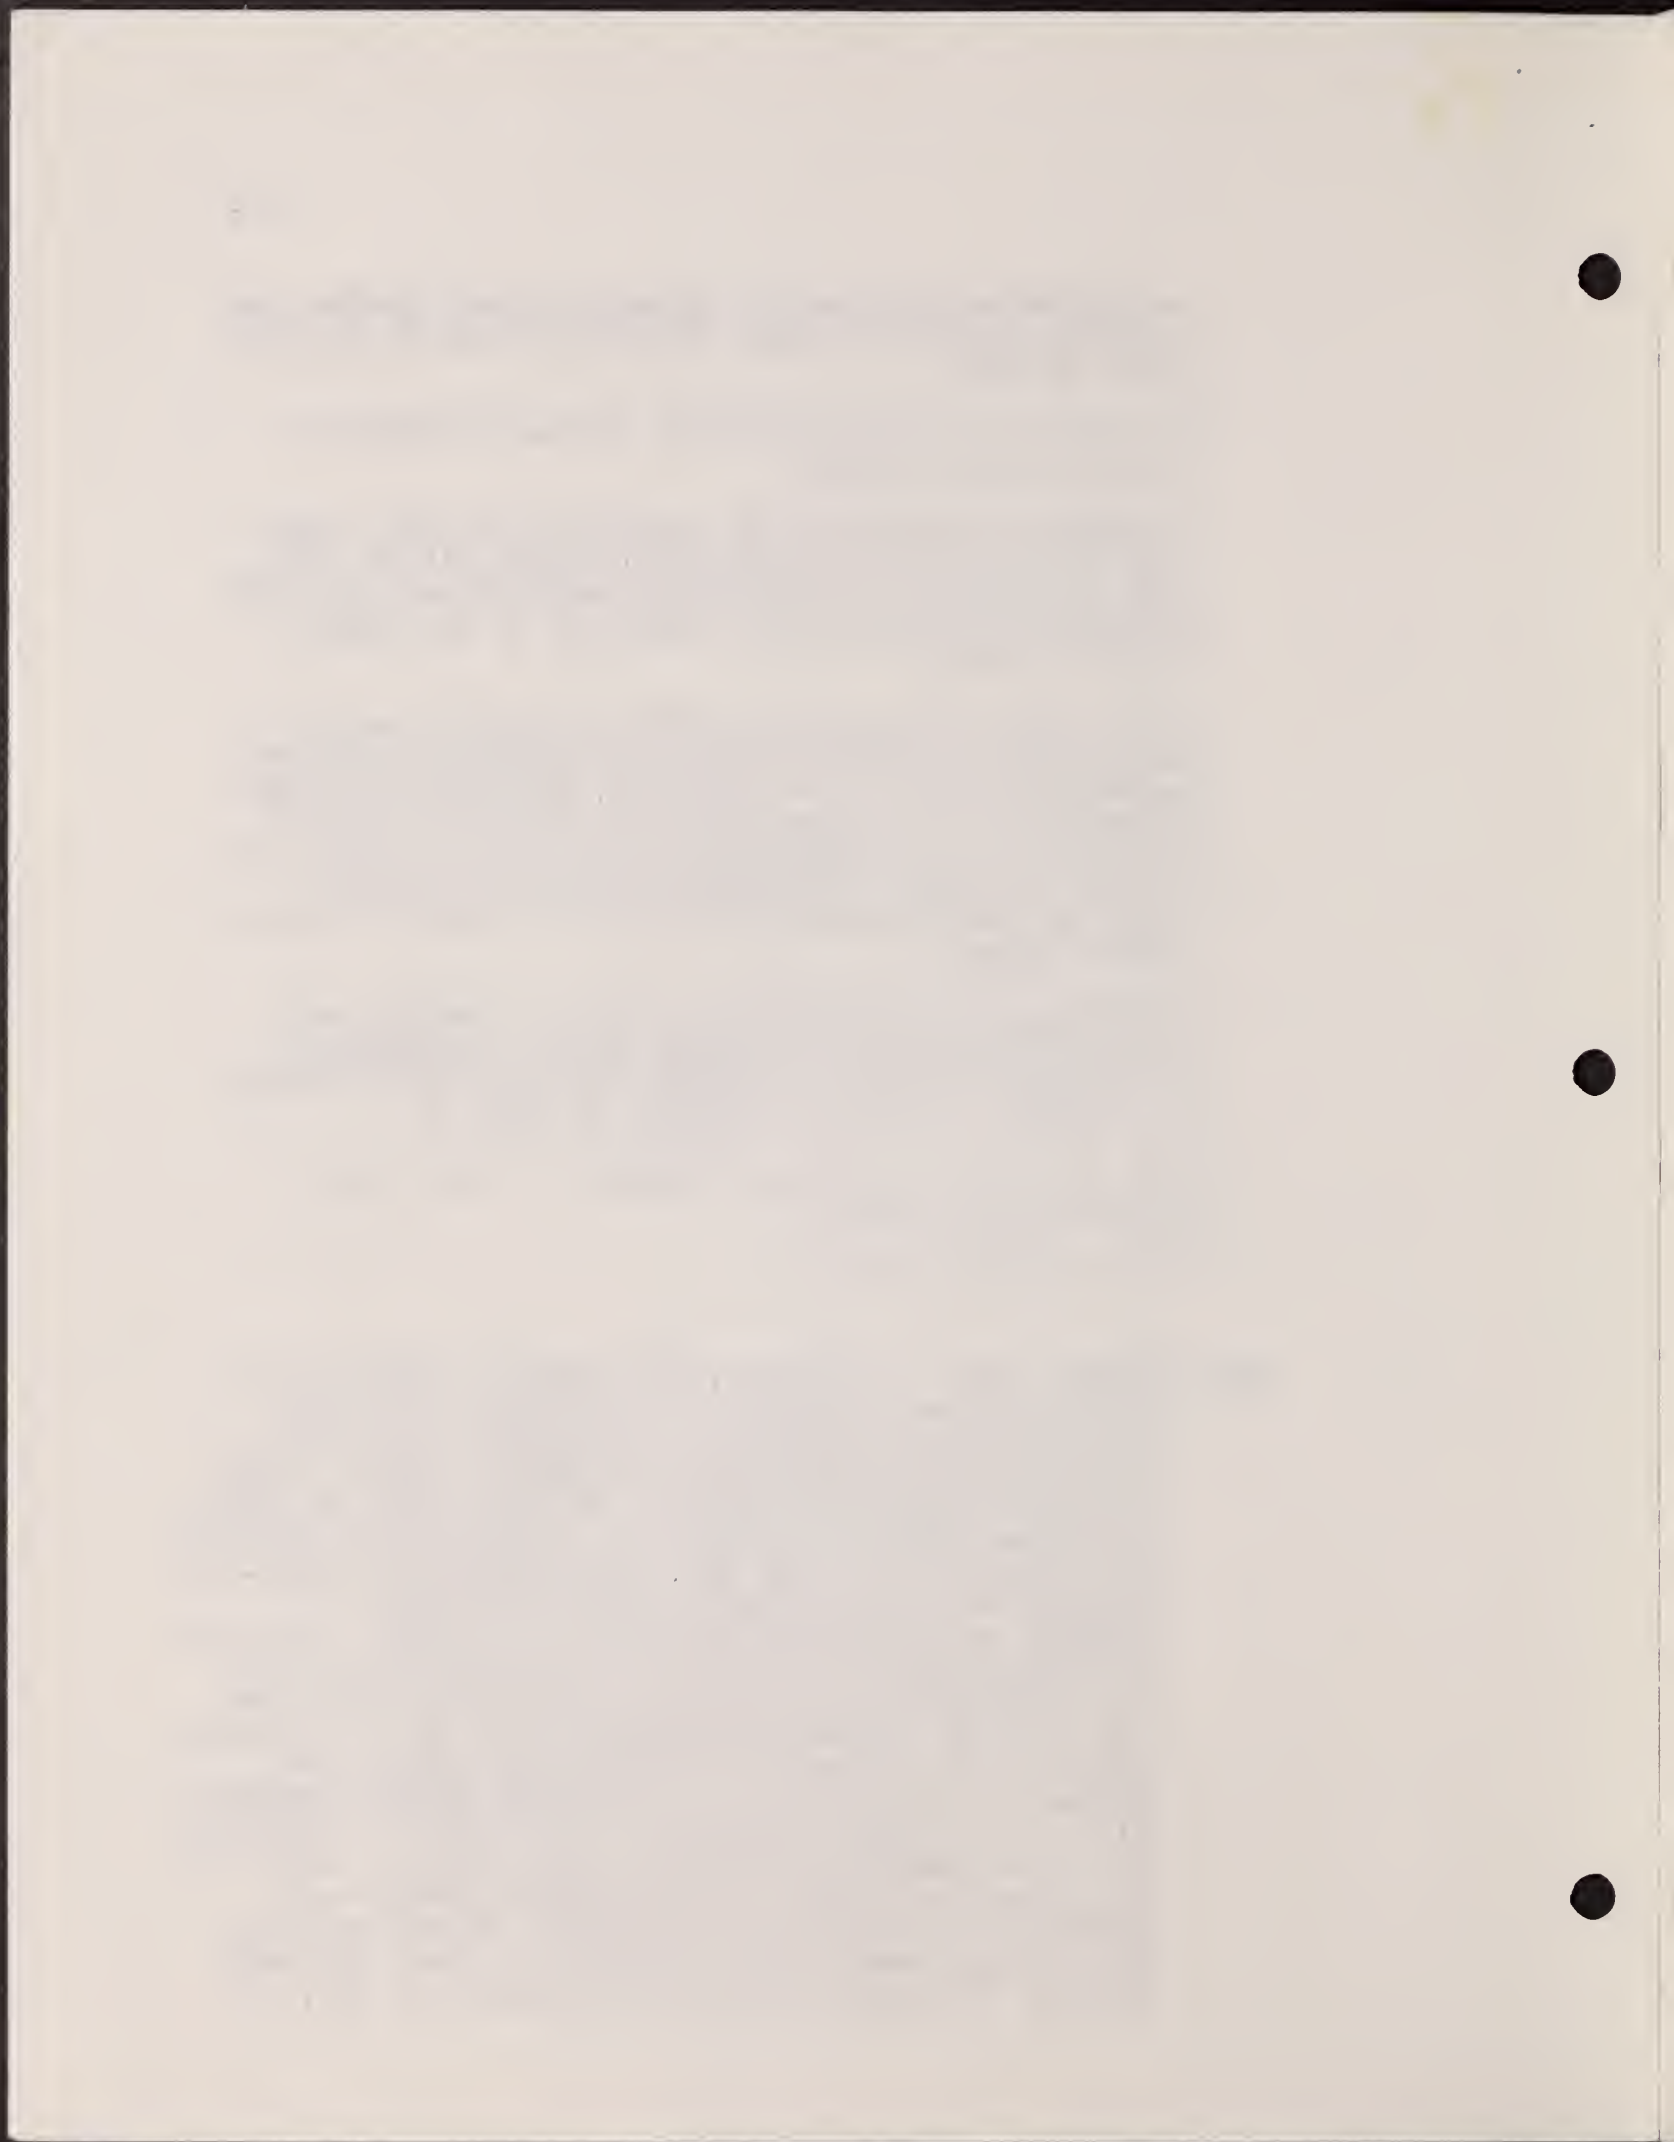

The Honorable Henry Ruttan died on the 30th of July, 1871, and he is buried in the cemetery of St. Peter's Anglican Church, which he had attended and supported for many years, in Cobourg.

Mary died on the 23rd of February, 1873, and is buried beside Henry.

Their children were:

90. WILLIAM, born in Grafton, 23 December, 1817. At an early age he attended an elementary school and in 1828, when the family had moved to Cobourg, he attended the Newcastle District School where his ability was recognized. He attended, in 1830, the then recently established Upper Canada College. He retired, the head boy, from College in 1834. He had won several prizes while at College. William was articled to George S. Boulton, Esq. of Cobourg, with the intention of studying the Law but illness of a serious nature attacked him and his medical advisers recommended he go to a warmer climate. He journeyed to Europe and spent the winter at Marseilles but in February, feeling very ill, he took his passage for New York in a Swedish ship. He reached New York on the 30th of April and was taken to a bed in the American Hotel and medical attendance was procured. At his request his parents were sent for. He was given the very kindest of attention but at the hour of one, on the morning of the 3rd May, 1837, he died and his remains were taken to a vault in St. John's Church. His father, who had heard of the arrival and decease of his Son at the same moment, hurried to New York and returned to Cobourg with the remains. On Sunday the 28th May, the re-interment took place, attended by a concourse of more than 800 persons. The Sermon was preached by the Rev. A. N. Bethune (later Bishop).

91. HENRY JONES, born 16 March, 1819, was baptised in Haldimand, April, 1820, Godfather, Peter McDonnell and the parents. The entry being one of the first in the St. Peter's Register and made by the Rev. William Macaulay. He died 4 February, 1879. Married 3 July, 1847, Margaret Pringle. (See below)
92. CHARLES, born 24 March, 1821, and died 23 October, 1900. He married Margaret Jean Cameron, born 1830, died 1914. (See below)
93. RICHARD, was born 11 July, 1823, and died 14 May, 1881. He married in 1860, Caroline C. Rowe, born in 1835, died in 1913. (See below)
94. MARGARET, born 26 March, 1825, died 10 January, 1848.
95. MARY, was born 8 October, 1826, and died 21 July, 1883. She married 23 June, 1845, R. M. Boucher, born , and died 1867. (See below)
96. ELIZABETH, born 4 September, 1830, at Cobourg, died 30 September, 1831.
97. AMELIA, born 14 June, 1832, at Cobourg, died 3 March, 1842.
98. WILLIAM ELIAS, born 10 July, 1843, at Cobourg, died 3 September, 1901, in New York, buried in St. Peter's Cemetery, Cobourg.
William E. began his career as a complimentary stenographic reporter for the Cobourg Sentinel, he passed on to the Toronto Globe, then to the New York Times, and to the New York World, then to Craig & Co's Reporting agency house of New York, in which his distinguished ability was recognized, and from thence he was employed by the President of the Illinois Central Railway, of which Railway corporation he became the confidential Secretary and Stenographic Reporter with his offices in New York and Chicago. He never married and for the last part of his life he resided in rooms at Fort Green Place, Brooklyn, where he had lived for four and a half years. Mrs. E. Keeler, in writing of his death, told of his returning from a holiday in his usual good health, and as was his Sunday custom, having breakfast at the house on 1st of September, 1901. Ten or fifteen minutes before one o'clock he left the house. He did not return. It was not realized anything was amiss until the third of September and a search was begun. Mrs. Keeler writes of a Mr. Fish, who presumably was a fellow employee, had several men out searching for William but no trace was found until the following Saturday or Sunday. On the Monday, Mrs. Keeler went to Mr. Fish' office to learn if there was any news and found that a man had just come in with William's clothes, which she was able, without doubt, to identify. It was later learned that William had gone to make a call on some women who did sewing or mending for him and while there complained of feeling ill and asked if he could be permitted to lie down. This was granted and after a few minutes one of the women looked in on him and saw that his face looked very flushed. She told him he was a very sick man and she would send for a doctor which he did not want him to do, but she did so. Two doctors came with an ambulance and took him to St. Catherine's Hospital. He was unconscious when the doctors arrived and never regained consciousness. The cause of death was said to have been apoplexy. Unfortunately, William had nothing on his person by which he could be identified and somehow his name on the hospital records was shown as William Richards and probably accounts for the delay in his being found. As William was unidentified he was buried at West Farms where the unknown dead were buried. An inscription in his memory was cut into the back of the tombstone which commemorates his mother and father, and which stands in the St. Peter's Anglican Church Cemetery, in Cobourg.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

30 November, 1976

At last I have reached the stage where I am able to tell you what has been done with your great collection of information concerning the Ruttan and associated families.

After receiving the box of papers from Cummings Daverne I went through it sheet by sheet and decided that the many pages would require sorting into the various subjects covered. Files were set up under the following headings;

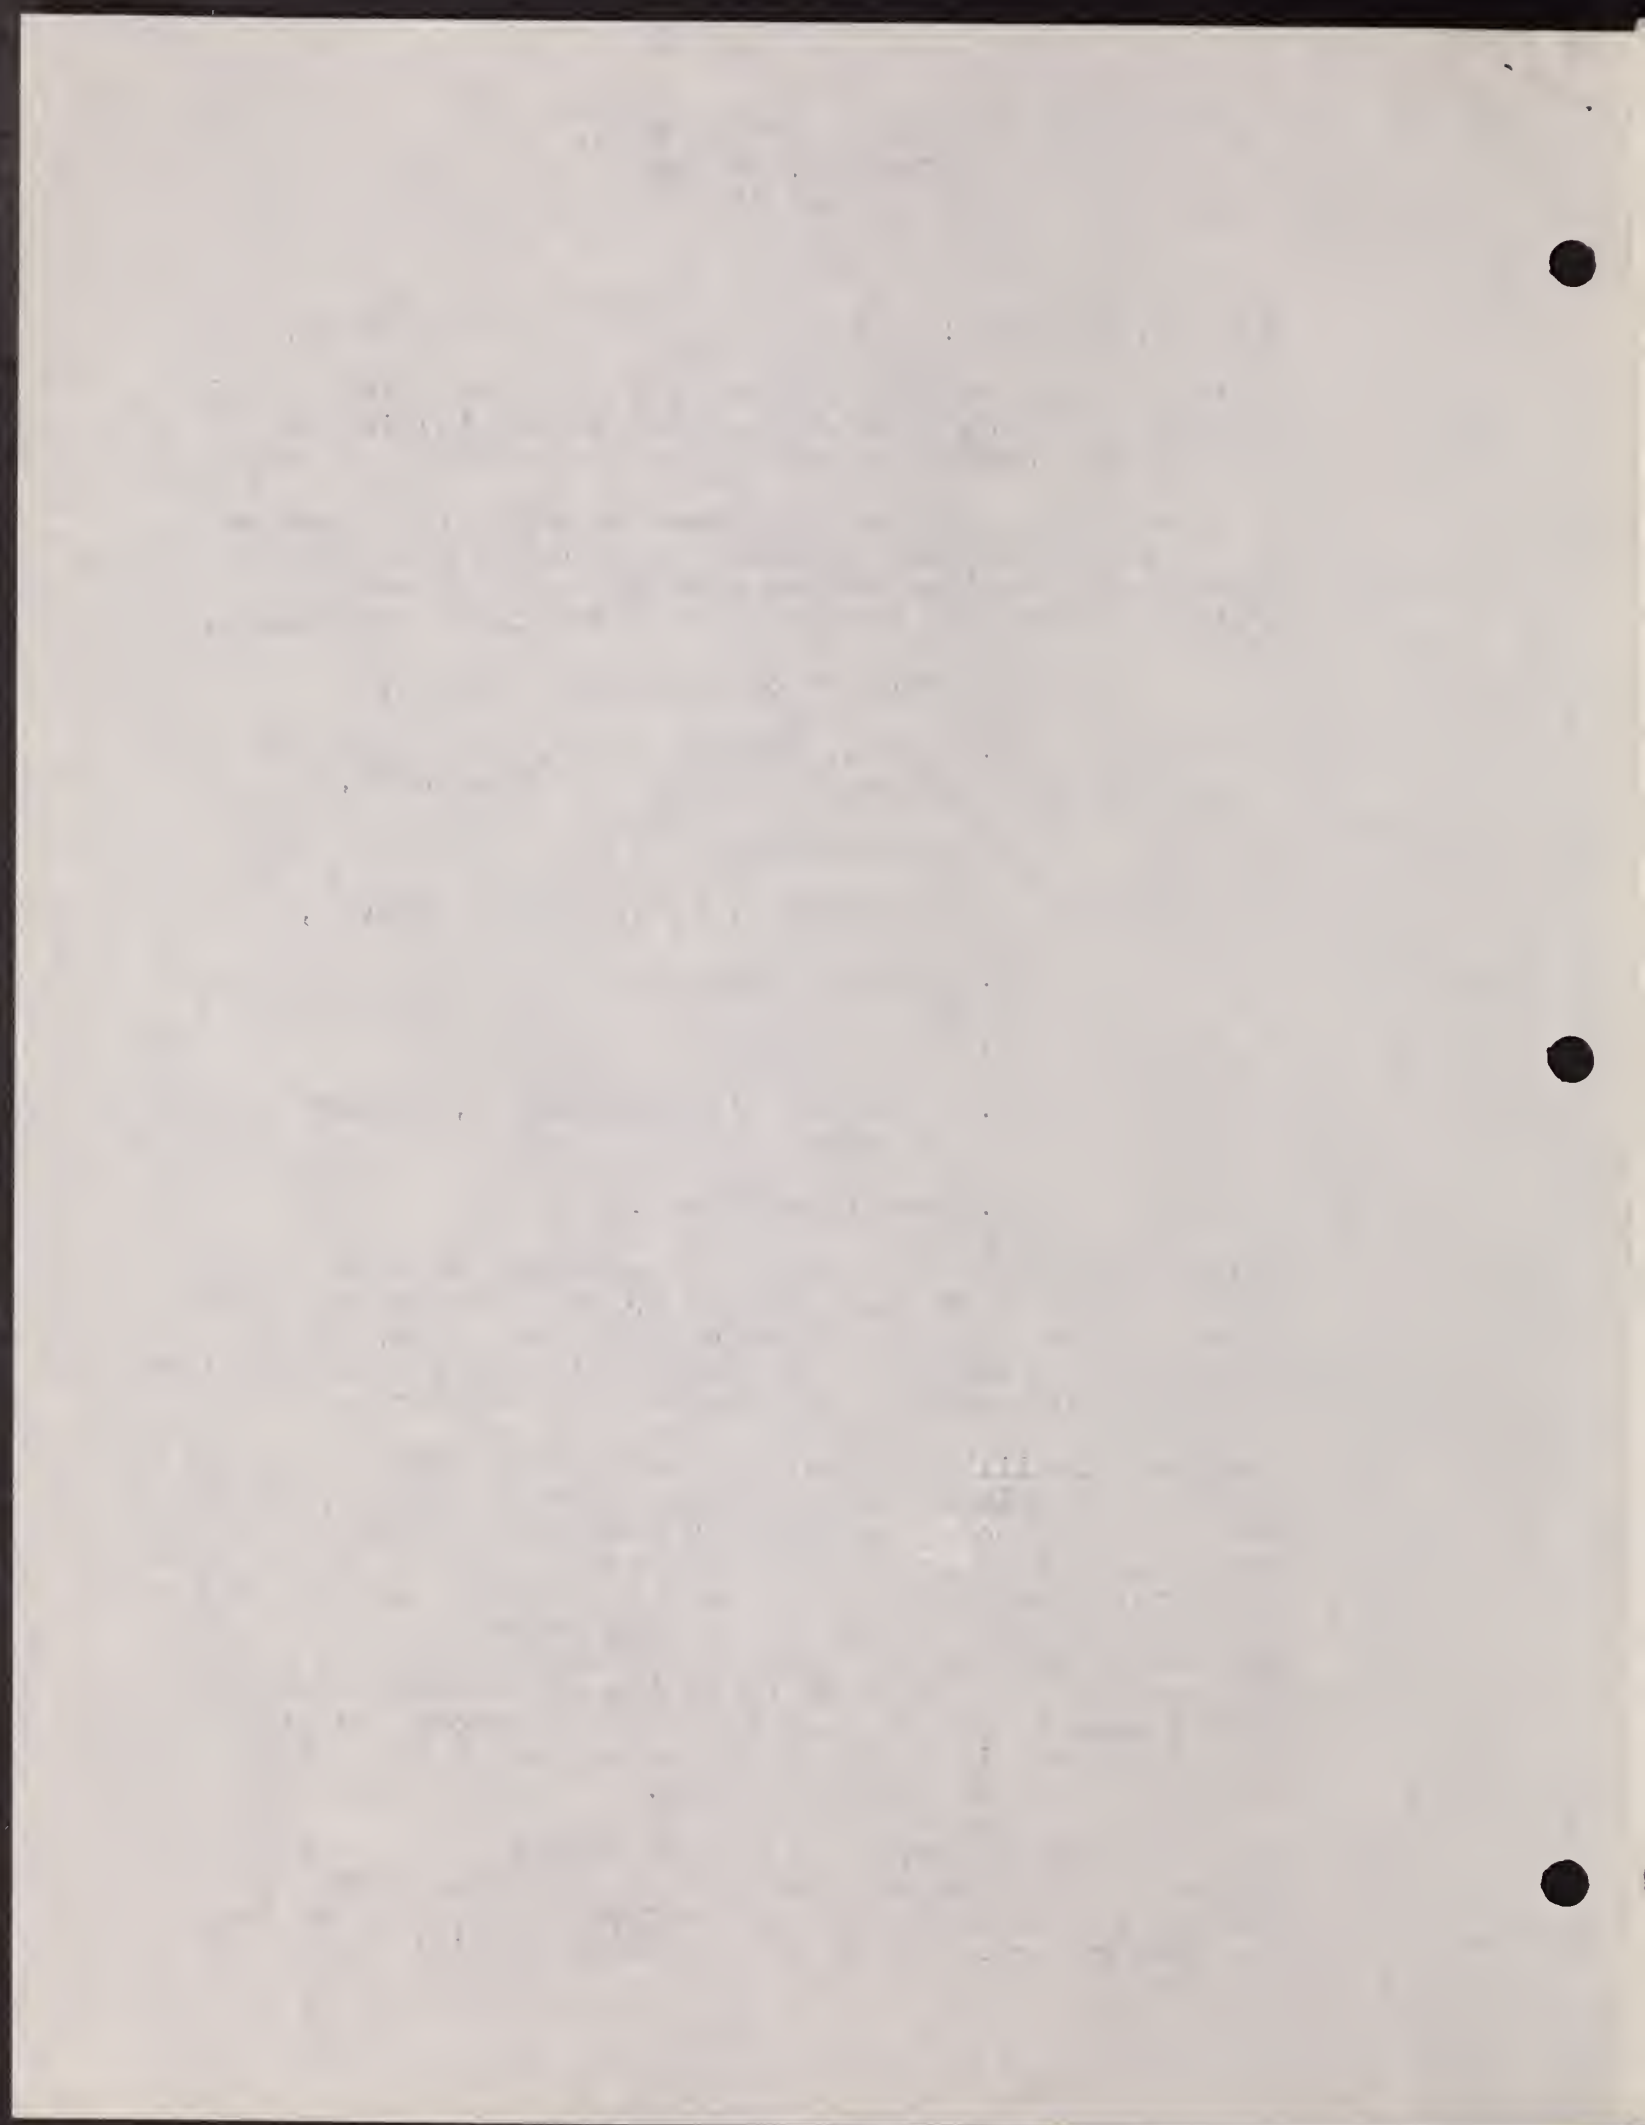

1. Ancestry of the Loyal Ruttans,
2. Births, Baptisms, Burials, Marriages, Obits, Wills and Church Records,
3. Miscellaneous Items,
4. Land Grants, O.C.s, and Petitions,
5. Davids and Davidts,
6. Correspondence,
7. Returns, Haldimand Papers, Census Returns,
8. Tree Type Charts.

and over a number of sessions your papers were gone over again and put into, what seemed to be, their proper file. Later, while listing the contents of each file, it was found that some papers had found their way into wrong files and a bit more sorting will be done at a later date.

Enclosed you will find a sheet headed "A" which lists the contents of file 1. Ancestry of the Loyal Ruttans, and with this list one set, Foreword and twenty-one typed pages, of your original material. In addition to this, a carbon copy of my suggested revision of your work which you will see goes no further than mentioning the grandchildren of Matthew Van Norden and Elizabeth (Rutan), see page 7. I do believe that if one tried to follow the descendants of a female line in any work of this nature beyond the point that I suggest it would be beyond any control. I trust you will agree with this thought.

You will also observe that I have changed the numbering system in my typed copy so that it corresponds with the numbers presently being used by Gordon Way, Bob Meachem and some others. A gigantic re-numbering will have to be done one of these days but as there are still a number of names that we are not able to place in their proper positions at this time I would prefer to wait until a later date.

I like your title, Ancestry of the Loyal Ruttans, very much indeed but the more I think of it the more I feel that any work on our family would extend far beyond the one fact of Ancestry. I have thought a lot about this and throw in for discussion the following-

THE LOYAL RUTTANS

Their Ancestry,
Their Families
and
Their Descendants

Your Ancestry of the Loyal Ruttans ends, for the moment, on page 21 and in my suggested revision I have added from my number 15 Joseph Brant and his children to number 27 Henry (my great great grandfather) and his children.

Getting back to the subject of Ancestry, I believe that we should try and include what records appear to show of the Rutan, Rutants, in the Duchy of Lorraine and I enclose a copy of some information compiled by one Abram A. Rheutan (a further corruption of the name) which was sent to me some time ago by Bob Meachem. I think this Abram used material gathered by Charles H. Rutan, Architect of Boston and a descendant of Samuel, the youngest son of Abraham and Marie Petilion.

This information does conflict with the writings of The Hon. Henry but when one remembers that what he learned of family history was likely from his parents and his uncles and aunts as they remembered what they had been told I don't think he did too badly.

I wonder if we should try and mention some of the DesMarets background. It should be fairly easy to get permission to use some parts of their Genealogy.

Moving on, we come to the notes made in connection with files 2 to 8 inclusive.

Enclosed are carbon copies of twenty sheets which are numbered 1 to 20 which apply to the above mentioned files 2 to 8 as follows-

As mentioned previously there will have to be transfers of some sheets from one file to another, but for the time being they will stay as is.

There is a great deal of information of considerable interest to researchers of the Ruttan family contained in your papers and if it is your desire to make this available to serious researchers then copies of Pages 1 to 20 could be sent, on request, and they could ask for specific sheets from the files at a cost of XeroXing plus postage.

Please let me know your thoughts in this regard.

Please excuse my sending you carbon copies of the various sheets but I am keeping the originals in case XeroXes are required.

the family Thank you for putting Mrs. David Howes in touch with me. Her father was a close friend of my own father and both my wife and I had met many years ago. I think I gave her most of the information she was looking for and she gave me some in return.

I realize I have been most remiss in not answering your last letter but seeing you at the convention put it out of my mind. You did mention a John Ruttan who married Angeline Knapp on 21 Aug. 1879 but I am sorry that I can not place them yet. Meryle De Valadares told me, about the middle of the summer that she had come across the plot in the Battersea Cemetery where John and Angeline and four of their children are buried.

I seem to have rambled on and on. If there are any questions on the foregoing I will try to answer them.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Burleigh and yourself from Margot and myself.

Sincerely yours,

Danny Ruttan.

The first of the three papers in this section is by Dr. J. H. Tappan, of the University of Chicago, who discusses the question of the relative importance of the various factors in the causation of disease. He points out that while the environment and heredity are important, the most important factor is the individual's own constitution. He then discusses the question of the relative importance of the various factors in the causation of disease, and concludes that the most important factor is the individual's own constitution.

ANCESTRY OF THE LOYAL RUTTANS.

FOREWORD.

Several years ago, while reviewing the Lutheran Church records of New York City, I discovered the marriage record of my Loyalist ancestors, William Howe and Margaret Van Norden, in the year 1770. In the course of further research I found that my ancestress, Margaret, was the daughter of Matteus Van Norden and his wife, Elisabeth Retan. As time passed I reviewed many church records of parishes along the Lower Hudson River and northern New Jersey. As a result, I was able to compile reliable records of the Ruttan Family, starting in 1683.

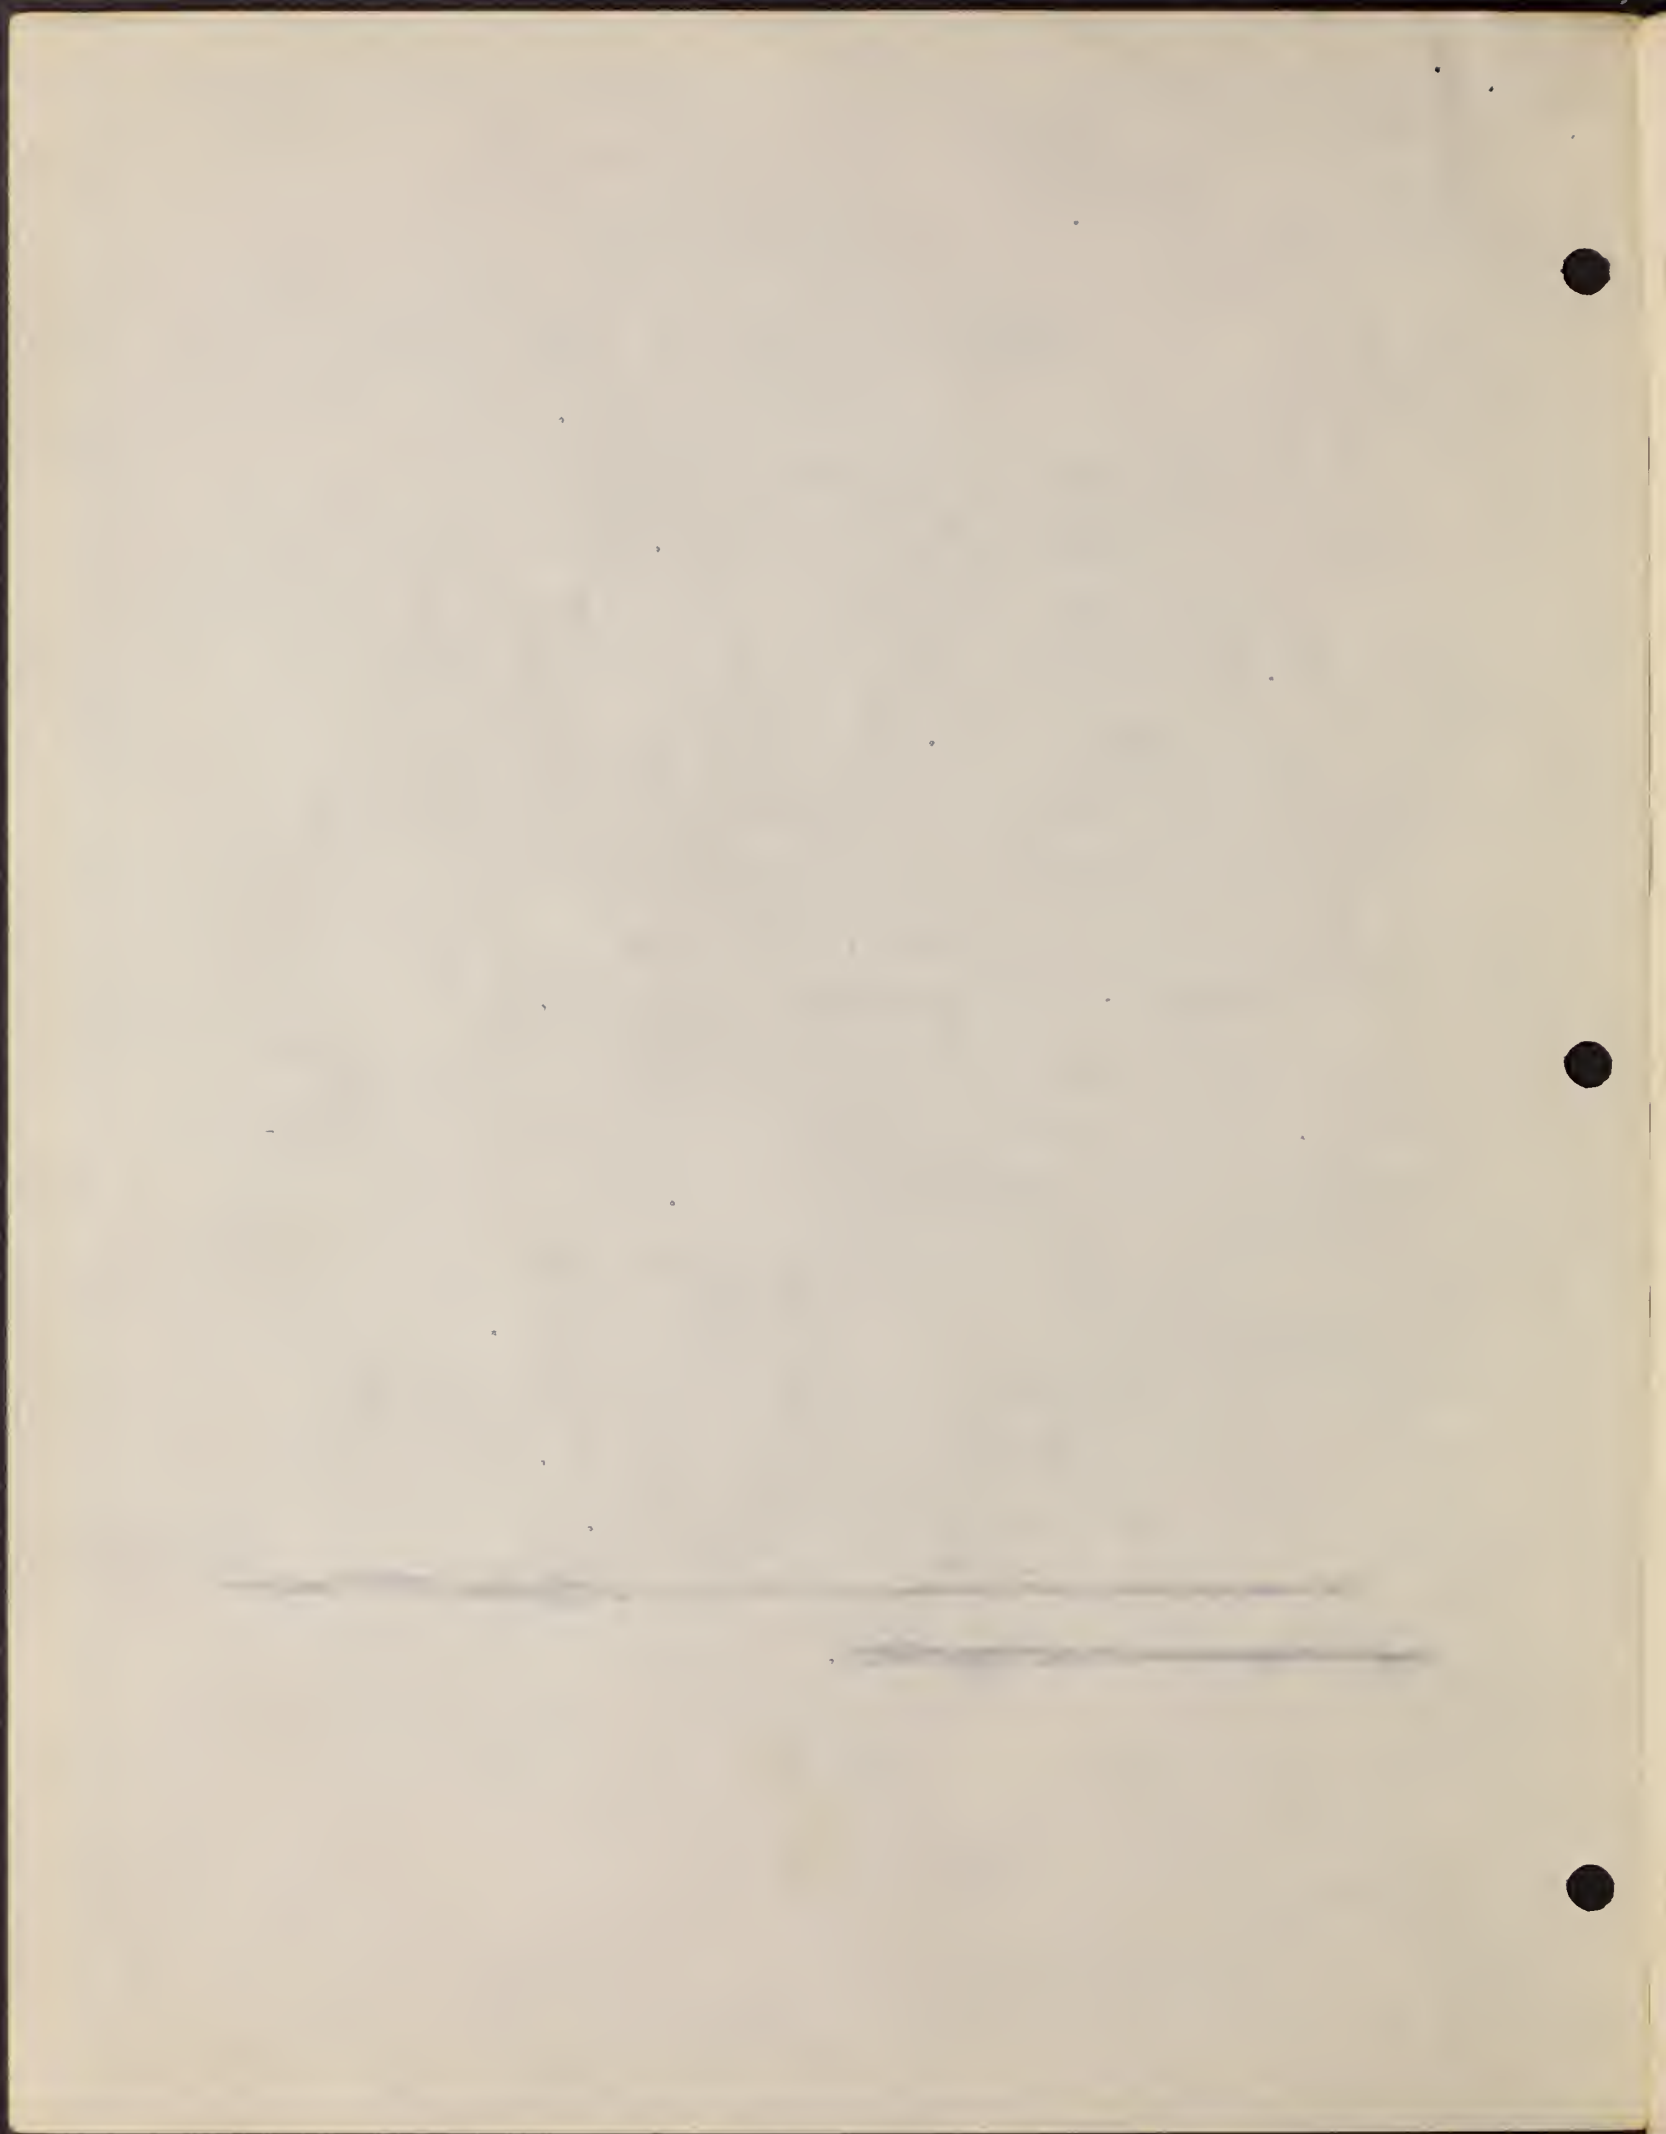

Having found irreconcilable differences between these American records and the account of the Ruttan family, as recorded in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte," I felt compelled to put my findings in print for the benefit of present and future generations of the family. I trust that the result will be read and enjoyed by the many descendants of these Loyalist families. Those who disagree may wish to review the sources of my information will find a list of these in the appendix.

It will also be noted that I have not carried the genealogical lines beyond the grandchildren of the Loyalist Ruttans in Canada. This will give present-day descendants the satisfaction of discovering, and adding to this record, their own descent from their Loyalist ancestors. In this regard, several blank pages have been added for this purpose.

ANCESTRY OF THE LOYAL RUTTANS.

During its century (1683-1783) of residence along the Lower Hudson River the family surname is recorded with many variations--Ratan, Ratham, Rattan, Raten, Retan, Rettan, Retham, Rittan, Rutan, Ruthemp, and finally, since arrival in Canada, Ruttan. Tradition states that the family is of Huguenot origin, having fled from La Rochelle, France, to England, removing to Holland at a later date, and eventually to America in 1734, which date is wrong, as will be proven. This tradition is supported by the fact that a Riton family in the 17th century in Lower Poitou, not too many miles north of La Rochelle.

Nothing is known of the Ruttan family before 1683, when its members were first recorded in Esopus, a few miles south of Kingston, New York. They may have come from France, by way of Holland, as has been related. But there are other possibilities. They may have been Walloons, a French-speaking people, from the Franco-Belgian border, who fled to Holland to escape French domination, as did the Demorests, the De Forests, to name a few. They may also have arrived in the Lower Hudson Valley from Canada, as did a number of Huguenot families, as did the Le Roys (Larroway), or the Davids (the family of the wife of Paulus Ruttan, our ancestor), ~~to name a few~~. The strongest possibility is that they accompanied a group of French who came to America from Paltz in the German portion of the Lower Rhine Valley, and settled in the environs of Kingston, New York, about 1678. It is hoped that some future investigator may find the answer.

During their twenty years of residence at Esopus the Ruttans were adherents of the French Church at New Paltz. After their removal to New Jersey about 1700, and subsequent intermarriages with their Dutch neighbors, the Ruttans became ~~members~~ <sup>members</sup> of the Dutch Reformed Church, except where members of the family resided in communities served only by the Lutheran Church. To add to the confusion, it is noted in a history of Hudson and Bergen Counties, New Jersey, the first Rutan was referred to as a Hollander, not a Frenchman.

FIRST GENERATION.

1. ABRAM, variously surnamed Rutan, Rutant, Rutemp and Rutemps, resided in Esopus, Ulster County, New York Province, some seventy-five miles north of New York City. His name appears in a list of the inhabitants of that county in 1689. Although he resided in Esopus, a community on the west <sup>eight</sup> bank of the Hudson River about ~~ten~~ miles south of the present city of Kingston, his children were baptized in the <sup>French</sup> ~~Dutch Reformed~~ Church at New Paltz, a settlement more than ten miles to the west and inland. Abraham and his wife, Mary Petition, also Piteljon, are recorded as godparents of the child of Pierre Doieie, who was baptized 14 October, 1683. This is the first record of the Ruttans in America, and it should be noted that it antedates the founding of the Huguenot community at New Rochelle, New York, by four years.

During the next decade several of Abraham's children were baptized in the New Paltz Church, the last one in 1691. At some time between this date and 1703, Abraham and his family removed to the Passaic (Aqueckanonk) area of New Jersey. Abraham's will is dated 10 September, 1710. He died at New Barbados, New Jersey, on 19 May, 1713. By his will he left all to his wife, except one piece of property left to his eldest son Daniel. The inventory of his wife's estate is dated 22 May, 1713.

The recorded children of Abraham Rutan and Mary Petition were:

2. DANIEL, the eldest son, was baptized 23 September, 1684, in the <sup>French</sup> ~~Dutch~~ Church, New Paltz. At his marriage, 9th March, 1710, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack, New Jersey, he is recorded as having been born in Esopus. His bride, Armtie Hanse Spier, was born at Acquagenonck (Passaic), New Jersey. They continued to reside in the latter community as late as 1735.

3. Paul, or Paulus, born in Esopus, was baptized in the <sup>French</sup> ~~Dutch Reformed~~

3. PAUL, or PAULUS, born in Esopus, was baptized in the <sup>French</sup>~~Dutch Reformed~~ Church, New Paltz, New York, 20 March, 1685/6. He is the ancestor of the Ontario families. (See below)

4. DAVIDE, born in Esopus, was baptized in the <sup>French</sup>~~Dutch Reformed~~ Church, New Paltz, 17 May, 1688. His godparents were Pier Doye and Genne Vybau, or Dylar. Nothing further is known of Davide.

5. ESTER, born in Esopus, was baptized in the <sup>French</sup>~~Dutch Reformed~~ Church, New Paltz, 14 May, 1690. She was buried under the same auspices 5 August, 1690, aged 6 months.

6. Pierre, born in Esopus, was baptized in the <sup>French</sup>~~Dutch Reformed~~ Church, New Paltz, 24 October, 24 October, 1691. He married, 7 November, 1713, Gertrude Vanderhoof, in the Dutch Reformed Church, in Hackensack, New Jersey. They lived at New Barbados, New Jersey.

It is possible that Abraham married, secondly, Mary Retan, and that they were the parents of

7. SARA, who was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church, in Hackensack, New Jersey, 21 May, 1704.

SECOND GENERATION.

3. PAUL, or PAULUS (Abraham 1) Rutan was born in Esopus, New York, and baptized in the <sup>French</sup>~~Dutch Reformed~~ Church, New Paltz, 20 March, 1685/6. He evidently removed from Esopus to the Philipsburgh Manor, some twenty-five miles above New York City, where he married, 10 October, 1708, Engeltje (Angelica) Davidse. The marriage record states that he was born in the Pals (New Paltz) area, while Engeltje had been born at "Laval in Canida." Engeltje died in Philipsburgh about 1716, after mothering five sons. Paul married, secondly, Elizabeth Foseur, also spelled Vourchie, at the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 31 January, 1719. They were then living in Philipsburgh, where Elizabeth was born. Paul and his family removed to New Jersey about 1722, where he and his wife became affiliated with the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack. Paul was still alive in 1739.

Children (Rutan) by his first wife, Engeltje Davids:

8. ABRAHAM, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptized, 2 August, 1709, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, New York. His sponsors were his paternal grandparents, Abraham and Maria Rutan. Nothing further is recorded of him.

9. WILLIAM, born in Philipsburgh Manor, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 8 November, 1710. He was father of the Loyalist refugees who settled in Ontario. (see below)

10. JACOB, born in Philipsburgh Manor, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 25 March, 1712. He evidently died very young.

11. JACOB, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown, 26 May, 1714. His sponsors were his mother's brother, Carel Davidse, and his wife, Antje. Nothing further is known of this child.

12. DANIEL, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptized 20 June, 1716, in the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown. No further record of this child.

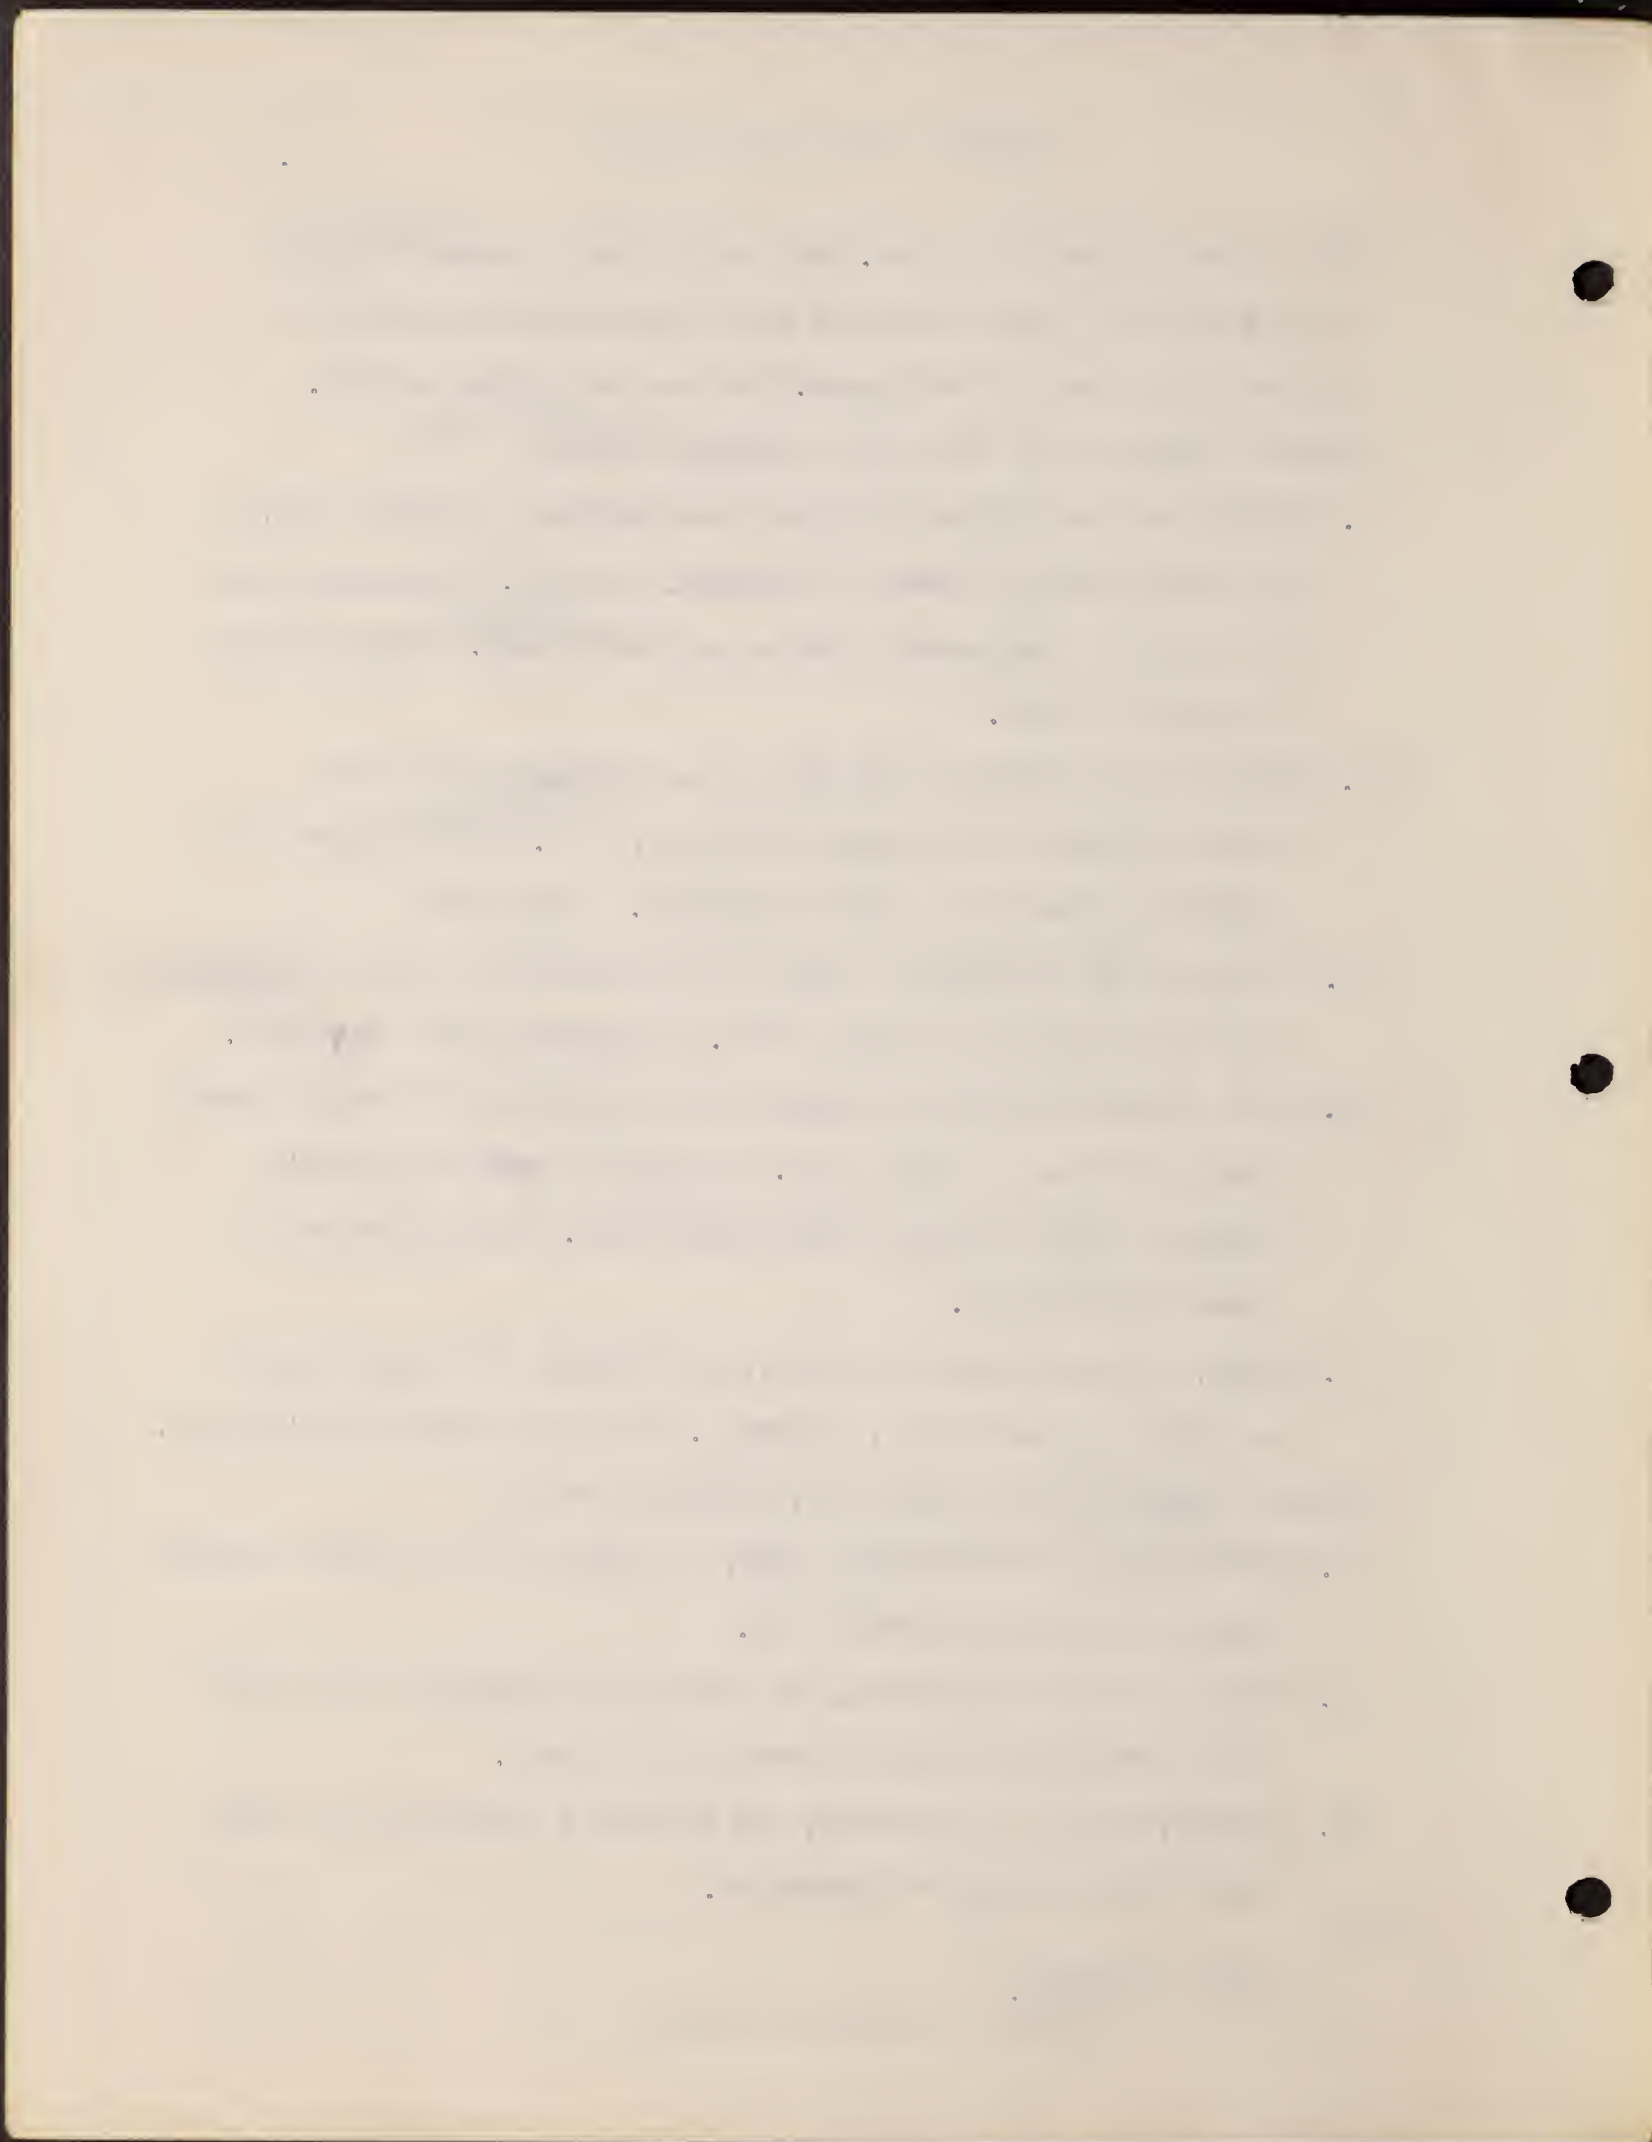

Children (Rutan) by the second wife, Elizabeth Fosuer:

13. MARYTIE, born on Philipsburgh Manor, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown, 19 April, 1720.

14. EVATJE, born in New Barbados, New Jersey, was baptized 27 September, 1724, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack.

15. JOHANNES, born at New Barbados, was baptized 8 August, 1731, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack.

THIRD GENERATION.

9. WILLIAM (Paul 2, Abraham 1) Rutan was born in Philipsburgh Manor, and baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church at Tarrytown, 8 November, 1710, at which time his sponsors were Herman Montras and his wife, Margrietje. William accompanied his parents to New Barbados, New Jersey, in 1722. He married, 11 December, 1731, Maria, daughter of Peter Demarest and Marietie Meet, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Hackensack. At this ceremony he used the surname Codden. Why is unknown, unless it was a nickname, a custom common among the Dutch people. His children were baptized under the name of Rutan, or Retan.

The parish register at Hackensack contains this item: "Maryte De More, wife of William Retan, joined the church on 25 June, 1758." She was living in 1763, when she was named in the will of her father, Peter Demarest.

William Retan died on 24 May, 1794, and was buried at Schraalenburgh two days later.

Their children (Retan) were all baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh. They were:

- 2 # 12. ELIZABETH was baptized 2 December, 1733, her sponsors being her 16 grandfather, Paulus Ratan, and his second wife, Elizabeth Vourchie (Foseur, later Forshee). (See below)
- 3 13. MARIA was baptized 3 August, 1736, her sponsors being her maternal 17 grandparents, Peter Demarest and his wife, Maria (Maretie) Meet.
- 4 14. ABRAHAM was baptized 15 April, 1739. His sponsors were his uncle, 18 Abraham Retan, for whom he was named, and Zara (Sarah) Demarest. He married Margiretje, daughter of Gerrit Ackerman and Magdalena Van Voorhees, and sister of Jannetje, wife of Abraham's brother, Peter Ruttan, the Loyalist of Adolphustown, Ontario. Margiretje was baptized at Hackensack, 4 January, 1741. An Abraham Ruttan, a sergeant in the 3rd Battalion, New Jersey Volunteers, is listed as having gone to New Brunswick, Canada, with the great Loyalist emigration from New York City in the Summer of 1783. This is, undoubtedly the same man. If so, he returned, in later years, to New Jersey, where he died 15 March, 1822, aged 82 years, 11 months, and 23 days.
Rattan

- 5 # 15. PETER was baptized 19 April, 1742. His sponsors, for whom he was 19 named, were his maternal grandparents, Peter Demarest and his wife.
(see below)
- 6 16. PAULUS, born 28 October, and baptized 25 November, 1744. He was 20 recorded as a Tory, and a resident of the Clove District, in the Hackensack Valley. He remained in New Jersey after the Revolution, and is recorded as having been buried in Schraalenburgh, 2 May, 1812.
- 7 17. RACHEL was born 7 July, and baptized 17 July, 1747. Her sponsors were 21 Johannes Loots and his wife, Rachel Demarest, her mother's sister, for whom she was named.
- 8 18. LEAH was born 14 September, and baptized 29 October, 1751. Her 22 sponsors were Johannes Ackerman and his wife, Jacomyntie Demarest, her aunt and uncle.
- 9 # 19. JACOB was born 19 April, and baptized 3 May, 1753. He became a settler
23 in Adolphustown Township, Ontario. (see below)
- 10 20. DAVID was baptized 14 December, 1755. He married, but his wife's name 24 is unknown. He was a Tory, and served in the Loyalist forces in New Jersey. Nothing further is known of him.
- 11 # 21. WILLIAM was born 2 April, and baptized 24 June, 1759. He came to 25 Adolphustown Township, Ontario, as a Loyalist refugee. (see below)

16. ELIZABETH (William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) Ruttan, eldest child and first daughter of William Ruttan and Maria Demarest, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, on 2 December, 1733. Her sponsors were her grandfather, Paulus Ratan, and his second wife, Elizabeth Vourchie (Foseur, Forshee), after whom she was named. She married, about 1750/1, Martens (Matteus, Matthew) Van Norden (Naarden, Orden). He and his family settled in Kingston Township, Ontario, as United Empire Loyalist refugees, a few years after 1784, having followed their first daughter and her husband. It is very likely, although I have no proof, that Matthew, his wife and younger children, had taken part in the exodus from New York City to New Brunswick in the Summer of 1783. Matthew died in 1790, leaving the following children, all of whom drew 200 acres of land as his offspring.

26. MARGARET Van Norden was born 19 January, and baptized 3 February, 1752, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey. Her sponsors were Andries and Margrietie Van Norden, for whom she was named. (see below)

27. PATTY Van Norden, who married Noel Pugsley, of Bastard Township, Leeds County, Ontario. She drew 200 acres of land as the daughter of a Loyalist by Order-in-Council, dated 29 September, 1836.

28. ELIZABETH Van Norden. She married John Burnett, of Kingston Township, before 1797, as, on 16 November of that year she drew 200 acres, as Mrs. Burnett, by Order-in-Council, as daughter of a U. E. Loyalist. (see below)

29. ISAAH Van Norden, who married Ann, daughter of Captain Daniel McGuin, of Kingston Township. (see below)

19. PETER (William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) Ruttan, called Peter Rutan at his baptism in the Dutch Reformed Church in Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, 19 April, 1742. Peter married, in the same parish on 8 December, 1766, Jannetje (Jenny) Ackerman, a sister of Margiretje, wife of Peter's brother, Abraham. Both were daughters of Gerrit 3 (David 2, David 1) Ackerman and Magdalena (Lena) Van Voorhees. Jannetje had been born 12 May, 1751. Peter had been named, as second son, after his maternal grandfather, Peter Demarest, who, with his wife, had been sponsors at his baptism. At the baptism of their second child, they were living in, or near, Paramus, New Jersey. By 1772, Peter was living at Ramapo, in New Jersey, ~~where he was living~~ when the American Revolution began. Peter's Loyalist Claim states that he was late of Franklin, in Bergen County, New Jersey, in the neighborhood of Ramapo. His claim continues:

"He joined Gen. Howes Army in Decemr 1776 & brought in 60 men for the 4th Batal of the N. Jersey Volunteers. Says he was put in arrest by his Coll. Gen. Skinner for disobedience of orders. Says that he was never tried. Says he resigned his commission. He afterwards went into the country by order of the Commander in Chief to get intelligence & raised 40 men for Coll. Bayard."

Peter Ruttan served as captain in the 4th Battalion, and later in the 3rd Battalion, New Jersey Volunteers. In the Summer of 1783, with the war over, and it was necessary to evacuate New York City, he was chosen as Captain of Associated Loyalists to head a group of discharged soldiers and refugees who were about to depart for Canada. His was one of eight such companies, all of which were aboard ships in New York Harbor on 5 June, awaiting movement orders. The boats departed in a few days, and began to arrive at Quebec in the middle of August. That under command of Captain Ruttan, on its arrival, was entered in the records, as follows:

"Aug. 11. Ship Hope, Capt. Ratten Compy.

38 Men, 18 women, 18 children over ten, 11 children under ten,

1 servant. Total 86."

Two days later this company proceeded up river to Sorel, where it arrived in September. Here it went into winter quarters to await settlement in the Spring. After a long, miserable winter, during which the several commanders ~~vied~~ with one/another for seniority, it was finally agreed that the companies of Major Van Alstine and Captain Ruttan should unite to become the pioneers of Adolphustown Township. The differences of opinion between the two continued long after settlement---a deal of smoke, but no fire.

There has been some uncertainty as to Captain Peter's year of birth.

The Ruttan story in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" states that he was born in 1759. His Loyalist Claim states that he leased land in New Jersey in 1770. Surely not at eleven years of age! The Claim also tells us that he joined the Royal Standard in 1776, at which time he was appointed a captain, an unlikely story for a boy of seventeen. It is also recorded that he arrived in Canada in 1783 with two children over twelve years of age, a real feat for a man of twenty-four years of age. A memorial tablet in St. Alban's Memorial Church in Adolphustown reveals that he died 1 January, 1829, aged 80 years. It is believed that this an error, and should have been 86 years. If so, it would agree with his baptismal record in the Dutch Reformed Church in Schraalenburgh.

There seems to be a certain amount of difficulty in correctly naming the children of Peter, and his wife, Jannetje. The list, as supplied by "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", ~~which~~ <sup>to have been</sup> appears, ~~was~~ supplied by another branch of the family. Indeed, some of the children so named may well be those of his son, Peter, Junior. Corrections may be required by others more familiar with the details.

These children were:

- 13 # 30. PETER. His birth and baptismal dates are unknown at present. He is the son over twelve in 1783, ~~likely~~<sup>1781?</sup> born about 1768, and whose name is included in the muster roll of Adolphustown. (see below).
- 12 31. ABRAHAM, baptized at Paramus, New Jersey, 24 December, 1769, as recorded in the Ackerman Genealogy. As there are no further records of this child, it must be assumed that he died young.
- 14 32. MARIA, who was baptized 1 March, 1772, in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Ramapo, New Jersey. It is assumed that she was the daughter who was listed as over twelve years of age in December, 1783. Although there is no further mention of Maria, she, or one of her girl cousins, the daughter of her Uncle Jacob, of Picton, must be the Mary Elizabeth Ruttan who married Owen Roblin about 1793-4, or the Mary Ruttan, said to be daughter of Captain Peter, who is recorded as the mother of the Peter Matthews, the rebel who was hanged in 1837. If the latter, she died 1 December, 1859, aged 90 years.
- 15 33. Jannetje, baptized in the Evangelical Church in Ramapo, in July, 1775. It is assumed that she died before the departure from New York, in July, 1783.
- 17 # 34. JOSEPH BRANT, said to have been named after Joseph Brant, the noted Iroquois leader during the Revolutionary War. He evidently was the son under five years of age, as recorded in the "Muster Roll of Adolphustown, in October, 1784. (see below)

35. JOHN, who is listed briefly in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" as having married and resided in Adolphustown. (see below)

19 36. DAVID is recorded as a son of Captain Peter Ruttan, and was called a resident of Fredericksburgh Township, when he drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 11 April, 1833. It is possible that he was a son of Peter, Junior. His name is absent from the census records of Adolphustown in the period 1794 to 1822. However, he was Overseer of Highways in the first concession of that township in 1848. Nothing further is known of David.

23. JACOB (William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) RUTTAN was born 19 April, and baptized 3 May, 1753, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, N. J. According to the Demarest Genealogy, he married a Miss Haring. Without doubt he was the Jacob Ruttan whose name appears in the census of Adolphustown in 1794, 1795 and 1796, with a wife, two sons and two daughters. There is no evidence that he was a Loyalist. He appears to have followed his brothers to Canada some time before 1794. He was granted 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 30 August, 1797, no doubt as a settler. The land thus allocated to him was Lot 26 in the 8th Concession of the Township of Murray. In the same year Jacob and family removed to Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County. On 18 July, 1798, Jacob's name appeared in the Assessment Roll of Hallowell Township, where he continued to live until his death in 1811, intestate. The census records of Adolphustown indicate four children, two sons and two daughters. What little known of them is as follows:

37. WILLIAM, eldest son, born about 1779/80. He is likely the William Ruttan, who was married by the Rev. Robert McDowall to Rebecca Angel, widow, on 15 February, 1808, both of them then residing in Hallowell. William died intestate in 1813, leaving an eldest son, Jacob Ruttan, who claimed, in 1835, as heir of his grandfather, his right to the 200 acres of land in Murray Township which had been granted in 1797. His claim was supported by the affidavit of his Uncle Abraham Ruttan, as recorded in the Heir and Devisee Papers in the Provincial Archives, Toronto, Ontario.

38. ABRAHAM, the second son, whose affidavit, as mentioned above, had supported the claim of his nephew, Jacob, to the land in Murray Township. Abraham was listed as of Hillier Township at the time of his death, just prior to 7 January, 1846, intestate, on which date John Thuresson, of the Town of Picton, issued an affidavit supporting the claim of Joseph Ruttan as oldest son of Amraham Ruttan, late of the Township of Hallowell, yeoman, deceased, who had recently died intestate.

39. Daughter, name unknown.

40. Daughter, name unknown.

One of these daughters may have been the Mary Elizabeth Ruttan who married Owen Roblin, as referred to under no. 32, Maria Ruttan, her cousin, and daughter of her uncle, Captain Peter Ruttan.

25. WILLIAM (William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) Ruttan, the sixth son and tenth child of William Ruttan and Maria Demarest, was born 2 April, and baptized 24 June, 1759, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey. It is safe to assume that William, aged 17, was one of the sixty men who joined the 4th Battalion of the New Jersey Volunteers with his brother, Captain Peter Ruttan, in the year 1776. William was later commissioned as Lieutenant in the Volunteers, and served the rest of the war.

William and Margaret, a sister of Matthew Steel, U. E., were married in New York City on 10 June, 1782. In 1783, when it was necessary for the British to evacuate New York, William Ruttan, as a lieutenant in the Associated Loyalists, with his wife, accompanied his brother, Captain Peter Ruttan, who left New York aboard the brig "Hope," in the first week of July, arriving at Quebec in August, and finally landing at Sorel in September.

The first official reference to William's family is found in the Haldimand Papers, vol. B-166. It is entitled

Undermentioned Refugee Loyalist Families Lately Arrived From New York Acknowledge Receipt of Clothing, dated Sorel, 19 Nov., 1783.

Mrs. William Ruttan, with a child under 6 years of age.

Mrs. Ruttan signed the entry with her mark.

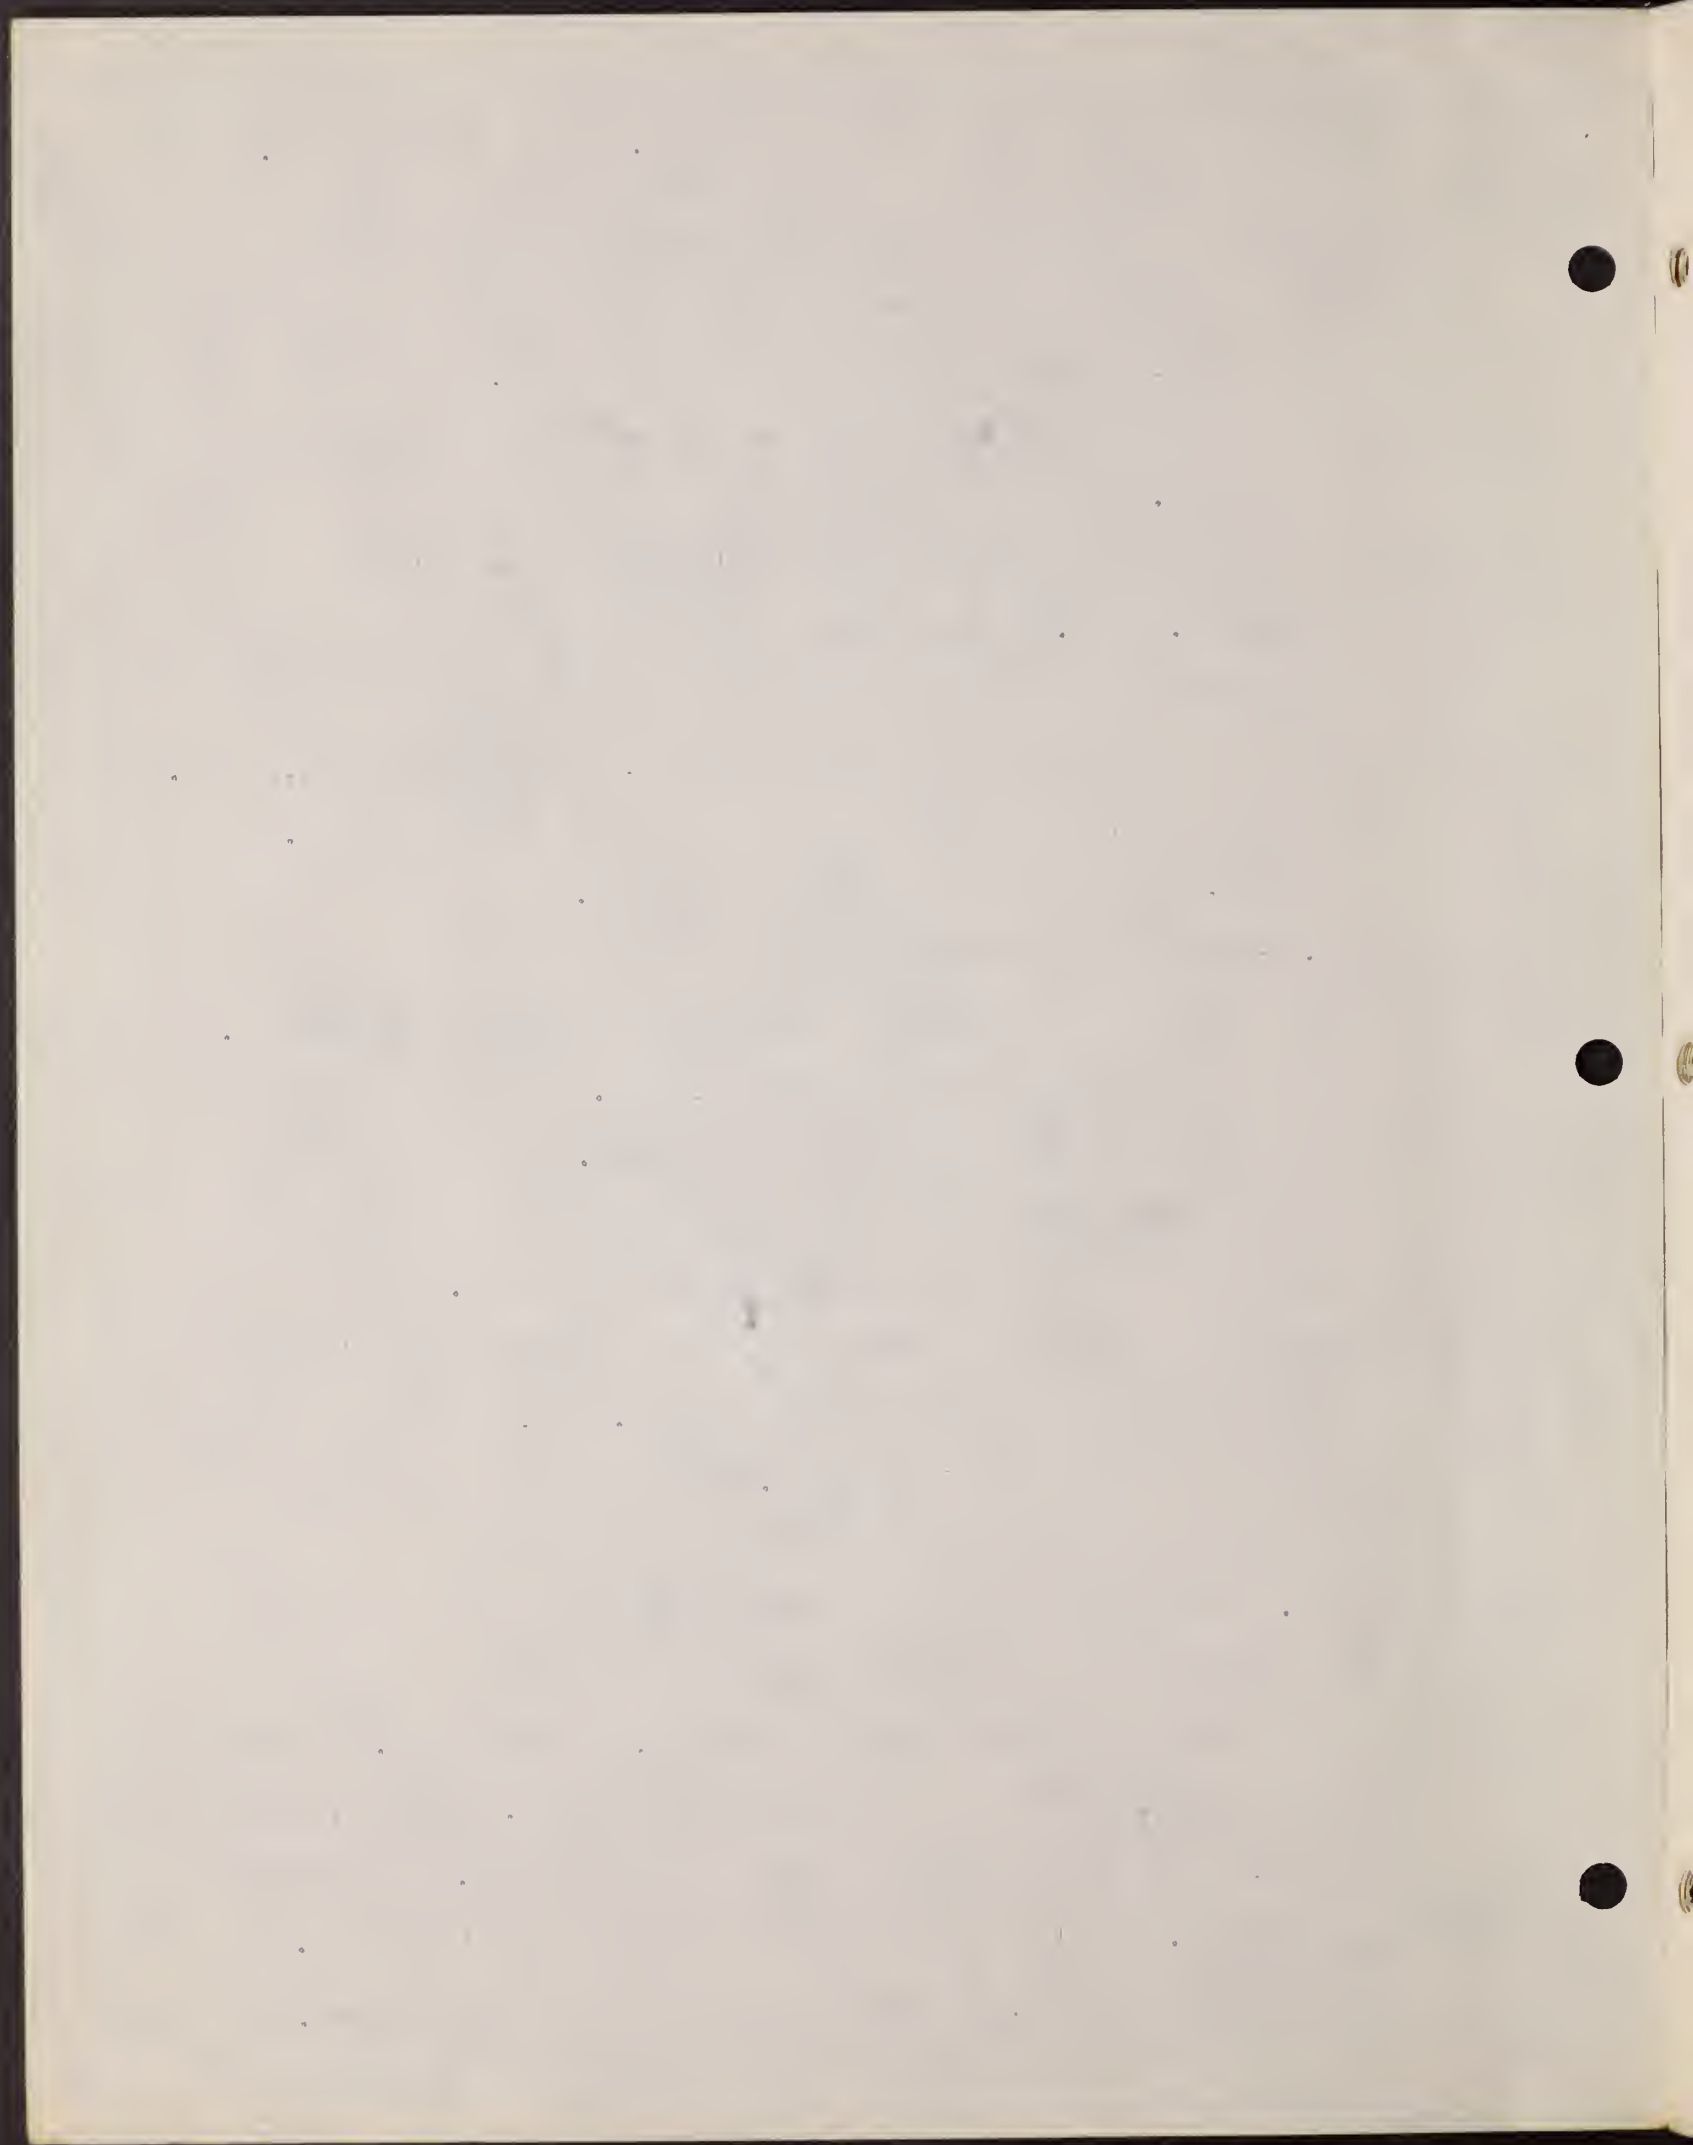

Vol. B-167, of the Haldimand Papers, contains

A Return of Disbanded Troops and Loyalists Settled in Township No. 4 (Cataraqui), Mustered 6 October, 1784.

William Ruttan, a wife and no children.

Under "Remarks" it is recorded that his child had died since the last muster (that of November, 1783).

William Ruttan drew Lot 18, Concession, in Adolphustown, for which he received a Crown Deed, dated 22 February, 1805. Here, on the Bay Shore, he resided during his remaining years. His name appeared regularly in the census records of the Township from 1794 to 1822, when the records cease. He died in Adolphustown in October, 1843, aged 84 years, which agrees with the birth and baptismal dates in the register of the Dutch Reformed Church in Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, as noted above. His wife, Margaret Steel, died in February, 1844, aged 80 years. They rest, side by side, in the Anglican Church Cemetery in Adolphustown. A memorial tablet in St. Alban's Memorial Church confirms his Loyalist status. It reads: "William Ruttan, Captain, died October, 1843, aged 86 years."

The second error in the tablets in St. Alban's Church.

William's children, all born in Adolphustown, except the firstborn, were:

41. An unnamed son, likely called William after his paternal grandfather, was born in 1783, and died shortly after the family's arrival in Adolphustown. His burial place is unknown, unless the following entry in Canniff's "The Settlement of Upper Canada," page 451, furnishes a clue. It reads: "While they (the Loyalists of Adolphustown) were yet living in their tents one of their number died, a child it is said by some. The dead was buried close by, under a tree."
- # 42. PETER W., born 1 February, 1787; died 28 April, 1861. (see below)
- # 43. DANIEL, born about 1789; died in Kingston, Ontario, 27 February, 1846. (see below)
44. ABRAHAM, who married Miss Dingman, and resided in Adolphustown, where he was drowned shortly after. He drew 200 acres of land, as the son of a Loyalist, by Order-in-Council, dated 28 November, 1821. His name is found in the census of Adolphustown in 1822, with a wife and a son. No further record.
- # 45. HENRY, born about 1790; died 31 July, 1870, aged 80 years. (see below)
- # 46. MATTHEW, born in 1805/6. (see below)
- # 47. JACOB, born about 1807. (see below)
48. CHARLES STUART, of Hamilton Township, Northumberland County, married Mary Rowe, and removed to Illinois, U. S. A. He drew 200 acres of land, as son of a Loyalist, by Order-in-Council, dated 7 December, 1830. Nothing further is known of him or his family.
- # 49. ELIZABETH, born in 1800; married Hugh C. Thomson, of Kingston. (see below)

FIFTH GENERATION.

26. MARGARET (Elizabeth 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) Van Norden, daughter of Matthew (Martens, Matteus) Van Norden and Elizabeth Rutan, was born 19 January, and baptized 3 February, 1752, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Schraalenburgh, New Jersey. She married William Howe in the Lutheran Church, New York City, on 21 September, 1770.

William Howe joined the Royal Standard very shortly after the British occupation of New York City in August, 1776. He became a member of Captain Ward's Independent Company. He was serving as a Lieutenant in this unit during its memorable defence of The Blockhouse in Bergen Wood in July, 1781, when about seventy-five members of the Company withstood for four hours the onslaught of two thousand men under Brigadier-General Anthony Wayne. This blockhouse was situated on the edge of the Jersey palisades, overlooking Bull's Ferry and Mid-town New York.

William Howe and his family came to Canada when New York was evacuated in 1783. Arriving in Sorel, they went into winter quarters. A reference to the family is found in the Haldimand Papers, vol. B-166, as follows:

The Undermentioned Refugee Loyalists Families Lately Arrived from
New York Acknowledge Receipt of Clothing, Sorel, 19 Nov., 1783
Mrs. Howe, 3 children over six, one child under six.

Receipt signed by Will. How.

The Howe family ascended the St. Lawrence River in the Spring of 1784, and settled in Kingston Township, as reported in vol. B-167 of the Haldimand Papers, which reads:

Return of Disbanded Troops and Loyalists Settled in Township No. 1 (Cataraqui), Mustered 9 October, 1784.

William Howe, wife, two sons and one daughter over ten years of age.

Therefore, it must be assumed that one child had died since arrival in

~~in Kingston~~ CATARAQUI

H-6-A-R-2

William Howe died in Kingston Township in 1795. Two years later, his son, Matthew, in the name of his mother and her children, applied for, and received, a further grant of 600 acres of land because of his father's service "as a Blockhouse man." Mrs. Howe died in 1802, and was buried in Kingston on 12 July, by the Rev. John Stuart, as Margaret Hough.

Their known children (Howe), who applied for land as sons and daughters of a Loyalist, were:

50. DANIEL, born about 1771 in New York, was granted 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 17 November, 1797. He married Eve, daughter of George Buck, U. E., of Kingston. He was very likely named for ~~XX~~ his paternal grandfather, being the first son.

51. MATTHEW, born about 1773, and named for his maternal grandfather, Matthew Van Norden. He drew 200 acres of land at the same time as his brother Daniel. He married Margaret, daughter of Lieutenant George Galloway, U. E., of Kingston. He resided on the north half of Lot 5, Concession 1, Kingston Township, just east of Collins Bay.

52. ELIZABETH, born about 1772, was married 15 December, 1789, by Rev. John Stuart, to David Babcock, of Kingston. She drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 17 November, 1797.

53. PETER, born about 1785, drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated ~~XX September~~ 20 November, 1810. He was married to Catharine, daughter of John Conner, U. E., 12 September, 1810, by Rev. John Stuart.

54. GEORGE, born before 1790, drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 23 January, 1811. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Lieutenant George Galloway, U. E., and widow of Elisha Rice.

55. WILLIAM, called youngest son, drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 5 March, 1840.

28. ELIZABETH (Elisabeth 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1), daughter of Matthew Van Norden and Elisabeth Rutan, married, before 1797, John Burnett, U. E. John, his brother, Matthew, and his father, Thomas, were residents of Newburgh, New York, who joined the Royal Standard in New York City early in the Revolutionary War. They were members of the seventy-five who, under the command of Captain Ward, defended the Blockhouse in Bergen Wood when it was attacked for four hours by almost two thousand men under the Rebel general, "Mad" Anthony Wayne, in July, 1780. Thomas Burnett, with his two grown sons, and two daughters came to Canada in the Summer of 1783 with the Company of Captain Michael Grass. They were members of the first small group of Grass' men who arrived at Cataraqui in the late autumn of 1783.

John and Elizabeth settled in Kingston Township, where their recorded children were born. All of them drew 200 acres of land by Orders-in-Council, as noted after their names.

56. MARGARET, O. C. 26 March, 1817, married William Baker of Pittsburgh Township.

57. CATHERINE, O. C. 18 March, 1818, baptized by Rev. John Stuart, on 31 December, 1797, married John Howey of Kingston.

58. HANNAH, baptized by Rev. John Stuart, 11 October, 1795, O. C. 16 May, 1818, married, in 1815, Daniel Ansley, of Kingston.

59. MATTHEW, of Kingston, baptized by Rev. John Stuart, 9 March, 1794, O. C. 28 July, 1819.

60. MARY, twins, baptized by Rev. John Stuart, 5 February, 1804, O. C.

61. MARTHA, 20 July, 1825.

62. JOHN NELSON, baptized by Rev. John Stuart, 20 March, 1808, O. C. 5 Sept., 1833.

63. WILLIAM COLLINGWOOD, of Kingston, O. C. 5 September, 1833.

64. THOMAS, of Kingston, O. C. 8 June, 1825.

This very interesting item is found in B-126, Haldimand Papers:

Roll of Loyalists at and in the Dependencies of Cataraqui, and the Provisions they drew, Cataraqui, 4 December, 1783.

These of Capt. Grass' Company

Burnett, Thomas, aged 49 years, 11 months.

" John, aged 23 years, 3 months.

" Mathew, aged 21 years, 1 month.

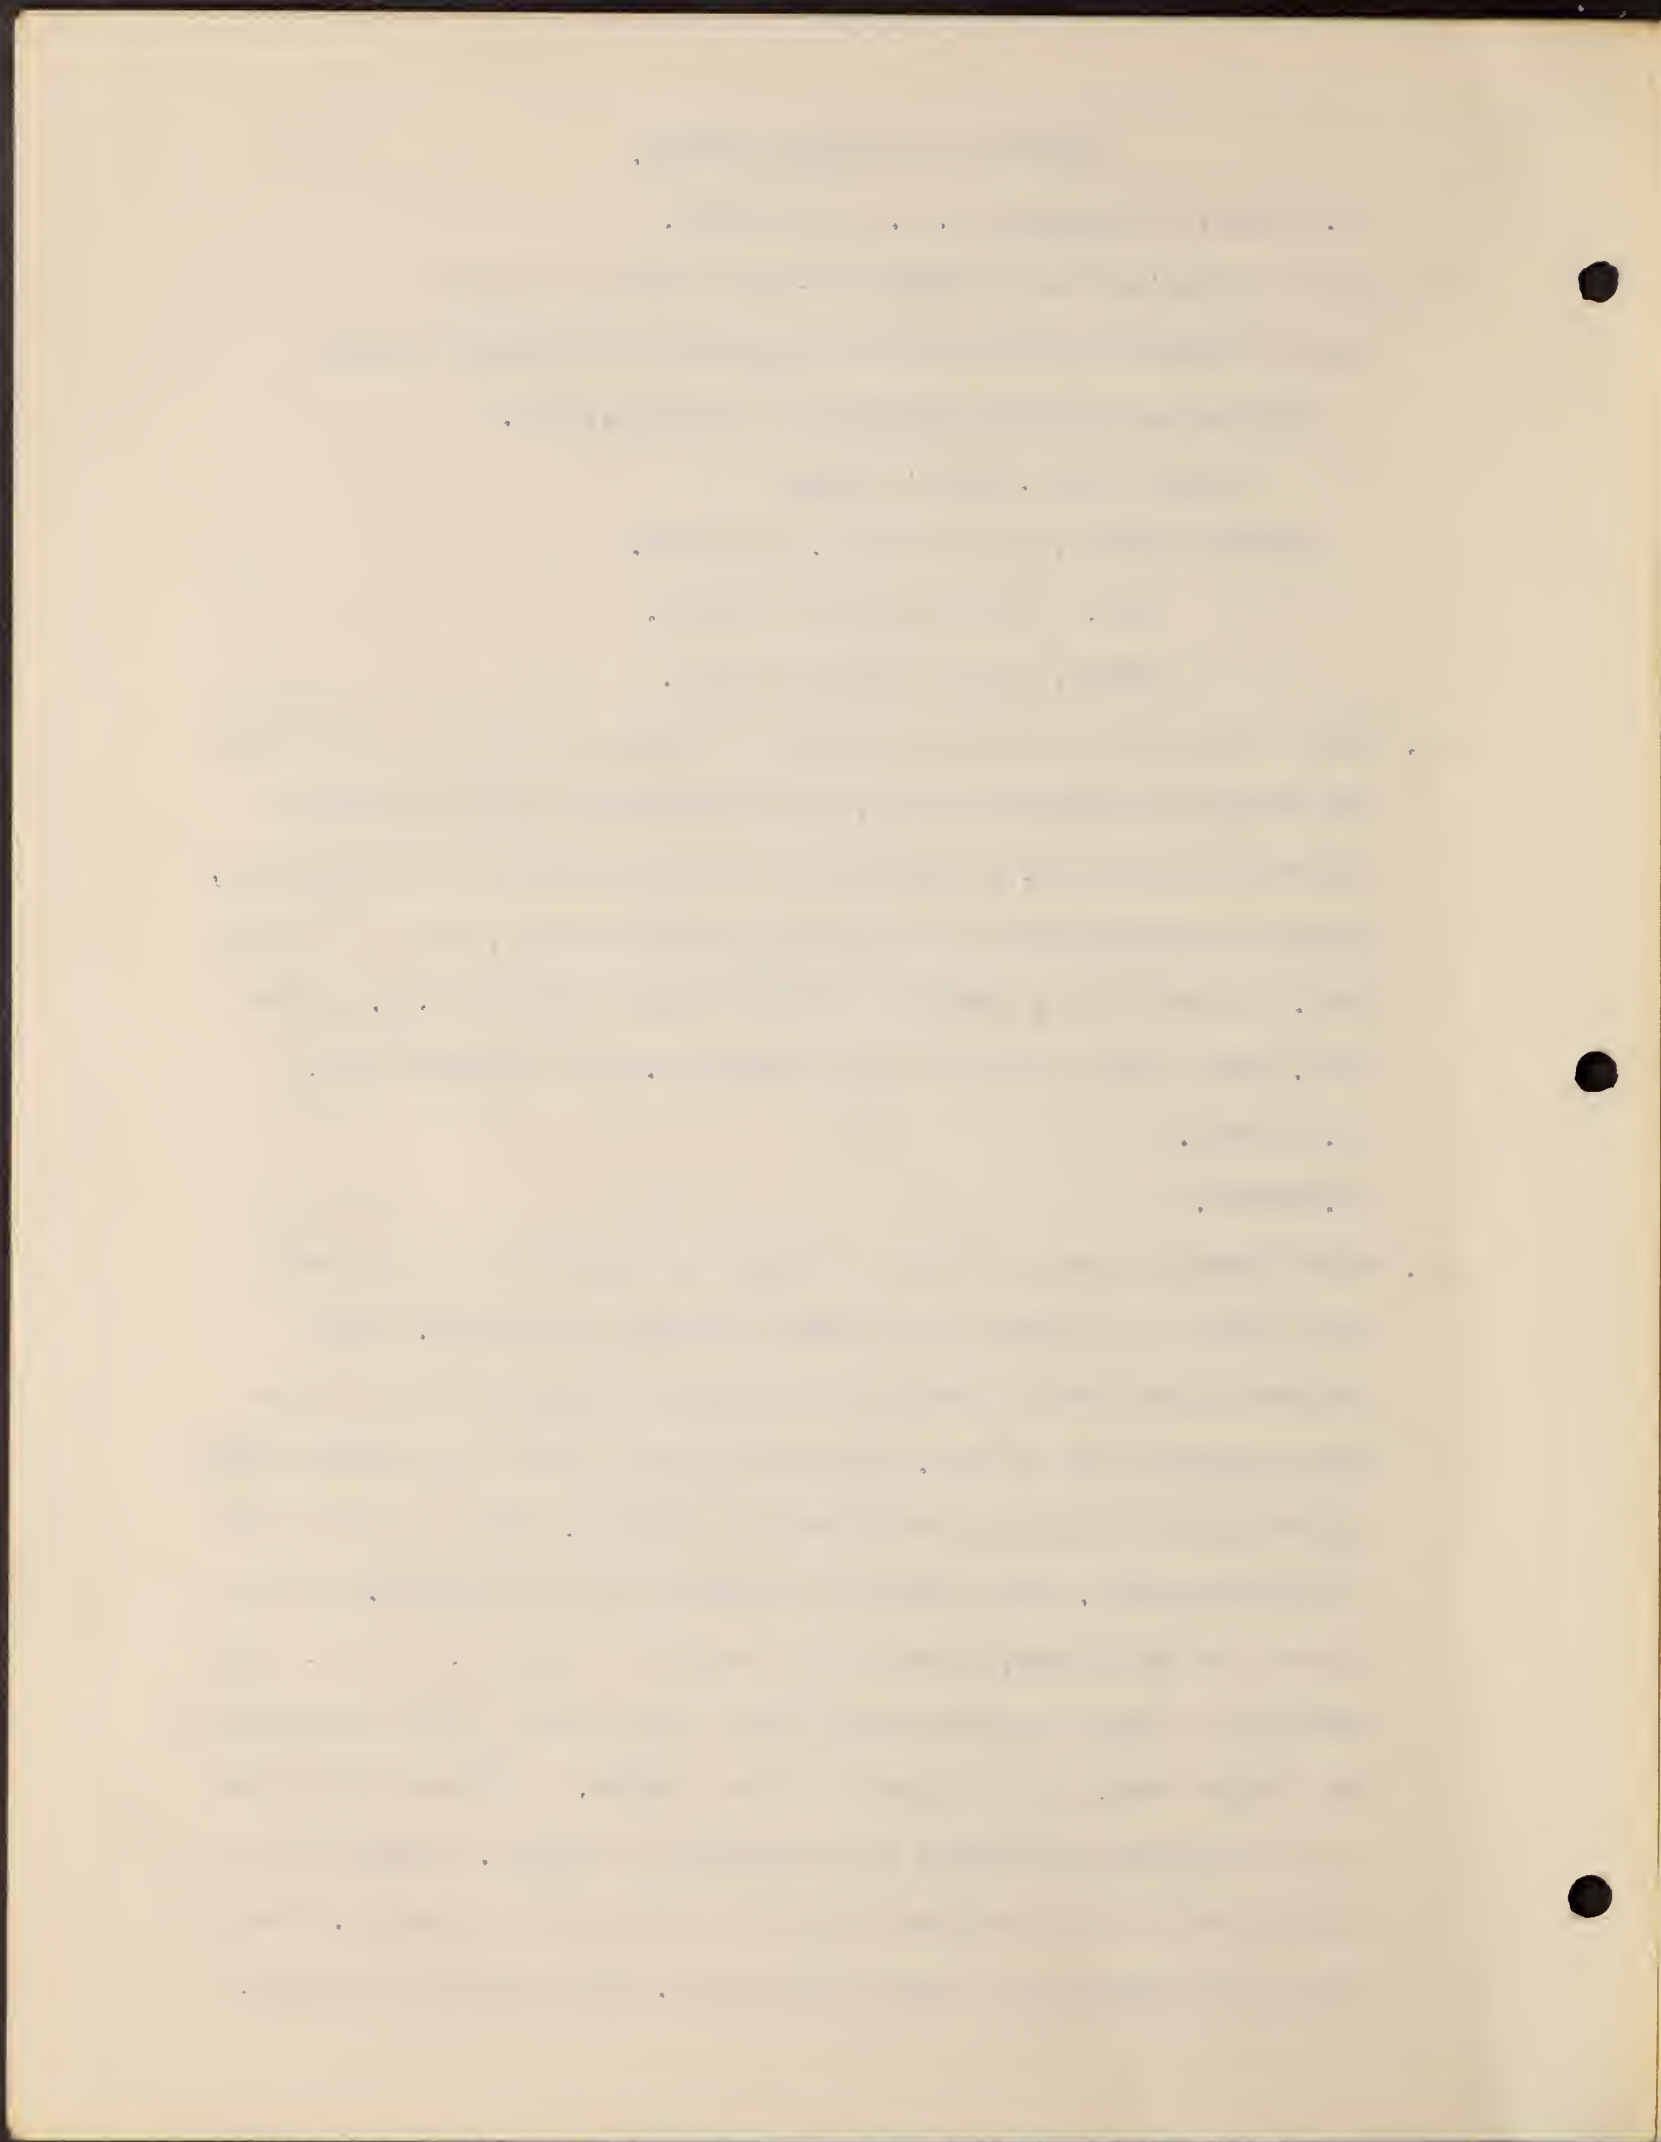

29. ISAAH (Elisabeth 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1), only son of Matteus Van Norden and Elisabeth Ruttan, came to Cataraqui with his parents between 1784 and 1796, possibly after already settling in New Brunswick, likely at the insistence of his elder sister, Margaret, wife of William Howe. He married Ann, daughter of Captain Daniel McGuin, U. E., before 1797. Very little is known of his activities. Thad two known sons,

65. ANTHONY.

66. MATTHEW.

30. PETER (Captain Peter 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) was born about 1768, where is not known, but likely at Ramapo, New Jersey. He is recorded as the son of Captain Peter Ruttan, and must be the son over twelve years of age in 1783. He must have passed his 16th birthday before the Muster of settlers in Adolphustown in October, 1784, as he was then listed separately, and considered a Loyalist in his own right. In this regard, the Reed Index, found in the Provincial Archives, Toronto, lists children as those of Captain Peter Ruttan, when some of them, particularly the younger ones, must be those of Peter, Junior. The same thing seems to have happened in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte." Descendants of Captain Peter should make every effort to clarify the situation. Peter, Junior, was married on 12 May, 1790, by Rev. John Langhorn, to Jemima, daughter of Lieutenant Michael Slood, U. E., of Adolphustown, an officer in the Refugee Volunteers. Strangely enough, very little is known of Peter Ruttan, Junior, beyond his marriage noted above. He is not even mentioned as a son of Captain Peter Ruttan in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, nor did any of his children draw land as sons and daughters of a Loyalist, unless the possibility that some of the children listed under the name of his father properly belong to Peter, Junior. Neither is there any record of the death and burial of either Peter, or his wife, Jemima. The Census Records of Adolphustown (1794-1822) reveal that Peter, Junior, lived in that Township from 1794 to 1809. These records indicate a daughter born in 1794, or earlier, a second daughter in 1796, a son in 1799, a third daughter in 1801, and a fourth in 1804. Who these were, I am unable to say, although I am confident that the following children belong to Peter, Junior, and Jemima:

(PETER 5, CAPT. PETER 4, WILLIAM 3, PAULUS 2, ABRAHAM 1)
 67. JANE, born in 1796, likely the second daughter. The following item taken from "The Atlas of Frontenac and Lennox and Addington Counties,"

1870, dealing with Peter W. Freeman, states that "The father of Peter W. Freeman, Esq. (of Sydenham), was born in Grenville (County) in June, 1790, and came to Loughborough some time during the year 1810 or 1811. He married Miss Jane Ruttan in the year 1812, and settled on Lot 18 in the seventh concession, now owned by Mr. J. K. Freeman. His great-grandfather on his mother's side, Mr. Ruttan, was born in Germany. He joined the British Army under General Burgoyne, and was in active service until the close of the War in 1781. He came with his family to Canada, and settled as a United Empire Loyalist in Adolphustown, where the mother of Mr. Peter W. Freeman was born, and who is still living."

This can only mean that Jane was a granddaughter of Captain Peter Ruttan. Her father must have been Peter, Junior, who was born in 1768. Captain Peter's second son, Joseph B., born in 1783, was too young to be Jane's father.

68. MICHAEL (Peter 5, Capt. Peter 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1), who is listed as a son of Captain Peter, was most probably a son of Peter, Junior. He was likely born about 1791 or 1792, and was likely named for his maternal grandfather, Michael Sloat, U. E. It appears that he married, wife's name unknown, about 1812, as he is listed in the Adolphustown Census in 1820 with three sons and a daughter. He apparently removed shortly thereafter to Loughborough Township, Frontenac County. He was likely father of these Ruttans whose names are found in the Census of 1851:

Lorenzo, born in 1812-3.

John W., born in 1815-6.

Christopher, born in 1817-8.

William, born in 1820-1.

Wesley, born in 1829-30.

34. JOSEPH B. (Capt. Peter 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1) is listed in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" as the second son of Captain Peter. He was named after Captain Joseph Brant, the famous Mohawk chief who served so honorably during the American Revolution. Joseph B. was born between 2 February, on which date Captain Peter Ruttan is shown as having a son and a daughter, both over ten years of age, and 5 October, 1784, when the muster of Loyalists in Adolphustown indicated that Captain Peter's family included a son under ten. His gravestone in the cemetery at Adolphustown reads:

Joseph Ruttan, died 12 January, 1832, aged 48 years.

Alley, his wife, died 11 May, 1851, aged 66 years, 4 months and 16 days.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is pointed out that the study of history is not only a means of understanding the past, but also a means of understanding the present and the future. The author argues that the study of history is essential for the development of a nation and for the progress of the world.

Joseph and Alley, daughter of John Canniff, U. E., were married by the Rev. Robert McDowall, of the Dutch Reformed Church, later known as the Presbyterian Church, in Bath, on 3 June, 1805, at which time they were recorded as residents of Fredericksburgh. Both drew 200 acres of land as children of a Loyalist, he on 16 February, 1810, and she on 26 January, 1808. Joseph's name is recorded in the census of Adolphustown from 1806 to 1822, with a daughter born in 1807, a son in 1808, a second daughter in 1810, a third daughter in 1813, a fourth daughter in 1814, a second son in 1816, and a third son in 1820.

Joseph B. Ruttan made his will on 14 November, 1831, and died, as recorded, on 12 January, 1832. His will names his six sons and three daughters, thus agreeing with the records found in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte."

These children were, the sons in order of birth,

69. Peter, born in 1808, settled in Kingston, where he married, 8 April, 1832, Barbara, daughter of Matthew Howe (see 51), his second cousin. They lived on the Howe farm, north half of Lot 5, concession 1, one mile east of Collins Bay. Mrs. Ruttan died in childbirth 23 June, 1854.

70. JOHN C(ANNIFF) (Joseph B. 5, Capt. Peter 4, William 3, Paulus 2, Abraham 1), born about 1816, married Sarah M. Baillie. He settled in the Hay Bay area, later removing to Pittsburgh Township, east of Kingston
